THE PREFACE.

AFTER ſo great a Name as that of Biſhop BEVERIDGE, in the Title, it were as ſuperfluous to attempt any farther Recommendation of theſe Papers, as it wou'd be impoſſible to effect it. If any thing can add to the Eſteem they muſt every where meet with, upon the Account of ſo great an Author, it muſt be a ſerious Peruſal and Application of them.

THOSE that read them with the ſame Spirit of Candour, with which this Great Man always read the Works of others, and with the ſame Spirit of Piety, with which he wrote his Own, will undoubtedly diſcover in them ſuch a lively Idea of the Great Genius of the Author, and ſo ſenſibly experience the good Influence of them upon their Minds, as will more effectually engage their Approbation, than the higheſt Encomiums from another Hand.

THE great Misfortune is, That thoſe who have moſt need to be Inſtructed and Reform'd, have no true Taſte or Reliſh for Books of this Nature: Their Eyes are dazzl'd with the glittering Appearances of the Objects of Senſe, and their Hearts enſlav'd to the Works of Dark-

Darkneſs; ſo that the Beams of Divine Light are but troubleſome and offenſive to them: Every Point of Faith is a Contradiction to their Principles, and every Precept enjoin'd, a Reproach to their Morals. And, therefore, in order to ſtave off thoſe ſelf-condemning Thoughts, that naturally ariſe from the ſerious Peruſal of ſuch ſort of Treatiſes, they ſcoff at, and deſpiſe them, as Dull and Inſipid; not worth the Conſideration of Men of more refin'd Parts and deeper Penetration, who are too wiſe to be guided by the Rule of GOD's Word, and too obſtinate to be perſuaded to walk in any other Path, but that which the Devil has chalk'd out for them, The Path that leads to Deſtruction.

BUT theſe Men wou'd do well to conſider, before they are wholly under the Power of Deluſion, that this is not really owing to any Flaws or Defects in ſuch Performances, but to their own Reprobate Minds and Deprav'd Judgments, which tarniſh the Beauty, caſt a Miſt before the Truth, fruſtrate the Influence, and pervert the Deſign of them; like a vitiated Palate, which nauſeates the moſt delicious Taſtes; or a foul and diſorder'd Stomach, that turns the moſt wholſome Food into Poiſon and Corruption. So that they muſt firſt diveſt themſelves of their Luſt and Pride, their Prejudice and Partiality, before they can ever expect to reap any Benefit or Advantage by this, or any other Diſcourſes, that tend to the Promoting of Piety and Religion.

HAVING thus open'd the Way to the Reading of this Book, it may not be improper, in order to ſet it in its its true Light, and do Juſtice to the Author of it, to ſay ſomething more particularly concerning Both; and to advertiſe the Reader, that the following Sheets were writ by the Biſhop in his Younger Years, upon his firſt Entrance into Holy Orders. And tho' they may not, perhaps, be ſo Perfect and Correct, as if He himſelf had liv'd to give the finiſhing Stroke to them, and fit them for the Preſs with his own Hand; yet, as the Roughneſs of a Jewel doth not leſſen the Worth and Value of it, when the Brightneſs of its Natural Luſtre, even under that Diſadvantage, outſhines that of others, which are poliſh'd and refin'd by Art; ſo, 'tis to be hop'd, the Candid and Judicious Reader will, in this well-deſign'd Piece, however unfiniſh'd, diſcover ſuch ſingular Beauties and Graces, as few others, even at the higheſt Pitch of their their Attainments, and with the utmoſt Care and Diligence, are able to come up to.

As to the Author's Deſign in writing theſe Papers, it is ſufficiently ſet forth in the Title of them. He conſider'd, that Truth of Doctrine, and Innocency of Life, were both abſolutely neceſſary to the due Exerciſe of the Sacred Function, which he had the Honour and Happineſs to be admitted into. He knew the Power of Example to prevail even beyond that of Precept, and was very ſolicitous, with the Bleſſed Apoſtle, to make his own Calling and Election ſure, leſt that by any means, when he had preach'd to others, he himſelf ſhou'd be a Caſt-away. To the end, therefore, that he might both ſave Himſelf, and them that heard him, that both by his Life and Doctrine, he might ſet forth the Glory of GOD, and

and ſet forward the Salvation of Men, He drew up theſe Articles, to ſettle his Principles in Point of Faith, and form'd theſe Reſolutions upon them, to regulate his Actions with regard to Practice.

WHAT great Things might not the Church promiſe herſelf from a Foundation ſo well laid? from Principles ſettled with ſo much Learning and Judgment, and Reſolutions form'd upon ſuch ſtrict Rules of Piety and Religion? What glorious Expectations in an Age of that Degeneracy of Faith and Manners, wherein he then liv'd, might not be juſtly rais'd from hence, for the future Reformation of both?

AND, indeed, this Excellent Perſon did even more than ſatisfy all theſe Extraordinary Hopes which the early and ample Specimens he gave gave of his Vertue and Knowledge, had made the World conceive of Him. For having taken this prudent and effectual Care to ground and determine his own Faith and Practice; and being ever mindful of that Injunction laid upon him, when he was Ordain'd Prieſt, " To " conſider the End of his Miniſtry to- " wards the Children of GOD, towards " the Spouſe and Body of CHRIST; " He never ceas'd his Labour, Care " and Diligence, until He had done " all that in Him lay, (as our Holy Church does moſt admirably expreſs the Duty of that Order) " to bring " all ſuch as were committed to his " Charge, unto that Agreement in the " Faith and Knowlenge of GOD, and " to that Ripeneſs and Perfectneſs of " Age in CHRIST, that there ſhould " be no Place left among them for Er- " ror in Religion, or for Viciouſneſs " in Life.

WHILE

WHILE his Care of Souls was chiefly confin'd to the Bounds of a ſingle Pariſh, with what Labour and Zeal did he apply himſelf to the Diſcharge of his Miniſtry, in the ſeveral Parts and Offices of it? How Powerful and Inſtructive was he in his Diſcourſes from the Pulpit? How Warm and Affectionate in his Private Exhortations? How Orthodox in his Doctrine? How Regular and Uniform in the Publick Worſhip of the Church? In a word, ſo Zealous was he, and Heavenly-minded, in all the Spiritual Exerciſes of his Parochial Function, and his Labours were ſo remarkably crown'd with Bleſſing and Succeſs, that as He himſelf was juſtly ſtyl'd, the Great Reviver and Reſtorer of Primitive Piety; ſo his Pariſh was deſervedly propos'd, as the beſt Model and Pattern, for the reſt of its Neighbours to copy after.

NOR

NOR was the Archdeacon, or the Biſhop, leſs Vigilant than the Pariſh-Prieſt: His Care and Diligence increas'd as his Power in the Church was enlarg'd; and as He had before diſcharg'd the Duty of a Faithful Paſtor over his ſingle Fold, ſo when his Authority was extended to larger Diſtricts, he ſtill purſu'd the ſame Pious and Laborious Methods of advancing the Honour and Intereſt of Religion, by watching over both Clergy and Laity, and giving them all neceſſary Direction and Aſſiſtance for the effectual Performance of their reſpective Duties.

ACCORDINGLY, He was no ſooner advanc'd to the Epiſcopal Chair, but in a moſt Pathetick and obliging Letter to the Clergy of his Dioceſe, he recommended to them "the Duty of Catechiſing and

"In-

" Inſtructing the People committed to
" their Charge, in the Principles of the " Chriſtian Religion; to the end they " might know what they were to be- " lieve, and do, in order to Salvation:
And told them, " He thought it ne-
" ceſſary to begin with that, without " which whatever elſe He, or They,
" ſhould do, would turn to little or
" no Account, as to the main End of
" the Miniſtry. And to enable them to do this the more effectually, He ſent them a plain and eaſy Expoſition upon the Church-Catechiſm; of which I need ſay nothing more, and can ſay nothing greater, than that it was drawn up by Himſelf, in a Method, which, in the Opinion of ſo great a Judge, ſeem'd, of all others, the moſt proper to inſtruct the People.

THUS endeavouring to make Himſelf and others every Day wi-

ſer and better, labouring to eſtabliſh Sound Principles, and ſettle Good Manners where-ever he came, as it was the Foundation which this Holy Man laid in theſe Articles and Reſolutions; ſo we ſee it was the great Work of his Life to build upon it; as might eaſily be made appear, from a faithful and particular Relation of the ſeveral Stages and Paſſages of it, during the Courſe of his Miniſtry; the bare Enumeration of which, would ſwell this Preface into a Book. That fair Portrait will, I hope, be drawn by ſome Abler Pen.

IN the mean time, there is yet another Inſtance of his great Concern and unwearied Endeavours for the eſtabliſhing of ſound Doctrine, which I muſt not omit the Mention of; becauſe 'tis a Work of ſo much Affinity with theſe Articles, and what the

the Reader may, with great Advantage, have recourſe to, for farther Satisfaction upon theſe General Heads of Divinity, which he has here given us only in Abridgment; 'Tis his Learned Expoſition upon the Thirty Nine Articles, which is promis'd in a ſhort time to be committed to the Preſs; and which is the more earneſtly deſir'd and expected, as being a Performance, which the Church, at this time, ſo much wants, and which He, beyond others, was, in ſuch an extraordinary manner, qualify'd for.

SUCH Diſcourſes as theſe, the One giving a true Expoſition of the Doctrine of our Church, the Other endeavouring to eſtabliſh it by an Orthodox Faith, and an unſpotted Life, were never more ſeaſonable, than in this Age; when the very Being of the Church is call'd in queſtion, under a Pretence of maintaining her Rights; and the Principles of Chriſtianity are no longer ſecretly undermin'd, but openly attack'd; when Books are publiſh'd againſt all Reveal'd Religion, and Deiſm inſults and triumphs bare-fac'd, without Reſtraint, without Reproach. In a word, When we are arriv'd to that Diſſoluteneſs of Manners, as well as Principles, that Perſons of the higheſt Quality, and Station, are addreſs'd to in Print, as Patrons of Libertiniſm; and that which has, in all Ages, been call'd, and eſteem'd, the greateſt Wiſdom, is ſcoff'd at by falſe Wit; and Chriſtianity, under the Notion of Euthuſiaſm, expos'd to the Contempt of the meaneſt Capacities, and hooted out of the World by the very Dregs of the People.

In ſo general an Inundation of Profaneneſs, and Licentiouſneſs, Providence ſeem'd indeed to have rais'd up up this Great and Good Man to ſtand in the Gap, and ſtem the Tide againſt it: But where the Torrent is ſo impetuous, and the Forces, that ſhou'd unite in ſtriving to divert it, ſo weak and puſillanimous, there is more Danger the very Oppoſers ſhou'd be borne down the Stream, than there are Hopes of making good the Oppoſition. But, however the Doctrine and Diſcipline of our Church may be miſrepreſented, exploded, and deſpis'd, and our Holy Religion become only a Name, which is almoſt every where ſpoken againſt; This Good Biſhop will, nevertheleſs, have the Honour, as he already enjoys the Reward, not only of bearing Teſtimony againſt the growing Ill, but of having done all that he cou'd (and who cou'd do more than He?) to reſtrain and ſubdue it.

It may, perhaps, be thought a bad Omen to our Church, to have loſt ſo able a Champion, when She ſeems to ſtand ſo much in need of Him. But, bleſſed be GOD, we have not altogether loſt Him: He has left us behind Him, in theſe excellent Papers, (to ſay nothing of his Sermons, and other incomparable Writings) ſuch clear Reaſoning, and convincing Arguments for the grounding of our Principles; and ſuch uſeful Rules and Directions for the Government of our Converſation, that we may yet hope for a happy Reformation in Both, if we are not wanting to ourſelves in the Uſe and Application of them.

Would the Clergy, the younger ſort eſpecially, take this Method, upon their firſt Admiſſion into Holy Orders, (and it ought to be no hard Matter Matter to perſuade them to it, ſince 'tis the very End and Deſign of their Miniſtry) it could not fail, by the Bleſſing of GOD, of producing very admirable Effects. Their Principles thus prudently ſettled, would ſtand the Shock, even of a fiery Tryal; and their Reſolutions thus maturely form'd, wou'd undauntedly bear up againſt the moſt powerful Temptations.

THIS, if any thing, would raiſe the Dignity of the Prieſthood to its firſt Inſtitution, ſilence all the loud Clamours, as well as malicious Whiſpers, that, like Echo's, are redoubl'd and reverberated upon them; and gain them ſuch an Intereſt and Reputation among the People, and ſuch an Honour and Authority in the Diſcharge of their Function, that from reverencing the Perſon, and commending the Pattern, they wou'd inſenſibly proceed to the Imitation of it; till, by degrees, the Flock too, as well as the Shepherd, would become wiſe to Salvation, would devoutly ſanctify the Lord GOD in their Hearts; and not only ſo, but be ready always to give an Anſwer to every one that ſhou'd ask them a Reaſon of the Hope that is in them.

AND were both Clergy and Laity thus rightly Principl'd, and firmly Reſolv'd, the Enemies of our Zion would have both leſs Encouragement to attack, and leſs Power to hurt us; Our National Church might then deſpiſe all the wicked Attempts and Deſigns that are daily made and form'd againſt her, and aſſume to Herſelf that comfortable Promiſe and Aſſurance, that our Saviour Himſelf has given, that even the Gates of Hell ſhall never be able to prevail againſt Her.

ALL

ALL that I have farther to ſay, is only to apologize for having ſaid ſo much, upon a Subject that ſo little needs it; and to cloſe the Whole with my hearty Prayers to the Throne of Grace, that this Pious and Excellent Book may meet with that deſir'd Effect and Succeſs, which the Author aim'd at in the Compoſing of it, and may be as uſeful to Others, as it was to Himſelf.

RELIGION.

WHEN in my ſerious Thoughts, and more retir'd Meditations, I am got into the Cloſet of my Heart, and there begin to look within myſelf, and conſider what I am, I preſently find myſelf to be a reaſonable Creature; For, was I not ſo, it would be impoſſible for me thus to reaſon and reflect. But, am I a reaſonable Creature? Why, then, I'm ſure, within this Veil of Fleſh there dwells a Soul, and that of a higher Nature, than either Plants or Brutes are endu'd with; for they have Souls indeed, but yet they know it not; and that, becauſe their Souls or material Forms, (as the Philoſophers term them) are not any thing really and eſſentially diſtinct from the very Matter of their Bodies; which being not capable of a reflexive Act, though They are, they know it not, and though They act, they know it not; it being not poſſible for them to look within themſelves, or to reflect upon their own Exiſtencies and Actions. But 'tis not ſo with me; I not only know I have a Soul, but that I have ſuch a Soul, which can conſider of itſelf, and deliberate of every particular Action that iſſues from it. Nay, I can conſider, that I am now conſidering of my own Actions, and can reflect upon Myſelf Reflecting; inſomuch that had I nothing elſe to do, I could ſpin out one Reflexion upon another, to Infinity.

And, indeed, was there never Another Argument in the World, to convince me of the Spiritual Nature of my Soul, This alone would be ſufficient to wreſt the Belief and Confeſſion of it from me: For, What below a Spirit, can thus reflect upon itſelf? or, What below a Spirit, can put forth itſelf into ſuch Actions, as I find I can exerciſe myſelf in? My Soul can, in a Moment, mount from Earth to Heaven, fly from Pole to Pole, and view all the Courſes and Motions of the Celeſtial Bodies, the Sun, Moon, and Stars; and then, the next Moment, returning to Myſelf again, again, I can conſider, where I have been, what glorious Objects have been preſented to my View, and wonder at the Nimbleneſs and Activity of my Soul, that can run over ſo many Millions of Miles, and finiſh ſo great a Work, in ſo ſmall a Space of Time. And, are ſuch-like Acts as theſe, the Effects of droſſy Earth, or impenetrable Matter? Can any thing below a Spirit, raiſe itſelf ſo much beyond the Reach of material Actions?

But ſtay a little; What is this Soul of mine, that I am now ſpeaking of, that it is ſo nimble in its Actions, and ſo ſpiritual in its Nature? Why, 'tis that, which actuates and informs the ſeveral Organs and Members of my Body, and enables me not only to perform the Natural Actions of Life and Senſe, but likewiſe to underſtand, conſult, argue, and conclude; to will and nill, hope and deſpair, deſire and abhor, joy and grieve, love and hate; to be angry now, and again appeaſed. 'Tis that, by which at this very time, my Head is inditing, my Hand is writing, and my Heart reſolving, What to believe, and How to practiſe. In a word, My Soul is Myſelf; and, therefore, when I ſpeak of my Soul, I ſpeak of no other Perſon but Myſelf.

Not as if I totally excluded this Earthly Subſtance of my Body from being a Part of Myſelf: I know it is. But I think it moſt proper and reaſonable, to denominate myſelf from my Better Part: For, alas! take away my Soul, and my Body falls, on courſe, into its primitive Corruption, and moulders into the Duſt, from whence it was firſt taken. All Fleſh is Graſs, ſays the Prophet, and all the Goodlineſs thereof is as the Flower of the Field. And this is no metaphorical Expreſſion, but a real Truth; for what is that which I feed upon, but meerly Graſs, digeſted into Corn, Fleſh, and the like, which, by a ſecond Digeſtion, is transfus'd and converted into the Subſtance of my Body? And hence it is, that my Body is but like the Graſs, or Flower of the Field, fading, tranſient, and momentary, to Day flouriſhing in all its Glory, to Morrow cut down, dried up and withered. But now, how far is this beneath the Spiritual and Incorruptible Nature of my Immortal Soul? which ſubſiſts of itſelf, and can never be diſſolved; being not compounded of any Earthly or Elementary Matter, (as the Body is) but is a pure Spiritual Subſtance, infus'd into me by GOD, to whom, after a ſhort Abode in the Body, it is to return, and to live and continue for ever, either in a State of Happineſs, or Miſery, in another Life.

BUT muſt it ſo indeed? How much, then, does it concern me, ſeriouſly to bethink myſelf, where I had beſt to lead this everlaſting Life, in the Heavenly Manſions of Eternal Glory, or elſe in the Dreadful Dungeon of Infernal Miſery? But betwixt theſe (as there is no Medium, ſo) there is no Compariſon; and, therefore, I ſhall not put it to the Queſtion, Which Place to chooſe to live in? But, without giving the other that Honour to ſtand in Competition with it, I, this Morning, with the Leave of the moſt High GOD, do chooſe the Land of Canaan, the Kingdom of Heaven, to be the Lot of mine Inheritance, the only Seat of Bliſs and Glory for my Soul to reſt and dwell in, to all Eternity.

BUT Heaven, they ſay, is a Place hard to come at; yea, the King of that glorious Place hath told me, that ſtreight is the Gate, and narrow is the Way, that leads to eternal Life, and that there be but few that find it, Matth. vii. 14. yea, and that many ſhall ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able, Luke iii. 24. What, therefore, muſt I do? Why, I muſt either reſolve to make it my whole buſineſs to get to Heaven, or elſe I muſt never hope or expect to come thither. Without any farther Diſpute, therefore, about it; I reſolve, at this time, in the Presence of Almighty GOD, that, from this Day forward, I will make it my whole business, here upon Earth, to look after my Happiness in Heaven, and to walk circumspectly in those blessed Paths that GOD hath appointed all to walk in, that ever expect to come to Him.

Now, though there be but one Way, and that a narrow one too, that leads to Heaven; yet there are two things requisite to all those that walk in it; and they are, Faith and Obedience, to Believe and to Live aright. So that it as much behoves me, to have my Faith rightly confirm'd in the Fundamentals of Religion, as to have my Obedience exactly conform'd to the Laws of GOD. And these two Duties are so inseparably united, that the former cannot well be suppos'd without the latter; for I cannot obey what GOD hath commanded me, unless I first believe what He hath taught me. And they are both equally difficult, as they are necessary: Indeed, of the two, I think it is harder, to lay the sure Foundation of Faith, than to build the Superstructure of Obedience upon it; for it seems next to impossible, for one that believes every Truth, not to obey every Command, that is written in the Word of God. But 'tis not so easy a thing, as 'tis commonly thought, to believe the

the Word of GOD, and to be firmly eſtabliſh'd in the neceſſary Points of Religion; eſpecially in theſe wicked Times wherein we live; in which there are ſo many pernicious Errors and damnable Hereſies crept into the Articles of ſome Mens Faith, as do not only ſhock the Foundation of the Church of CHRIST, but ſtrike at the Root of all Religion. The firſt thing, therefore, that, by the Grace of GOD, I am reſolv'd to do, in reference to my everlaſting Eſtate, is, to ſee my Faith, that it be both rightly placed, and firmly fix'd, that I may not be as a Wave toſſed to and fro with every Wind of Doctrine, by the cunning Craftineſs of thoſe, that lie in wait to deceive; but that I may be thorowly ſettled in my Faith and Judgment concerning thoſe things, the Knowledge of, and Aſſent unto, which, is abſolutely neceſſary to my future Happineſs. Let, therefore, what Times ſoever come upon me; Let what Temptations ſoever be thrown before me; I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, ſtedfaſtly to believe as followeth.

Article I.

I believe there is One GOD, the Being of all Beings.

THE Other Articles of my Faith I think to be True, becauſe they are ſo; This is True, becauſe I think it ſo: for if there was no GOD, and ſo this Article not True, I could not be, and ſo not think it True. But in that I think, I am ſure I am; and in that I am, I'm ſure there is a GOD; for if there was no GOD, how came I to be? How came I hither? Who gave me my Being? My ſelf? that could not be; for before I had a Being, I was Nothing; and, therefore, could do Nothing, much leſs make myſelf a Being. Did my Parents give me my Being? Alas! they knew not, that I ſhould be, before I was; and, therefore, certainly, could not give me my Being, when I was not.

As to my Soul, (which I call myſelf) it is plain, they cou'd not give me that, becauſe 'tis a Being of a Spirtiual Nature, quite diſtinct from Matter, (as my own Experience tells me) and, therefore, cou'd not be the Product of any Natural or Material

terial Agent: For, that a Bodily Subſtance ſhou'd give Being to a Spiritual one, implies a Contradiction. And if it cou'd neither make itſelf, nor take its Riſe from any Earthly or Secondary Cauſe, I may certainly conclude, from my own Reaſon, as well as from Divine Revelation, that it muſt be infus'd by GOD, tho' I am not able to determine, either when, or how, it was done.

As to my Body; indeed, I muſt own it was deriv'd from my Parents, who were immediately concern'd in bringing the Materials of it together: But, then, who made up theſe coarſe Materials into the Form or Figure of a Body? Was This the Effect of Natural Generation? But how came my Parents by this Generative Power? Did they derive it, by Succeſſion, from our firſt Parents in Paradiſe? Be it ſo. But whence came They? Did they ſpring out of the Earth? No. What then? Were they made by Chance? This could not be; for as Chance ſeldom or never produces any one Effect, that is regular and uniform, ſo it cannot be ſuppos'd, that a Being of ſuch admirable Beauty, Symmetry, and Proportion, and ſuch a nice Contexture of Parts, as the Body of Man is, ſhou'd ever be jumbl'd together by a fortuitous Concourſe of Atoms, which nothing but the Chime-

ras of Epicurus cou'd ever reduce into a regular Form and Compoſition.

And the like may be ſaid of all other created Beings in the World. For there is no Natural Cauſe can give Being to any thing, unleſs it has that Being it gives, in itſelf; for it is a receiv'd Maxim in Philoſophy, that No thing can give what it has not. And ſo, however the Bodies of Men, or Brutes, or Plants, may now, in the ordinary Courſe of Nature, be produc'd by Generation, yet there muſt needs be ſome one Supreme Almighty Being in the World, that has the Being of all other Beings in itſelf; who firſt created theſe ſeveral Species, and endu'd them with this Generative Power to propagate their Kind. And this Supreme Being is that which we call GOD.

Hence it is, that there is not a Leaf, no not a Line, in this great Book of the Creation, wherein we may not clearly read the Exiſtence and Perfections of the Great and Glorious Creator, and that even by the glimmering Light of Nature. For, Who is it, that bedeck'd yonder ſtately Canopy of Heaven, with thoſe gliſtering Spangles, the Stars? Who is it, that commands the Sun to run his Courſe, and the Moon to ride her Circuit ſo conſtantly about the World? Who is it, that form'd me me ſo curiouſly in my Mother's Womb? Who is it, that gives my Stomach, Power to digeſt ſuch Variety of Meats into Chyle, and my Heart or Livor to turn them all to Blood, and thence to ſend each Particle to its proper Place, and all to keep up this crazy Carcaſs? Doubtleſs, theſe, and ſuch-like things, however ordinary or natural they may appear to us at preſent, are in themſelves very great and wonderful Effects, that muſt, at firſt, be produc'd by ſome infinitely powerful and ſupernatural Agent, the High and Mighty GOD, who is not only the Chiefeſt of Beings, but the Being of all Beings whatſoever.

I ſay, the Being of all Beings, becauſe whatſoever Excellency or Perfection is in any Other thing, is eminently, yea, infinitely comprehended in Him; ſo that He is not only the Creatures Perfection in the Concrete, but in the Abſtract too; He is not only All-wiſe, All-good, All-mighty, &c. but He is All-wiſdom, All-goodneſs, All-might, All-mercy, All-juſtice, All-glory, &c. And as He is the Ocean and Abyſs of all theſe Perfections in Himſelf; ſo is He the Fountain of them all to us. Inſomuch that We have nothing, not ſo much as the leaſt Moment of Life, but what is communicated to us from This Ever-Everliving GOD. And not only what We, poor ſinful Worms, are, or have, but even whatſoever thoſe Nobler Creatures the Angels have, 'tis but a Beam darted from This Sun, 'tis but a Stream flowing from This Overflowing Fountain.

LIFT up thine Eyes, therefore, O my Soul, and fix them, a little, upon this glorious Object! How glorious, how tranſcendently glorious, muſt He needs be, who is the Being of all Beings, the Perfection of all Perfections, the very Glory of all Glories, the Eternal GOD? He is the Glory of Love and Goodneſs, who is Good, and doth Good continually unto Me, tho' I be Evil, and do Evil continually againſt Him. He is the Glory of Wiſdom and Knowledge, unto whom all the ſecret Thoughts, the inward Motions and Retirements of my Soul, are exactly known and manifeſt. Never did a Thought lurk ſo ſecretly in my Heart, but that his All-ſeeing Eye could eſpy it out: Even at this time, He knows what I am now thinking of, and what I am doing, as well as Myſelf. And indeed, well may He know what I think, and ſpeak, and do, when I can neither think, nor ſpeak, nor do any thing, unleſs Himſelf be pleas'd to give me Strength to do it. He is the Glory of Might and Power, who did but ſpeak the Word, and and there preſently went out that commanding Power from Him, by which this ſtately Fabrick of the World was form'd and faſhion'd. And as He created all things by the Word of his Power, ſo I believe, He preſerves and governs all things by the Power of the ſame Word: Yea, ſo great is his Power and Sovereignty, that he can as eaſily frown my Soul from my Body into Hell, or Nothing, as I can throw this Book out of my Hand to the Ground: Nay, He need not throw me into Nothing; but, as, if I ſhould let go My Hold, the Book would preſently fall; ſo, ſhould GOD but take away His ſupporting Hand from under me, I ſhould, of Myſelf, immediately fall down to Nothing. This, therefore, is that GOD, whom I believe to be the Being of all Beings; and ſo, the Creator, Preſerver, Governor, and Diſpoſer of all Things in the World.

Article II.

I believe, that whatſoever the moſt High GOD would have me to believe or do, in order to His Glory and My Happineſs, He hath reveal'd to me, in His Holy Scriptures.

UPON the ſame Account that I believe there is a GOD, I believe, likewiſe, that this GOD is to be worſhip'd; the ſame Light that diſcovers the one, diſcovering the other too. And therefore it is, that as there is no Nation or People in the World, but acknowledge ſome Deity; ſo there is none, but worſhip that Deity which they acknowledge; yea, though it be but a Stick or a Stone, yet if they fancy any thing of Divinity in it, they preſently perform Worſhip and Homage to it. Nay, that GOD is to be worſhip'd, is a Truth more generally acknowledg'd, than that there is a GOD. No Nation, I confeſs, ever denied the latter, but no particular Perſon ever denied the former: So that the very Perſons, who, through Diabolical Deluſions, and their Own Prevalent Corruptions, have ſuſpected the Exiſtence

Exiſtence of a Deity, could not but acknowledge, that he was to be worſhip'd, if he did exiſt; Worſhip being that which is contain'd in the very Notion of a Deity; which is, that He is the Being of All Beings, upon whom all Other Things or Beings do depend, and unto whom they are beholden, both for their Eſſence and Subſiſtence. And if there be ſuch a Being, that is the Spring and Fountain of all Other Beings, it is neceſſary, that all other ſhould reverence and worſhip Him, without whom they could not ſubſiſt. And therefore it is, that Men are generally more ſuperſtitious in their Worſhipping, than they ought to be, rather than deny that Worſhip to Him, which they ought to give.

THAT, therefore, there is a GOD, and that this GOD is to be worſhip'd, I do not doubt; but the great Queſtion is, Who is this GOD, whom I ought to worſhip? and, What is that Worſhip, which I ought to perform unto Him? The former I have reſolv'd upon in the Foregoing Article, as the Light of Reaſon and my Natural Conſcience ſuggeſted to me; the latter I am reſolv'd to ſearch out in This, viz. Which of all the ſeveral Kinds of Worſhip, that Men perform to the Deity, and the ſeveral Religions that Men profeſs ſeſs in the World, I had beſt make Choice of to profeſs and adhere to. The general Inclinations which are naturally implanted in my Soul to ſome Religion, it is impoſſible for me to ſhift off; but there being ſuch a Multiplicity of Religions in the World, I deſire now ſeriouſly to conſider with myſelf, which of them all to reſtrain theſe my general Inclinations to.

And the Reaſon of this my Enquiry is not, that I am, in the leaſt, diſſatisfy'd with that Religion I have already embrac'd; but becauſe 'tis natural for all Men to have an overbearing Opinion and Eſteem for that particular Religion they are born and bred up in. That, therefore, I may not ſeem biaſs'd by the Prejudice of Education, I am reſolved to prove and examine them all, that I may ſee and hold faſt to that which is beſt. For, tho' I do not, in the leaſt, queſtion, but that I ſhall, upon Enquiry, find the Chriſtian Religion to be the only true Religion in the World, yet I cannot ſay, it is, unleſs I find it, upon good grounds, to be ſo indeed. For, to profeſs myſelf a Chriſtian, and believe that Chriſtians are only in the right, becauſe my Forefathers were ſo, is no more than the Heathens and Mahometans have to ſay for themſelves.

Indeed,

INDEED, there was never any Religion ſo barbarous and diabolical, but it was preferr'd before all other Religions whatſoever, by them that did profeſs it; otherwiſe they would not have profeſs'd it. The Indians, that worſhip the Devil, would think it as ſtrange Doctrine, to ſay, That CHRIST is to be fear'd more than the Devil; as ſuch as believe in CHRIST, think it is, to ſay, The Devil is to be preferr'd before CHRIST. So do the Mahometans call all that believe not in Mahomet, as well as Chriſtians call thoſe that believe not in CHRIST, Infidels. And why, ſay they, may not you be miſtaken, as well as we? eſpecially, when there is, at the leaſt, Six to One againſt your Chriſtian Religion; all of which think they ſerve GOD aright, and expect Happineſs thereby, as well as you. So that, to be a Chriſtian, only upon the Grounds of Birth or Education, is all one, as if I was a Turk or a Heathen; for if I had been born amongſt them, I ſhould have had the ſame Reaſon for their Religion, as now I have for my own: The Premiſes are the ſame, tho' the Concluſion be never ſo different. 'Tis ſtill upon the ſame Grounds, that I profeſs Religion, tho' it be another Religion which I profeſs upon theſe Grounds; So that I can ſee but very little Difference, betwixt being a Turk by Profeſſion, and a Chriſtian only by Education; which commonly is the Means and Occaſion, but ought, by no means, to be the Ground of any Religion. And hence it is, that in my looking out for the trueſt Religion, being conſcious to myſelf how great an Aſcendant Chriſtianity hath over me, beyond the reſt, as being that Religion whereinto I was born and baptized, that which the ſupreme Authority has enjoin'd, and my Parents educated me in, that which every one I meet withal highly approves of, and which I myſelf have, by a long-continued Profeſſion, made almoſt natural to me; I am reſolv'd to be more jealous and ſuſpicious of this Religion, than of the reſt, and be ſure not to entertain it any longer, without being convinc'd, by ſolid and ſubſtantial Arguments, of the Truth and Certainty of it.

THAT, therefore, I may make diligent and impartial Enquiry into all Religions, and ſo be ſure to find out the beſt, I ſhall, for a time, look upon myſelf as one not at all intereſted in any particular Religion whatſoever, much leſs in the Chriſtian Religion; but only as one who deſires, in general, to ſerve and obey him that made me, in a right Manner, and thereby to be made Partaker of that Happineſs my Nature is capable of. In order to this, it will

will be neceſſary to propoſe to myſelf ſome certain Marks or Characters, whereby I may be able to judge and make choice of the Religion I intend to embrace: And they are, in general, theſe Two, viz.

First, That is the beſt Religion, wrheein GOD is worſhip'd and ſerv'd moſt like himſelf, i. e. moſt ſuitably and conformably to his Nature and Will. And,

Secondly, Since all Men naturally deſire, and aſpire after, Happineſs, and our greateſt Happineſs conſiſts in the Fruition of GOD, that is certainly the beſt Religion, which gives me the beſt and moſt comfortable Aſſurances of being happy with GOD, to all Eternity.

To embrace a Religion without theſe Marks, wou'd be worſe than to have no Religion at all; for better it is, to perform no Worſhip to GOD, than ſuch as is diſpleaſing to him; to do him no Service, than ſuch as will be ineffectual to make me happy, and not only fruſtrate my Expectations of Bliſs, but make me for ever miſerable.

The Religion, then, that I am to look after, muſt be ſuch a one, wherein I may be ſure to pleaſe GOD, and to be made happy with Him; and, by Conſequence, ſuch a one, wherein all the Cauſe of His Diſpleaſure and my Miſery, may be re- mov'd; and that is Sin: For Sin being infinitely oppoſite to Him, as He is a Being of infinite Purity and Holineſs, muſt certainly ſet me at the greateſt Diſtance from Him, and render me moſt odious in His Sight; and whatſoever does ſo, muſt make me as miſerable, as Miſery can make me. For, as our Holineſs conſiſteth in Likeneſs, ſo doth our Happineſs in Nearneſs to GOD: And if it be our Happineſs to be near unto Him, it muſt certainly be our Miſery to be at a Diſtance from Him. In enjoying Him, we enjoy all things, He being and having all things in himſelf; and ſo, in not enjoying Him, we are not only depriv'd of all that we can enjoy, but made liable to the Puniſhments that are the Conſequence of it.

THAT there is no ſuch thing in Nature, as Vertue and Vice, as Good and Evil, as Grace and Sin, is what I can, by no means, perſuade myſelf to; for my Conſcience tells me, that there is: And not only mine, but every one that ever yet liv'd upon the Face of the Earth; All People, of whatſoever Nation or Language, ſtill acknowledging Sin to be Sin, and that the Diſpleaſing the Deity, which they worſhip, is indeed an Evil, that ought to be carefully avoided. And, therefore, the very Heathens did not only upbraid others with with it, but likewiſe often check'd themſelves for it: And all Men naturally deſire to ſeem, though not to be Holy. But let others ſay what they will, I, for my own part, cannot but ſee Sin in myſelf, by the very Light of Nature. For, my Reaſon tells me, that if GOD be GOD, He muſt be juſt and perfect; and if I be not ſo too, I am not like Him, and, therefore, muſt needs diſpleaſe Him; it being impoſſible, any thing ſhould pleaſe Him, but what is like unto Him. And this Diſformity to the Will and Nature of GOD, is that which we call Sin, or which the Word Sin, in its proper Notion, brings into my Mind.

And being thus conſcious to myſelf, that I have ſinn'd againſt my Maker, I may reaſonably conclude, that as He is Omniſcient, and, by conſequence, a Witneſs of theſe my Offences, ſo muſt He likewiſe be juſt in the Puniſhment of them; for it cannot ſtand with His Juſtice, to put up ſuch Offences, without laying ſuitable Puniſhments upon the Offender. And theſe Puniſhments muſt be infinite and eternal; For, wherein doth the Nature of Divine Juſtice conſiſt, but in giving to Sin its juſt Puniſhments, as well as to Vertue its due Rewards? Now, that the Puniſhment of Sin in this World, is not ſo much much as it deſerves, nor, by conſequence, as much as, in Juſtice, ought to be laid upon it, to me is clear, in that every Sin being committed againſt an infinite GOD, deſerves infinite Puniſhment; whereas all the Puniſhments we ſuffer in this World cannot be any more than finite, the World itſelf being no more than finite, that we ſuffer them in.

UPON theſe Grounds, therefore, it is, that I am fully ſatisfy'd in my Conſcience, That I am a Sinner; That it cannot ſtand with the Juſtice, nor the Exiſtence of GOD that made me, to pardon my Sins, without Satisfaction made to His Divine Juſtice for them; and yet, That unleſs they be pardon'd, it is impoſſible for me to be happy here, or hereafter. And therefore muſt I look after ſome Religion, wherein I may be ſure, my Sins may be thus pardon'd, and my Soul made happy, wherein I may pleaſe GOD, and GOD may bleſs Me. Which that I may be the better able to diſcover, I ſhall take a brief Survey of all the Religions I ever heard of, or believe to be in the World.

NOW, tho' there be as many kinds of Religions as Nations; yea, almoſt as particular Perſons in the World; yet may they all be reduc'd to theſe Four; the Paganiſh, Mahometan, Jewiſh, and Chriſtian Religion.

As

As to the first, 'tis indeed of a very large Extent, and comprehends under it all such as neither acknowledge Mahomet to be a Prophet, nor expect a promised Messiah, nor believe in a Crucified JESUS: And, since 'tis the Majority of Numbers that usually carries the Vogue, let me see, whether the Paganish Religion, being farther extended, and more generally profess'd than any, or indeed, all the rest, be not the true Religion, wherein GOD is most rightly worship'd, and I may be the most certainly sav'd. And here, when I take a View of this Religion, as it is dispers'd through several Parts of Asia, Africa, and America, I find them very devout in worshipping their Deities, such as they are, and they have great Numbers of them: Some worship the Sun, others the Moon and Stars, others the Earth and other Elements, Serpents, Trees, and the like. And others again pay Homage and Adoration to Images, and Statues, in the Fashion of Men and Women, Hogs, Horses, and other Shapes; and some to the Devil himself, as in Pegu, &c.

BUT now, to go no farther, this seems to me, at first Sight, to be a very strange and absurd Sort of Religion; or rather, 'tis quite the Reverse of it. For the true Notion we have of Religion, is the Wor- ſhipping the true GOD, in a true manner; and this is the Worſhipping falſe Gods, in a falſe manner. For, I cannot entertain any other Notion of GOD, than as One Supreme Almighty Being, who made and governs all things, and who, as He is a Spirit, ought to be worſhip'd in a ſpiritual Manner. And, therefore, as the very Suppoſing more Deities than one, implies a Contradiction; ſo the Paying Divine Homage, in a groſs, carnal Manner, to material and corporeal Beings, which are either the Work of Mens Hands, or, at beſt, but Creatures like ourſelves, which can neither hear nor underſtand, what we ſay to them, much leſs give us what we deſire of them, is not Religion, but Idolatry and Superſtition, or rather Madneſs and Deluſion. So that this Religion, I ſee, if I ſhould embrace it, wou'd be ſo far from making me happy, that the more zealous I ſhould be for it, the more miſerable I ſhould be by it. For, He that made theſe things, cannot but be very angry at me, if I ſhould give that Worſhip to them, which is only due to Himſelf; and ſo, the way whereby I expect my Sins ſhould be pardon'd, they would be more increas'd; it being a Sin againſt the very Light of Nature, to preferr any thing before GOD, or to worſhip any thing in

His ſtead: Therefore, leaving theſe to their ſuperſtitious Idolatries, and diabolical Deluſions, I muſt go and ſeek for the true Religion ſomewhere elſe.

THE next Religion, that hath the moſt Suffrages and Votes on its ſide, is the Mahometan Religion, ſo call'd from one Mahomet an Arabian, who, about a thouſand Years ago, by the Aſſiſtance of one Sergius, a Neſtorian Monk, compiled a Book in the Arabian Tongue, which he call'd Alcoran, which he made the Rule of his Followers Faith and Manners, pretending that it was ſent from Heaven to him, by the Hand of the Angel Gabriel.

THIS Book I have peruſed, and muſt confeſs, find many things in it agreeable to right Reaſon; as, that there is but one GOD, Gracious, and Merciful, the Lord of the whole Univerſe; that this GOD we are to reſign ourſelves wholly to; that all that obey Him ſhall be certainly rewarded, and all that diſobey Him, as certainly puniſh'd; and the like. But yet, I dare not venture my Soul upon it, nor become one of the Profeſſors of it; becauſe, as there are many things conſonant, ſo are there many things diſſonant to the natural Light that is implanted in me; as, that GOD ſhould ſwear by Figs and Olives, by Mount Sinai, as this Book makes Him to do, in the Chapter of the Figs; that Solomon ſhould have an Army compoſed of Men, and Devils, and Birds; and that he ſhould diſcourſe with a Bird, which acquainted him with the Affairs of the Queen of Sheba, and the like.

As to the Argument, whereby he wou'd perſuade us, that this Book was ſent from GOD, viz. That there are no Contradictions in it, I take it to be very falſe and frivolous; For, beſides that there are many Books compiled by Men, which have no Contradictions in them, it is certain, there are a great many plain Contradictions in this Book, which overthrow his Suppoſition. Thus, in the Chapter of the Table, he ſaith, that All that believe in GOD, and the Reſurrection of the Dead, and have done Good Works, ſhall be ſav'd; but, in the Chapter of Gratification, he ſaith, All that do not believe in the Alcoran ſhall be deſtroy'd; and ſo in the Chapter of Hod. In like manner, he tells us again, in the Chapter of the Table, that the Books of the Old and New Teſtament were ſent from GOD, and, at the ſame time, ſuppoſes, that the Alcoran was ſent from Him too; which, to me, ſeems impoſſible. For my Reaſon tells me, that GOD, who is Truth and Wiſdom itſelf, cannot be guilty guilty of Falſhood or Contradiction. And if theſe Books contradict one another, as, it is evident, they do, in many Inſtances; it is plain, GOD cou'd not be the Author of both; and, by conſequence, if the Scripture be true, the Alcoran muſt, of neceſſity, be falſe. To inſtance but in one Particular, the Alcoran ſays, in the Chapter of Women, GOD hath no Son; the Scripture, in Matth. iii. 17. GOD ſaid, of JESUS, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleaſed: And, Heb. iv. 14. it expreſly calls that JESUS, the Son of GOD; and ſo, in many other things. Now, it is impoſſible, that both theſe ſhould be true, or, by conſequence, that that ſhould be true, which ſays both are ſo.

BUT if this were granted, there is ſtill another Objection againſt this Religion; and that is, that the Rewards therein promis'd, will not avail to make me happy, tho' I ſhou'd be Partaker of them. For, all the Promiſes made to us in this Paradiſe, are but meer ſenſible Pleaſures; as, that we ſhall have all manner of Herbs, and Fruits, and Drinks, and Women with exceeding great and black Eyes, as in the Chapter of the Merciful, and of Judgment, and elſewhere; and ſuch Pleaſures as theſe, tho' they may, indeed, affect my Body, yet they cannot be the Happineſs of my Soul.

Indeed,

Indeed, I know not how this Book ſhould promiſe any higher Happineſs than that of the Body, becauſe it ſhews no means of attaining to it; it ſhews no way, how my Sins may be pardon'd, and ſo, my Soul made happy. It ſaith, I confeſs, that GOD is gracious and merciful, and therefore will pardon them; but my Reaſon tells me, that as GOD is gracious and merciful, and therefore will pardon Sin; ſo is He alſo juſt and righteous, and therefore muſt puniſh it. And how theſe two can ſtand together, is not manifeſted in the Alcoran; and, therefore, I dare not truſt my Soul with it.

THUS, upon diligent Search, have I found the two Religions, that are moſt generally profeſs'd, to have little or nothing of Religion in them. I ſhall, therefore, in the next place, take a View of that Religion, which hath the feweſt Followers, and that is the Jewiſh. A Religion, not eſtabliſh'd by any Humane Laws, nor, indeed, generally profeſs'd in any Nation, but only by a Company of deſpicable People, ſcatter'd up and down the World; which, as the Prophet expreſſes it, are become a Proverb of Reproach, and a By-word among all Nations whither they are driven. The Principles of this Religion are contain'd in a Book, written in the Hebrew Tongue, which they call the תורה Torah, or Law, comcompoſed of ſeveral Precepts, Promiſes, and Threatnings; together with Hiſtories of things paſt, and Prophecies of things to come: This Book, they ſay, was written by Men inſpir'd by GOD himſelf; and, therefore, they avouch it not to be of a Humane Invention, but meerly of Divine Inſtitution.

THIS Book alſo I have diligently read and examin'd into, and muſt ingenuouſly confeſs, that, at the very firſt Glance, methought, I read Divinity in it, and cou'd not but conclude, from the Majeſty of its Style, the Purity of its Precepts, the Harmony of its Parts, the Certainty of its Promiſes, and the Excellency of its Rewards, that it cou'd be deriv'd from no other Author but GOD Himſelf. It is here only, that I find my Maker worſhip'd under the proper Notion of a Deity, as He is יהוה Jehovah; and that in the right Manner, for we are here commanded to love and ſerve Him with all our Hearts, with all our Souls, our Might and Mind, Deut. iv. 5. cap. x. 12. which is, indeed, the Perfection of all true Worſhip whatſoever. And as GOD is here worſhipped aright, ſo is the Happineſs, which is here entail'd upon this true Worſhip, the higheſt that is poſſible a Creature ſhould be made capable of, being nothing leſs than the Enjoyment of Him

we worſhip, ſo as to have Him to be a GOD to us, and ourſelves to be a People to Him, Jer. xxxi. 33.

BUT that which I look upon, ſtill, as the ſureſt Character of the true Religion, is, its holding forth the way, how I, being a Sinner, can be inveſted with this Happineſs; or how GOD can ſhew His Juſtice, in puniſhing Sin in itſelf, and yet be ſo Merciful, as to pardon and remit it to me, and ſo receive me to His Favour; which the Religions I view'd before did not ſo much as pretend to, nor offer at all at. And this is what this Book of the Law does likewiſe diſcover to me, by ſhewing, that GOD Almighty would not viſit our Sins upon ourſelves, but upon another Perſon; that He wou'd appoint and ordain one to be our Sponſor or Mediator; who, by His infinite Merit, ſhou'd bear and atone for our Iniquities, and ſo ſhew His Love and Mercy, in juſtifying and acquitting us from our Sins, at the ſame time that He manifeſts His Juſtice, in inflicting the Puniſhment of them upon this Perſon in our ſtead. A Method ſo deep and myſterious, that if GOD Himſelf had not reveal'd it, I am confident no mortal Man cou'd ever have diſcover'd or thought of it!

NEITHER

NEITHER are there any Doubts and Scruples concerning this great Myſtery, but what this Book does clearly anſwer and reſolve; as will appear more plainly, from a diſtinct Conſideration of the ſeveral Objections that are urg'd againſt it.

As, 1. That it does not ſeem agreeable either to Reaſon or Scripture, that one Man ſhou'd bear the Sins of another; becauſe every Man has enough to do to bear his own Burden; And ſince Sin is committed againſt an infinite GOD, and therefore deſerves infinite Puniſhment, how can any finite Creature bear this infinite Puniſhment? eſpecially, it being due to ſo many Thouſands of People as there are in the World!

BUT this Book ſufficiently unties this Knot for me, by ſhewing me, that it is not a meer Man, but GOD Himſelf, that wou'd bear theſe my Sins; even He, whoſe Name is יהוה צדקנו, The Lord our Righteouſneſs, Jer. xxiii. 6. where the eſſential Name of the moſt High GOD, which cannot poſſibly be given to any, but to Him who is the Being of all Beings, is here given to Him, who ſhou'd thus bear my Sins, and juſtify my Perſon; whence David alſo calleth Him Lord, Pſal. cx. 1. Iſaiah calleth Him, The mighty GOD, Iſa. ix. 6. Yea, and the Lord of Hoſts Himſelf, with His own Mouth, calls Him His Fellow, Zec. xiii. 7.

OBJ.

OBJ. 2. But my Reaſon tells me, GOD is a pure Act, and, therefore, How can He ſuffer any Puniſhments? or, ſuppoſe He could, How can one Nature ſatisfy for the Offences of another? It was Man that ſtood guilty; and, How can it ſtand with the Juſtice of GOD, not to puniſh Man for the Sins he is guilty of?

TO reſolve this Doubt, this Holy Book aſſures me, That this GOD ſhou'd become Man, expreſly telling me, that as His Name is Wonderful, Counſellor, the Mighty GOD, the Everlaſting Father, the Prince of Peace, ſo ſhou'd He be born a Child, and given as a Son, Iſa. ix. 6. And, therefore, at the ſame time that the Lord of Hoſts calls Him His Fellow, He calls Him a Man too, Againſt the Man that is My Fellow, ſays the Lord of Hoſts, Zech. xiii. 7.

OBJ. 3. But if He be Born, as other Men are, He muſt needs be a Sinner as other Men be; for ſuch as are born by natural Generation, muſt neceſſarily be born alſo in natural Corruption.

TO remove this Obſtacle, this Holy Book tells me, that A Virgin ſhall conceive and bear this Son, and His Name ſhall be Emanuel, Iſa. vii. 14. And ſo being begotten, but not by a ſinful Man, Himſelf ſhall be a Man, but not a ſinful Man: and ſo being GOD and Man, He is every every way fit to mediate betwixt GOD and Man, to reconcile GOD to Me, and Me to GOD, that My Sins may be pardon'd, GOD's Wrath appeas'd, and ſo my Soul made happy in the Enjoyment of Him.

But there is one thing more yet, that keeps me from ſettling upon this Religion; and that is, the Expiration of the Time in which this Book promiſeth this Perſon ſhould come into the World; for it is expreſly ſaid, Dan. ix. 24. that Seventy Weeks are determin'd upon thy People, and upon thy City, to finiſh the Tranſgreſſions, and to make an End of Sins, and to make Reconciliation for Iniquity, and to bring in everlaſting Righteouſneſs, and to ſeal up the Viſion and the Prophecy, and to anoint the moſt Holy. From which Anointing, He is, in the next Verſe, call'd מָשִׁיחַ Meſſiah, the Anointed, (under which Name He is, from hence, expected by the Jews) and the Beginning of theſe Seventy Weeks is expreſly ſaid, ver. 25. to be at the going forth of the Commandment to build and reſtore Jeruſalem. Now, if we underſtand theſe Seventy Weeks in the largeſt Senſe, for Seventy Weeks, or Sabbaths of Years, as it is expreſs'd, Lev. xxv. 8. the Time of the Meſſiah's Coming muſt have been but 490 Years after the Commandment for the Building of the City; whereas, whether we understand it of the Decree and Command that Cyrus made, 2 Chron. xxxvi. 22, 23. Ezr. i. 1, 2, 3. or that which Darius made, Ezr. vi. or that Artaxerxes made, cap. vii. I say, whichsoever of these Decrees we understand this Prophecy of, it is evident, that it is above 2000 Years since they were all made; and, therefore, the Time of this Person's Coming hath been expir'd above 1600 Years at least.

So likewise doth this Book of the Law, (as they call it) assure us, that the Scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a Lawgiver from between his Feet, until Shiloh come, Gen. xlix. 10. where the Jews themselves, Jonathan and Onkelos, expound the Word שִׁילֹה Shiloh, by מְשִׁיחָא Messiah; and so doth the Jerusalem Targum too. Now, it is plain, that there hath been neither Scepter nor Law-giver in Judah, nor any political Government at all among the Jews, for above 1600 Years; which plainly shews, either that their Prophecies and Expectations of a Messiah are false, or that He came into the World so many Ages since, as were here prefix'd.

So likewise it was expresly foretold in this Book, that the Glory of the Second Temple should be greater than the Glory of the Former, Hag. ii. 9. Now the Jews themſelves acknowledge, that there were Five of the principal things which were in the Firſt, wanting in the Second Temple, viz. 1. The Ark, with the Mercy-Seat and Cherubim. 2. The שכינה Schechinah, or Divine Preſence. 3. The Holy Prophetical Spirit. 4. The Urim and Thummim. 5. The Heavenly Fire: And from the Want of theſe Five things, they ſay, the Word אִכָּבֵד I will be glorified, Hag. i. 8. wants an ה at the end, which, in Numeration, denotes Five. Yea, and when the very Foundation of the Second Temple was laid, the Old Men that had ſeen the Firſt, wept to ſee how far ſhort it was likely to come of the former, Ezr. iii. 12. To make up, therefore, the Glory of the Second Temple, to be greater than the Glory of the Firſt, notwithſtanding the Want of ſo many glorious things, they muſt, of Neceſſity, underſtand it of the Coming of the Meſſiah into it, who, ver. 8. is call'd, The Deſire of all Nations. Whereas the Jews themſelves cannot but confeſs, that This Temple hath been demoliſh'd above 1600 Years; and, therefore, it is impoſſible for the Meſſiah to come into it, and ſo for its Glory to be greater than the Glory of the Firſt Temple; and, by Conſequence, for the Word which they profeſs to believe in to be true.

INDEED, the Time of the Meſſiah's Coming was ſo expreſly ſet down in theſe and the like Places, that Elias, one of their great Rabbis, gather'd from hence, that the World ſhould laſt 6000 Years, 2000 without the Law, 2000 under the Law, and 2000 under the Meſſiah, Sanh. c. 11. which Computation of the Meſſiah's Coming, after 4000 Years, from the Beginning of the World, comes near the Time of the Scepter's Departing from Judah, and the End of Daniel's Seventy Weeks. Which ſhews, that this Rabbi was fully convinc'd, that it was about that Time, that the Meſſiah ſhould come. And therefore it was, likewiſe, that about 1600 Years ago, the Jews did ſo generally expect His Coming; and that ſo many did pretend to be the Perſon, as Bar-Cozbah, who, about that time, venting himſelf to be the Man, almoſt the whole Nation unanimouſly concurr'd in following him; inſomuch that, as the Jews report, there were no leſs than 400000, or, as others, 500000 Men ſlain by Adrian the Emperor, in the City Bitter, all fighting in Defence of this pretended Meſſiah. There were likewiſe many others, that fancy'd themſelves to be the Man, and were eſteem'd ſo by ſome, till manifeſtly convinc'd of their Error, as we may read in a Book of theirs call'd שבס יהורה. And, unto this Day, many of them hold, that He is already come, but that, by reaſon of their Sins, He is not yet reveal'd to them.

HENCE it is, that my natural Reaſon draws me into this Dilemma, that either that Book, which the Jews receive as the Word of GOD, is indeed not ſo; or elſe, that they do not rightly apply it: And ſo, that either their Religion is a falſe Religion, or elſe their Profeſſion of it is a falſe Profeſſion: And, therefore, I muſt go hence, and ſeek me ſome other Religion to fix my Soul upon. Not as if my Reaſon told me, that all the Prophecies that I have mention'd here, were falſe in themſelves, but only that they appear ſo to this ſort of Profeſſors; for, for my own part, I cannot ſhake off my Faith in this Law, which they profeſs to believe in; eſpecially, now I have ſo ſeriouſly peruſed it, and ſo deliberately weigh'd and conſider'd of it. Neither can I believe, that ever any Mahometan or Indian, that did, without Prejudice, ſet himſelf to read it through, and to examine every Particular, by the Light of unbiaſs'd Reaſon, could ſay, it was ever hatch'd in a Humane Brain; but that it is, indeed, of a Heavenly Stamp, and Divine Authority.

And, therefore, though I am forc'd by the Strength of Reaſon, to ſhake Hands with this Religion, yet the ſame Reaſon will not ſuffer me to lay aſide that Law, which they do profeſs, but only their Profeſſion of it. So that, whatſoever Religion I ſettle upon, my natural Conſcience ſtill commands me to ſtick cloſe to this Book of the Jewiſh Law, and to receive and entertain it, as the Word of the glorious Jehovah, the Being of all Beings.

WELL, there is but one Religion more, generally profeſs'd in the World, that I am to ſearch into; which, if, upon good Grounds, I cannot fix upon, I ſhall be the moſt miſerable of all Creatures; and that is, the Chriſtian Religion, ſo nam'd from JESUS CHRIST, whoſe Doctrine, Life, and Death, is recorded by four ſeveral Perſons, in a Book which they call the Goſpel: And this Book appears to me to be of undoubted Authority, as to the Truth and Certainty of thoſe things that are therein recorded. For, if they had been falſe, both the Perſons that wrote them, and He of whom they wrote, had ſo many malicious Enemies ready, upon all occaſions, to accuſe them, that they had long ago been condemn'd for Lyes and Forgeries. But now, theſe Writings having been extant for above 1600 Years, and never never so much as ſuſpected, but even, by the worſt of Enemies, acknowledg'd to be a true Relation of what paſs'd in the World about that time; my Reaſon will not permit me to be their firſt Accuſer, but enjoins me to receive them, under that Notion, in which they have been brought down to me through ſo many Generations, without any Interruption whatſoever. For this general Reception on all hands, is a ſufficient Ground for me to build my Faith upon, as to the Truth of the Relation, tho' not a ſufficient Ground to believe every thing contain'd in the Book, to be the Word of GOD Himſelf: For, in this Particular, it is not the Teſtimony of others that I am to build upon, but its own: I may read its Verity in Man's Teſtimony, but its Divinity only in its own Doctrines.

THIS Book, therefore, I have alſo diligently perus'd, and find, it expreſly aſſerts, that JESUS CHRIST, whoſe Life and Death it records, was indeed that Perſon, who was long ago promis'd by GOD, and expected by the Jews. And, that all the Prophecies under the Old Law, concerning that Meſſiah, God-Man, were actually fulfill'd in this Perſon; which, if, upon diligent Search, I can find to be true, I ſhall preſently ſubſcribe, both with Hand and Heart, to this Religion. It is a Comfort to me, that it acknowledgeth the Jewiſh Law to be ſent from GOD; for, truly, if it did not, my Conſcience wou'd ſcarce permit me to give any Credit to it; being ſo fully convinc'd, that that Book is indeed of a higher Extract, than humane Invention, and of greater Authority, than humane Inſtitution. And therefore it is, that I cannot, I dare not believe, but that every particular Prophecy contain'd in it, either is, or ſhall be, certainly fulfill'd, according to every Circumſtance of Time and Place mention'd therein; and, by conſequence, that this Prophecy, in particular, concerning the Meſſiah's Coming, is already paſt, the Time, wherein it was foretold he ſhould come, being ſo long ago expir'd. So that I do not now doubt, whether the Meſſiah be come or no, but whether this JESUS CHRIST, whom this Book of the Goſpel ſpeaks of, was indeed the Perſon. And this I ſhall beſt find out, by comparing the Chriſtians Goſpel with the Jewiſh Law; or the Hiſtories of CHRIST under the One, with the Prophecies of the Meſſiah under the Other; ſtill concluding, that if whatſoever was foretold concerning the Meſſiah, was fulfill'd in this JESUS CHRIST, then He was, indeed the Meſſiah that was to come into the World. And, to make this Compariſon the more exact, I ſhall run through the ſeveral Circumſtances that attended His Birth, Life, Death, Reſurrection, and Aſcenſion, and ſhew how punctually the Prophecies were fulfill'd in every Particular.

And firſt, for the Birth of the Meſſiah, the Law ſaith, He was to be born of the Seed of Abraham, Gen. xxii. 18. and David, 2 Sam. vii. 12. and of the Stem of Jeſſe, Iſa. xi. 1. From whence He is frequently called, by the Jews, ברוד The Son of David. The Goſpel ſaith, Jesus Christ was the Son of David, the Son of Abraham, Matt. i. 2. The Law, that He was to be born of a Virgin, Iſa. vii. 14. The Goſpel, that Mary, a Virgin, brought forth this Jesus, Matt. i. 18. Luke i. 17, 31, 35. cap. ii. 5, 6, 7. The Law, that He was to be born at Bethlehem Ephrata, Mic. v. 2. The Goſpel, that this Jesus was born there, Mat. ii. 1. Luke iv. 5, 6.

The Law ſays, that He was to be brought out of Egypt, Hoſ. xi. 1. The Goſpel, that Jesus was called thence, Matt. ii. 19, 20. The Law ſaith, that one ſhould go before the Meſſiah, Mal. iii. 5. and ſhould cry in the Wilderneſs, Iſa. xl. 3. The Goſpel, that John Baptiſt did ſo before Christ, Matt. iii. 1, 3. Mark i. 2, 3. The Law, that the Meſſiah ſhould preach the Doctrine of Salvation in Galilee, who, ſitting before in Darkneſs, ſhould ſee great Light, Iſa. ix. 1, 2. The Goſpel, that JESUS did ſo, Matt. iv. 12, 23. The Law, that in the Meſſiah's Days, the Eyes of the Blind ſhould be opened, and the Ears of the Deaf ſhould be unſtopped, and the Lame leap, and the Tongue of the Dumb ſing, Iſa. xxxv. 5, 6. The Goſpel, that it was ſo in the Days of JESUS CHRIST, Matt. iv. 23. cap. xi. 5. But for all theſe Wonders and Miracles, the Law ſaith, they ſhould hear, but not underſtand; and ſee, yet not perceive, Iſa. vi. 9. And the Goſpel, that ſeeing they did not ſee, and hearing they did not hear, neither did they underſtand, Matt. xiii. 13. Mark iv. 12. The Law, that He ſhould be deſpiſed and rejected of Men, a Man of Sorrows, and acquainted with Grief, Iſa liii. 3. The Goſpel, that JESUS CHRIST had no where to lay his Head, Matt. viii. 20. His Soul was exceeding ſorrowful even unto Death, Matt. xxvi. 38. yea, He was in an Agony, and His Sweat was as Drops of Blood, Luke xxii. 24. ſo well was He acquainted with Grief. The Law ſays, that He ſhould ride into Jeruſalem upon an Aſs, and upon a Colt, the Fole of an Aſs, Zech. ix. 9. And the Goſpel, that JESUS CHRIST, as he was going to Jeruſalem, having found an Aſs, ſate thereon, John xii. 14. Matt. xxi. 6.

At which time, the Law ſaith, the People ſhould cry, Hoſannah, bleſſed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord, Pſal. cxviii. 26. The Goſpel, that the Multitude did ſo to CHRIST, Matt. xxi. 9. The Law, that one of His own familiar Friends, in whom He truſted, which did eat of His Bread, ſhould lift up his Heel againſt Him, Pſal. xli. 9. The Goſpel, that Judas, who was one of CHRIST's Diſciples, and ſo eat of His Bread, did betray Him into the Hands of the Jews, Matt. xxvi. 47. Luke xxii. 46. The Law, that He ſhould be prized at, and ſold for, thirty Pieces of Silver, with which ſhould be bought the Potters Field, Zech. xi. 12, 13. The Goſpel, that they covenanted with Judas, to betray JESUS for Thirty Pieces of Silver, Matt. xxvi. 15. with which they afterwards bought the Potters Field, cap. xxvii. 7. The Law, that He ſhould be numbred amongſt Tranſgreſſors, Iſa. liii. 12. The Goſpel, that JESUS was crucified betwixt two Thieves, Mark xv. 27. Matt. xxvii. 38. The Law, that He ſhould be wounded and bruiſed, Iſa. liii. 5. The Goſpel, that they ſcourged JESUS, Matt. xxvii. 20. and ſmote Him, Mark xv. 19. The Law ſaith, they ſhould pierce His Hands and Feet, Pſal. xxii. 16. Zech. xii. 10. The Goſpel, that they crucified JESUS, Matt. xxvii. 35. Luke xxiii. which was a Death, wherein they uſed to pierce the Hands and Feet of thoſe that were put to Death, and nail'd them to the Croſs. But though they ſhould pierce His Fleſh, yet the Law ſaith, they ſhould not break His Bones, no not one of them, Exod. xii. 46. Num. ix. 12. Pſal. xxxiv. 20. The Goſpel, that they brake not the Legs of CHRIST, John xix. 33, 36. The Law, that they that ſhould ſee Him, ſhould laugh Him to ſcorn, ſhoot out their Lips, and ſhake their Heads, ſaying, He truſted in the Lord that He would deliver Him, let Him deliver Him, ſeeing He delighted in Him, Pſal. xxii. 8. The Goſpel, that the Scribes and Elders did ſo to CHRIST, Mat. xxvii. 42, 43. The Law ſaith, they ſhould give Him Gall for Meat, and Vinegar to drink, Pſal. lxix. 21. And the Goſpel, that they gave CHRIST Vinegar to drink, mingled with Gall, Matt. xxvii. 34, 48. The Law, that they ſhould part His Garments amongſt them, and caſt Lots upon His Veſture, Pſal. xxii. 19. The Goſpel, that they parted JESUS's Garments, caſting Lots, Matt. xxvii. 35. John xix. 23. Mark xv. 24.

AND as for the Time of this JESUS's coming into the World, it is certain, that this JESUS came before the ſecond Temple was demoliſh'd; for it is ſaid, that He went into it, Matt. xix. 45. yea, Himſelf taught daily

ly in it, ver. 47. by which means the Glory of the Second Temple was greater than the Glory of the First, according to the Prophecy, Hag. ii. 9. And, as for Jacob's Prophecy, that the Scepter should not depart from Judah, nor the Law-giver, till Shiloh, or the Messiah, come, Gen. xlix. 10. it is certain, that it did not depart from Judah, till Herod, by the Senate of Rome, was made King of Judea, in whose Days this JESUS was born, Matt. ii. 1. Luke i. 5. And so did Daniel's 70 Weeks, or 490 Years exactly reach unto, and were determined in, the Days of this JESUS, as might easily be demonstrated. So that all the Old Prophecies, concerning the Time of the Messiah's Coming, are perfectly fulfilled in this JESUS of Nazareth.

BUT farther, the Law saith, that tho' the Messiah should be crucified, yet GOD would not leave His Soul in Hell, nor suffer His Holy One to see Corruption, Psal. xvi. 10. and that, when GOD should make His Soul an Offering for Sin, He should see His Seed, and prolong His Days, Isa. liii. 10. which plainly implies, that tho' the Messiah should die, yet He should rise again, and that within few Days too, otherwise He would have seen Corruption. Now the Gospel saith, that this JESUS rose from the Dead, Matt. xxviii. 6. Luke xxiv. 6. and that He was seen of of ſeveral after His Reſurrection, as of Mary Magdalen, Matt. xxviii. 9. of the eleven Diſciples, ver. 16, 17, 18. Mark xvi. 14. of the two that were going to Emaus, Luke xxiv. 13, 14, 15. of Peter, ver. 34. and of the Diſciples that were gather'd together, the Door being ſhut, John xx. 19. And, to be ſure it was Himſelf, and not an Apparition, Thomas, one of the Twelve, thruſt his Hands into His Side, and found it Fleſh and Blood indeed, as before, John xx. 27. And He eat before them, Luke xxiv. 43. which it is impoſſible for a Spirit to do; yea, He was ſeen of above five hundred at one time, 1 Cor. xv. 6. and of Paul himſelf, ver. 8. Neither did He lie ſo long as to ſee Corruption, for He was buried but the Day before the Sabbath, Mark xv. 42. and roſe the Day after, cap. xvi. 1.

Lastly, He was not only to riſe again, but the Law ſaith, He was to aſcend on high, to lead Captivity captive, and to give Gifts to Men, Pſal. lxviii. 18. Now this cannot but be an undoubted Character of the Meſſiah, not only to riſe from the Dead, but to aſcend up to Heaven, and thence to diſperſe His Gifts amongſt the Children of Men; and that Jesus did ſo, is likewiſe evident from the Goſpel; for, after He had ſpoken with them, He was received up into Heaven, and there ſate, at the Right Hand of GOD, Mar. xvi. 19. Luke xxiv. 51. And He gave Such Gifts to Men, as that His Disciples, of a ſudden, were enabled to ſpeak all manner of Languages, Acts ii. 8. to work many Signs and Wonders, cap. v. 12. to heal all manner of Diſeaſes, ver. 15, 16. yea, with a Word ſpeaking, to cure a Man lame from his Mother's Womb, cap. iii. 6, 7.

THUS the Goſpel ſeems, to me, to be a perfect Tranſcript of the Law, and the Hiſtories of JESUS nothing elſe but the Prophecies of CHRIST turn'd into an Hiſtory. And, when to this I join the Conſideration of the Piety of the Life which This Man led, the Purity of the Doctrine which He taught, and the Miraculouſneſs of the Works He wrought, I cannot but be farther confirm'd in the Truth of what is here related. For, the Miracles which He wrought, as the Healing of the Sick with a Word of his Mouth, Raiſing the Dead, Feeding ſo many Thouſands, with Five Loaves, and the like, were ſo powerful and convincing, that His very Enemies, that would not believe Him to be the Meſſiah, could ſcarce deny Him to be a GOD, Joſeph. Antiq. l. xviii. c. 4. And it is, to this Day, a Tenet amongſt ſome of them, that the Miracles, which JESUS did, were not the Deluſions and Jugglements of the Devil, but real Miracles, wrought, as they ſay, by

by the Vertue of the Name of GOD יהוה Jehovah, which He had gotten out of the Temple. By which, 'tis plain, they acknowledg'd GOD to be the Author of them, which I cannot see how He shou'd be, unless they were agreeable to His Will, and for the Glory of His Name.

NEITHER was the Doctrine of the Gospel only establish'd at the first, but likewise propagated by Miracles afterwards, as it was necessary it shou'd be. For, if it had been propagated without Miracles, that itself had been the greatest Miracle of all. It was, no doubt, a great Miracle, that a Doctrine so much contrary to Flesh and Blood, should be propagated by any means whatsoever; but a far greater, that it shou'd be propagated by a Company of simple and illiterate Men, who had neither Power to force, nor Eloquence to persuade Men to the Embracing of it. For, Who wou'd have thought, that such Persons as these were, should ever make any of the Jews, who expected a King for their Messiah, to advance them to Temporal Dignities, believe, that that JESUS, whom themselves scourg'd and crucified at Jerusalem, was the Person? Or, that they should be able to propagate the Gospel amongst the Gentiles also, who neither believ'd in the true GOD, nor expected pected any thing of a Meſſiah to come and redeem them. But this they did, and brought over, not only many Perſons, but whole Nations and Countries to the Profeſſion of the Goſpel; propagating this moſt Holy Doctrine amongſt the moſt barbarous and ſinful People in the World, maugre all the Oppoſition that the World, the Fleſh, and the Devil, could make againſt it. Now, can any Man, that exerciſeth his Reaſon, think they did all this, purely by their own Strength? No ſure, none of theſe wonderful Effects cou'd ever have been produc'd by any thing leſs than the Wiſdom, and Power, and Faithfulneſs of their Lord and Maſter, whoſe Service they were engag'd in, and who promis'd to be with them to the End of the World, Matt. xxviii. 20. Queſtionleſs, it was nothing elſe but the Spirit of the moſt High GOD, that went along with them, and accompany'd the Word they preach'd; otherwiſe, it never could have made ſuch deep Impreſſion upon the Hearts of them that heard it, as not only to command their Attention, but to hinder them from reſiſting, when they ſtrove and endeavour'd to do it, the Power and Authority by which the Diſciples ſpake.

And now, methinks, I begin to perceive this Divine Spirit is come upon me too, and ſeems, by its powerful Influence, to be working up my Heart into a thorow Perſuaſion, that it is CHRIST, and CHRIST alone, I am to caſt my Soul upon; that it is He alone, that is the Way to Life, and His Word alone, the Word of Life, which whoſoever believes, and is baptiz'd into, ſhall be ſav'd, and he that believeth not, ſhall be damn'd. Away, then, with your Paganiſh Idolatries, your Mahometan Superſtitions, and Jewiſh Ceremonies; it is the Chriſtian Religion alone, that I am reſolv'd to live and die in, becauſe 'tis this alone, in which I am taught to worſhip GOD aright, to obtain the Pardon and Remiſſion of my Sins, and to be made eternally happy. And, ſince all its Doctrines and Precepts are contain'd in the Holy Scriptures, it is neceſſary, that I ſhould aſſent unto them, as a ſtanding Revelation of GOD's Will, and an eternal Treaſure of Divine Knowledge; whereby all that ſincerely believe in CHRIST, may be ſufficiently inſtructed, as well as thorowly furniſh'd unto every good Word and Work.

WITHOUT any more ado, therefore, I believe, and am verily perſuaded, that all the Books of the ancient Law, with all thoſe that have been receiv'd into the Canon of the Scripture by the Church of GOD, ſince the Coming of CHRIST, which which we call the New Teſtament; I ſay, that all theſe Books, from the Beginning of Geneſis, to the End of the Revelations, are indeed the Word of the Eternal GOD, dictated by His Own Spirit, unto ſuch as Himſelf was pleaſed to employ in the Writing of them; and that they contain in them a perfect and complete Rule of Faith and Manners; upon the due Obſervance of which, I cannot fail of worſhipping and ſerving GOD, in ſuch a Manner, as will be acceptable to Him here, and of enjoying hereafter thoſe exceeding great and precious Promiſes, that He has reſerv'd in Heaven, for ſuch as do ſo.

UNTO theſe Books, therefore, of the Law and Goſpel, I am reſolv'd, by His Grace that wrote them, to conform all the enſuing Articles of my Faith, and all the Actions and Reſolutions of my Life. Inſomuch that whatſoever I find it hath pleas'd His Sacred Majeſty herein to aſſert, I believe, it is My Duty to believe; and whatſoever He hath been pleas'd to command me, I believe it is My Duty to perform.

Article III.

I believe, that as there is One GOD, ſo this One GOD is Three Perſons, Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt.

THIS, I confeſs, is a Myſtery which I cannot poſſibly conceive, yet 'tis a Truth which I can eaſily believe; yea, therefore it is ſo true, that I can eaſily believe it, becauſe it is ſo high, that I cannot poſſibly conceive it; for it is impoſſible, any thing ſhould be true of the Infinite Creator, which can be fully expreſs'd to the Capacities of a Finite Creature: And, for this Reaſon, I ever did, and ever ſhall, look upon thoſe Apprehenſions of GOD to be the trueſt, whereby we apprehend Him to be the moſt incomprehenſible; and that to be the moſt true of GOD, which ſeems moſt impoſſible unto Us.

UPON this Ground, therefore, it is, that the Myſteries of the Goſpel, which I am leſs able to conceive, I think myſelf the more obliged to believe; eſpecially, this Myſtery of Myſteries, the Trinity in Unity, and Unity in Trinity, which I am ſo far from being able to comprehend, or indeed

Awake, My Soul, from Slumber, force thy Way
Thro' this dark Maze of NOTHING, to the Day
Where thy Redeemers Rays do bright appear Eclipsing all the Glories of our Sphere.
Wallow no more in Sense, quit Worldly Joys, Worthless Amusements, for Eternal Joys.
What fair Exchange! Give NOTHING! Jesus gain!
To venture NOTHING and yet ALL obtain!
Mount therefore, Soul, with FAITH & LOVE, aspire
Till thou possess, & NOTHING more desire.

deed to apprehend, that I cannot ſet myſelf ſeriouſly to think of it, or to ſcrew up my Thoughts a little concerning it, but I immediately loſe myſelf, as in a Trance, or Extaſy: That GOD the Father ſhould be one perfect GOD of Himſelf, GOD the Son one perfect GOD of Himſelf, and GOD the Holy Ghoſt one perfect GOD of Himſelf; and yet theſe Three ſhould be but One perfect GOD of Himſelf; ſo that One ſhould be perfectly Three, and Three perfectly One, that the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt ſhould be Three, and yet but One; but One, and yet Three! O Heart-amazing, Thought-devouring, unconceivable Myſtery! Who cannot believe it to be true of the Glorious Deity? Certainly, none but ſuch as are able to apprehend it, which, I am ſure, I cannot, and believe, no other Creature can. And, becauſe no Creature can poſſibly conceive how it ſhould be ſo, I therefore believe it really to be ſo, viz. That the Being of all Beings is but One in Eſſence, yet Three in Subſiſtence; but One Nature, yet Three Perſons; and that thoſe Three Perſons in that One Nature, tho' abſolutely diſtinct from one another, are yet but the ſame GOD. And I believe, theſe Three Perſons in this One Nature, are indeed to one another, as they are expreſs'd to be to us; that the One is really a Father to the Other, that the Other is really a Son to Him, and the Third the Product of Both; and yet, that there is neither Firſt, Second, nor Third, amongſt them, either in Time, or Nature. So that He that begat was not at all before Him that was begotten, nor He that proceeded from them Both, any whit after either of them. And, therefore, that GOD is not term'd Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt, as if the Divine Nature of the One ſhould beget the Divine Nature of the Second; or the Divine Nature of the Firſt and Second ſhould iſſue forth the Divine Nature of the Third; (for then there would be three Divine Natures, and ſo three Gods eſſentially diſtinct from one another; by this means alſo, only the Father would be truly GOD, becauſe He only would be eſſentially of and from Himſelf, and the other Two from Him:) But what I think myſelf oblig'd to believe, is, that it was not the Divine Nature, but the Divine Perſon of the Father, which did, from Eternity, beget the Divine Perſon of the Son; and from the Divine Perſons of the Father and of the Son, did, from Eternity, proceed the Divine Perſon of the Holy Ghoſt, and ſo One not being before the Other, in Time or Nature, ture, as they are from Eternity Three perfectly-distinct Persons, so they are but One coessential GOD. But dive not, O my Soul, too deep into this bottomless Ocean, this Abyss of Mysteries! 'Tis the Holy of Holies, presume not to enter into it; but let this suffice thee, that He, who best knows Himself, hath avouch'd it of Himself, and therefore thou ought'st to believe it. See Matt. xxviii. 19. Go ye, therefore, and teach all Nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. And again, 1 John v. 7. There are Three that bear Record in Heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost, and these Three are One.

Article IV.

I believe, that I was conceiv'd in Sin, and brought forth in Iniquity; and that, ever since, I have been continually conceiving Mischief, and bringing forth Vanity.

THis Article of my Faith I must of necessity believe, whether I will or no; for if I could not believe it to be true, I should therefore have the more Cause to believe it to be ſo; becauſe, unleſs my Heart was naturally very ſinful and corrupt, it would be impoſſible for me not to believe that which I have ſo much Cauſe continually to bewail; or, if I do not bewail it, I have ſtill the more Cauſe to believe it; and, therefore, am ſo much the more perſuaded of it, by how much the leſs I find myſelf affected with it. For, certainly, I muſt be a hard-hearted Wretch indeed, ſteep'd in Sin, and fraught with Corruption to the higheſt, if I know myſelf ſo oft to have incenſed the Wrath of the moſt High GOD againſt me, as I do, and yet not be ſenſible of my natural Corruption, nor acknowledge myſelf to be, by Nature, a Child of Wrath, as well as others. For, I verily believe, that the Want of ſuch a due Senſe of myſelf, argues as much Original Corruption, as Murder and Whoredom do Actual Pollution. And, I ſhall ever ſuſpect thoſe to be the moſt under the Power of that Corruption, that labour moſt, by Arguments, to diveſt it of its Power.

AND, therefore, for my own part, I am reſolved, by the Grace of GOD, never to go about to confute That by wilful Arguments, which I find ſo true by woful Experience. If there be not a bitter Root in my Heart, whence proceeds ſo much bitter bitter Fruit in my Life and Converſation? Alas! I can neither ſet my Head nor Heart about any thing, but I ſtill ſhew myſelf to be the ſinful Offſpring of ſinful Parents, by being the ſinful Parent of a ſinful Offſpring: Nay, I do not only betray the inbred Venom of my Heart, by poiſoning my common Actions, but even my moſt religious Performances alſo, with Sin. I cannot pray, but I ſin; I cannot hear, or preach, a Sermon, but I ſin; I cannot give an Alms, or receive the Sacrament, but I ſin; Nay, I cannot ſo much as confeſs my Sins, but my very Confeſſions are ſtill Aggravations of them; my Repentance needs to be repented of, my Tears want Waſhing, and the very Waſhing of my Tears needs ſtill to be waſh'd over again with the Blood of my Redeemer. Thus, not only the Worſt of my Sins, but even the Beſt of my Duties, ſpeak me a Child of Adam. Inſomuch that whenſoever I reflect upon my paſt Actions, methinks I cannot but look upon my whole Life, from the time of my Conception to this very Moment, to be but as one continued Act of Sin.

And whence can ſuch a continued Stream of Corruption flow, but from the corrupt Ciſtern of my Heart? And whence can that corrupt Ciſtern of my Heart be fill'd, fill'd, but from the corrupt Fountain of my Nature? Ceaſe, therefore, O my Soul, to gainſay the Power of Original Sin within thee, and labour now to ſubdue it under thee. But, why do I ſpeak of my ſubduing this Sin Myſelf? Surely, this would be both an Argument of it, and an Addition to it. 'Tis to Thee, O my GOD, who art both the Searcher and Cleanſer of Hearts, that I deſire to make my Moan! 'Tis to Thee I cry out in the Bitterneſs of my Soul, O wretched Man that I am, who ſhall deliver me from the Body of this Death? Who ſhall? Oh! Who can do it, but Thyſelf? Ariſe Thou, therefore, O my GOD, and ſhew Thyſelf as infinitely Merciful in the Pardoning, as Thou art infinitely Powerful in the Purging away my Sins!

Article V.

I believe, the Son of GOD became the Son of Man, that I, the Son of Man, might become the Son of GOD.

OH! How comfortably does this raiſe me, from the loweſt Abaſement of Sin and Miſery, which I have before acknowledg'd to be my Natural State, to the higheſt Exaltation of Happineſs and Glory, in a Spiritual one! This is that great Article of Faith, by which all the Benefits of our Saviour's Death and Paſſion are made over to me in the New Covenant, and by which, if I perform the Conditions therein requir'd, I ſhall not only be retriev'd from the Bondage and Corruption that is inherent in me, as a Child of Wrath, but be juſtify'd and accepted as the Son of GOD, and be made a Joint-Heir with CHRIST. This is a Point of the greateſt Moment and Concern, which, by the Grace and Aſſiſtance of Him of whom I ſpeak, and in whom I thus believe, I ſhall, therefore, be the more exact and particular lar in the ſearching and examining into.

Now, when I ſay, and believe, that GOD became Man, I do not ſo underſtand it, as if the Divine Nature took upon it a Humane Perſon, but that a Divine Perſon took upon Him the Humane Nature, i. e. it was not the Divine Nature in general, without reſpect to the Perſons, but one of the Perſons, in the Divine Nature, which took Fleſh upon Him. And yet, to ſpeak preciſely, it was not the Divine Perſon abſtracted or diſtinct from the Divine Nature, but it was the Divine Nature in that Perſon which thus took upon it the Humane. And this was not the Firſt or Third, but the Second Perſon only in the Sacred Trinity, that thus aſſum'd our Nature; as, conſidering the myſterious Order and OEconomy of the Divine Perſons, it ſeems to be neceſſary that it ſhou'd.

For, firſt, The Father could not have become this Son of Man, becauſe, then, He that had begotten from Eternity, ſhould have been begotten in Time; by which means, as He was the Father to the Son, ſo would the Son alſo have been the Father unto Him; and ſo the Order betwixt the Father and the Son deſtroy'd.

Nor,

NOR, ſecondly, cou'd the Holy Ghoſt have taken our Nature upon Him, becauſe the Bond of Perſonal Union betwixt the Divine and Humane Nature, is from the Spirit, (and thence it is, that every one that is Partaker of CHRIST's Perſon, is Partaker of His Spirit alſo) which cou'd not be, if the Spirit itſelf had been the Perſon aſſuming. For, I cannot conceive, how the ſame Perſon could unite itſelf, by itſelf, to the aſſum'd Nature: And therefore we read, that in the Virgin's Conception of our Saviour, it was neither the Father, nor the Son Himſelf, but the Spirit of the moſt High, which did overſhadow her, Luke i. 35.

AND, farther, if the Holy Ghoſt had been my Redeemer, who ſhould have been my Sanctifier? If He had died perſonally for me, who ſhould have applied His Death effectually to me? That I cou'd not do it Myſelf, is, beyond Contradiction, evident; and that either the Father, or the Son, ſhou'd do it, is not agreeable to the Nature or Order of the Divine Operations; they, as I believe, never acting any thing ad extra, perſonally, but by the Spirit proceeding from them both. And therefore it is, that CHRIST, to comfort His Diſciples after His Death, promiſeth them, in His Life-time, that He would would ſend them the Comforter, John xvi. 7. which is the Spirit of Truth, ver. 13. He doth not ſay, He will come again perſonally, but myſtically to them, by His Spirit.

But now, that the Spirit, whoſe Office it is to apply the Merit and Mediation of God-Man to me, could not have done it, if Himſelf had been that God-Man, ſeems to me as clear and manifeſt as the other: For, if He had done it, He ſhould either have done it by the Father, by the Son, or by Himſelf. He could not do it by the Father, nor the Son, becauſe He does nothing by Them, but all things from Them. The Father acts in the Son by the Spirit, the Son from the Father by the Spirit, the Spirit from the Father and the Son. And therefore it likewiſe follows, that as the Spirit could not unite Itſelf before, ſo neither can It apply Itſelf here, to the Humane Nature; for, to aſſume the Humane Nature into the Divine, and to apply the Divine Nature to the Humane, are two diſtinct Offices, and, therefore, to be perform'd by two diſtinct Perſons. The firſt could have been done only by one that was really Man, as well as GOD; the other, only by one that was meerly GOD, and not Man.

And that muſt needs be ſo; for, otherwiſe, GOD ſhould act upon Man by Man, by

by the Perſon Man, as well as GOD; and, by Conſequence, all the Diſpenſations of His Grace towards us, would have been ſtopp'd in the Frailty of the humane, though perfect, Nature. So that it would have avail'd me nothing, if the Spirit had taken my Nature upon Him; becauſe, tho' He had aſſumed the Humane, I could not thence have participated of the Divine Nature; Nay, therefore I could not have participated of This, becauſe He had aſſumed That, by which alone I could be brought into this Capacity; and ſo, by this means, I ſhould be farther off than I was before.

And, laſtly, as, if the Father had become Man, there would have been two Fathers; ſo, if the Spirit had become Man, there would have been two Sons, the Second Perſon begotten from Eternity, and the Third Perſon begotten in Time. But now, by the Son's taking our Nature upon Him, theſe and far greater Difficulties are avoided, which we might eaſily perceive, could we ſufficiently dive into the Depth of that Wiſdom of the Father, in ſending His Son, rather than His Spirit, or coming Himſelf in His own Perſon. Howſoever, to us it cannot but ſeem moſt equitable, (if Reaſon may hold the Balance) that He, who is the middle Perſon, betwixt the

Father

Father and the Spirit, ſhould become the Mediator betwixt GOD and Man; and that He, who is the Son of GOD in the glorious Trinity, ſhould become the Son of Man in this gracious Myſtery.

BUT, on the other ſide, as it was not the Divine Nature, but a Divine Perſon that did aſſume, ſo neither was it a Humane Perſon, but the Humane Nature, that was aſſumed; for otherwiſe, if He had aſſumed the Perſon of any one Man in the World, His Death had been beneficial to none but him, whoſe Perſon He thus aſſumed, and repreſented. Whereas, now that He has aſſum'd the Nature of Man in general, all that partake of that Nature, are capable of partaking of the Benefits He purchas'd for us, by dying in our ſtead. And thus, under each Adam, as the Repreſentation was univerſal, ſo were the Effects deſign'd to be: For as in Adam all died, even ſo in CHRIST ſhall all be made alive, 1 Cor. xv. 22.

AGAIN, When I ſay, the Son of GOD became the Son of Man, I do not mean, as if, by this, He ſhould ceaſe to be, what He was before, the Son of GOD; for He did not leave His Godhead to take upon Him the Manhood; but I believe He took the Manhood into His Godhead;

He

He did not put off the one to put on the other, but He put one upon the other: Neither do I believe, that the Humane Nature, when aſſumed into the Divine, ceaſed to be Humane; but as the Divine Perſon ſo aſſumed the Humane Nature, as ſtill to remain a Divine Perſon, ſo the Humane Nature was ſo aſſumed into a Divine Perſon, as ſtill to remain a Humane Nature: GOD, therefore, ſo became Man, as to be both perfectly GOD, and perfectly Man, united together in one Perſon.

I ſay, in one Perſon; for if He ſhould be GOD and Man in diſtinct Perſons, this would avail me no more, than if He ſhould be GOD only, and not Man, or Man only, and not GOD; becauſe the Merit and Value both of His active and paſſive Obedience is grounded meerly upon the Union of the two Natures in one and the ſame Perſon. He, therefore, by His Life and Death, merited ſo much for us, becauſe the ſame Perſon that ſo lived and died, was GOD, as well as Man; and every Action that He did, and every Paſſion that He ſuffer'd, was done and ſuffer'd by Him that was GOD, as well as Man. And hence it is, that CHRIST, of all the Perſons in the World, is ſo fit, yea, only fit, to be my Redeemer, Mediator, and Surety; becauſe He alone is both GOD and Man in one Perſon. If He was not Man, He could not undertake that Office; if He was not GOD, He could not perform it: If He was not Man, He could not be capable of being bound for me; if He was not GOD, He would not be able to pay my Debt. It was Man by whom the Covenant was broken; and, therefore, Man muſt have ſuitable Puniſhment laid upon him: It was GOD with whom it was broken; and, therefore, GOD muſt have ſufficient Satisfaction made unto Him: And, as for that Satisfaction, it was Man that had offended, and, therefore, Man alone could make it ſuitable; it was GOD that was offended, and, therefore, GOD alone could make it ſufficient.

THE Sum of all is this: Man can ſuffer, but he cannot ſatisfy; GOD can ſatisfy, but He cannot ſuffer; but CHRIST being both GOD and Man, can both ſuffer and ſatisfy too; and ſo, is perfectly fit both to ſuffer for Man, and to make Satisfaction unto GOD, to reconcile GOD to Man, and Man to GOD. And thus, CHRIST having aſſum'd my Nature into His Perſon, and ſo ſatisfy'd Divine Juſtice for my Sins, I am receiv'd ceiv'd into Grace and Favour again, with the moſt High GOD.

UPON this Principle, I believe, that I, by Nature the Son of Man, am made, by Grace, the Son of GOD, as really as CHRIST, by Nature the Son of GOD, was made, by Office, the Son of Man: And ſo, tho', in myſelf, I may ſay to Corruption, thou art my Mother, yet in CHRIST, I may ſay to GOD, Abba Father. Neither do I believe this to be a metaphorical Expreſſion, viz. becauſe He doth that for me, which a Father doth for his Child, even provide for me whilſt young, and give me my Portion, when come to Age; but I believe, that, in the ſame Propriety of Speech, that my Earthly Father was call'd the Father of my Natural Self, is GOD the Father of my Spiritual Self: For, why was my Earthly Father call'd my Father, but becauſe that I, as to my Natural Being, was born of what proceeded from him, viz. his Seed? Why ſo, as to my Spiritual Being, am I born of what proceeds from GOD, His Spirit: And as I was not born of the very Subſtance of my Natural Parents, but only of what came from them; ſo neither is my Spiritual Self begotten again, quickned, and conſtituted of the very Subſtance of my Heavenly Father, GOD, but of the Spirit, and Spiritual Influences proceeding from Him. Thus, therefore, it is, that I believe, that CHRIST, the Son of GOD, became the Son of Man; and thus it is, that I believe myſelf, the Son of Man, to be made, thereby, the Son of GOD. I believe, O my GOD and Father, do Thou help mine Unbelief! and, every Day more and more increaſe my Faith, till itſelf ſhall be done away, and turn'd into the moſt perfect Viſion and Fruition of thine own moſt glorious Godhead!

ARTICLE VI.

I believe, that CHRIST liv'd to GOD, and died for Sin, that I might die to Sin, and live with GOD.

AND thus, by Faith, I follow my Saviour from the Womb to the Tomb, from His Incarnation to His Death and Paſſion, believing all that He did or ſuffer'd, to be for My ſake; for CHRIST did not only take my Nature upon Him, but He ſuffer'd and obey'd, He underwent Miſeries, and undertook Duties, for me; ſo that not only His paſſive, but likelikewiſe His active Obedience unto GOD, in that Nature, was ſtill for Me. Not as if I believ'd, His Duty, as Man, was not GOD's Debt, by the Law of Creation; Yes, I believe, that He ow'd that Obedience unto GOD, that if He had committed but one Sin, and that of the lighteſt Tincture, in all His Life-time, He would have been ſo far from being able to ſatisfy for My Sins, that He could not have ſatisfy'd for His Own; For ſuch an High-Prieſt became us, who is holy, harmleſs, undefiled, ſeparate from Sinners, and made higher than the Heavens; Who needeth not daily, as thoſe High-Prieſts, to offer up Sacrifice, firſt for his own Sins, and then for the Peoples, Heb. vii. 26, 27. So that if He had not had theſe Qualifications in their abſolute Perfection, He could not have been our High-Prieſt, nor, by conſequence, have made Atonement for, nor expiated, any Sins whatſoever. But now, though both as Man, and as God-Man or Mediator too, it behov'd Him to be thus faithful and ſpotleſs; yet, as being GOD coequal and coeſſential with the Father, it was not out of Duty, but meerly upon our Account, that He thus ſubjected His Neck to the Yoke of His own Law; Himſelf, as GOD, being the Legiſlator or Lawgiver, and ſo, no more under it, than the Father Himſelf.

And hereupon it is, that I verily believe, that whatſoever Christ either did or ſuffer'd in the Fleſh, was meritorious; not that His Life was righteous towards GOD, only that His Death might be meritorious for us, (which, I believe, otherwiſe it could not have been) but that His Life was equally meritorious, as righteous. So that, I believe, My Perſon is as really accepted, as perfectly righteous, by the Righteouſneſs of His Life imputed to Me, as My Sins are pardon'd by GOD, for the Bitterneſs of the Death He ſuffer'd for them; His Righteouſneſs being as really, by Faith, imputed to Me, as My Sins were laid upon Him: As theſe are ſet upon His, ſo is that ſet upon my Score; and ſo, every thing He did in His Life, as well as every thing He ſuffer'd in His Death, is mine; by the latter, GOD looks upon me as perfectly innocent, and, therefore, not to be thrown down to Hell; by the former, He looks upon me as perfectly righteous, and, therefore, to be brought up to Heaven.

And, as for His Death, I believe, it was not only as much, but infinitely more, ſatisfactory to Divine Juſtice, than tho' I ſhould have died to Eternity. For, by that that means, Juſtice is actually and perfectly ſatisfy'd already, which it could never have been, by my ſuffering for my Sins Myſelf; for, if Juſtice, by that means, cou'd ever be ſatisfy'd, if it could ever ſay, It is enough, it could not ſtand with the ſame Juſtice, now ſatisfy'd, ſtill to inflict Puniſhment, nor, by conſequence, could the Damned juſtly ſcorch in the Flames of GOD's Wrath, for ever. Neither did the Death of my Saviour reach only to the condemning, but likewiſe to the commanding Power of Sin; it did not only pluck out its Sting, but likewiſe deprive it of its Strength; ſo that He did not only merit by His Death, that I ſhould never die for Sin, but likewiſe, that I ſhould die to it. Neither did He only merit by His Life, that I ſhould be accounted righteous in Him before GOD; but likewiſe, that I ſhould be made righteous in Myſelf by GOD. Yea, I believe, that CHRIST, by His Death, hath ſo fully diſcharg'd the Debt I owe to GOD, that now, for the Remiſſion of my Sins, and the Accepting of my Perſon, (if I perform the Conditions He requires in His Covenant) I may not only appeal to the Throne of Grace, but likewiſe to the Judgment-Seat of GOD; I may not only cry, Mercy, Mercy, O gracious Father, but Juſtice, Juſtice, my righteous GOD. I may not only ſay, Lord, be gracious and merciful, but be juſt and faithful, to acquit me from that Debt, and cancel that Bond which my Surety hath paid for me, and which Thou haſt promis'd to accept of; being not only gracious and merciful, but juſt and faithful, to forgive me my Sins, and to cleanſe me from all Unrighteouſneſs, 1 John i. 9.

ARTICLE VII.

I believe, that CHRIST roſe from the Grave, that I might riſe from Sin; and that He is aſcended into Heaven, that I may come unto Him.

AS CHRIST came from Heaven to Earth, ſo, I believe, He went from Earth to Heaven, and all for the Accompliſhment of my Salvation; that, after He had liv'd a moſt holy Life, He died a moſt cruel Death; that He was apprehended, arraign'd, accus'd, and condemn'd, by ſuch as could not pronounce the Sentence againſt Him, did not Himſelf, at the ſame time, vouchſafe them Breath to do it; and that He that came into the World to take

I believe, that Christ rose from the Grave, that I might rise from Sin: and that he is ascended into heaven, that I may come unto him.

take away the Sins of it, to bring Sinners to the Joys of Life, was Himſelf, by thoſe very Sinners, brought into the Pangs of Death. But yet, as it was not in the Power of Death, long to detain the Lord of Life; ſo, tho' Worms had Power to ſend Him to the Grave, yet, I believe, they had not Power or Time to feed upon Him there; for He roſe again from the Dead the third Day: He lay three Days, that I might believe, He was not alive, but dead; He aroſe the third Day, that I might believe, He is not dead, but lives: He deſcended down to Hell, that He might make full Satisfaction to GOD's Juſtice for my Sins; but He is now aſcended up into Heaven, that He may make Interceſſion to GOD's Mercy for my Soul: Thither I believe He is gone, and there I believe He is, not as a private Perſon, but as the Head and Saviour of His Church. And, under this Capacity, as I believe that CHRIST is there for Me, ſo I am there in Him: For where the Head is, there muſt the Members be alſo; that is, I am as really there in Him, my Repreſentative now, as I ſhall be in my own proper Perſon hereafter; and He is as really preparing my Manſion for me there, as I am preparing myſelf for that Manſion here. Nay, I believe, that He is not only preparing paring a Manſion for me in Heaven, but that Himſelf is likewiſe preparing me for this Manſion upon Earth; continually ſending down and iſſuing forth from Himſelf freſh Supplies and Influences of His Grace and Spirit; and all to qualify me for His Service, and make me meet to be Partaker of His Inheritance with the Saints in Light.

WHICH Inheritance, I believe, He doth not ſo much deſire His Father to beſtow upon me, as claims it for me; Himſelf having purchas'd it with the Price of His own Blood. And as He hath purchas'd the Inheritance itſelf, ſo likewiſe the Way unto it for me; and, therefore, ſues out for the Pardon of thoſe Sins, and Subduing thoſe Corruptions, which wou'd make me unworthy of it; and for the Conveyance of thoſe Graces to me, whereby I may walk directly to it; Not only ſaying to His Father, concerning me, as Paul ſaid to Philemon concerning Oneſimus, If this thy Servant oweth thee any thing, ſet it upon my Account, I will repay it; but what this thy Servant oweth thee, ſee, 'tis ſet upon My Score already, and I have paid it; what Puniſhments he is indebted to Thee, for all the Offences he hath committed againſt Thee, behold, I have borne them already; ſee, how I have been wounded for his Tranſgreſſions, and bruiſed for his Iniquities; the Chaſtiſement of his Peace was upon Me; with My Stripes, therefore, let him be healed, Iſa. liii. 5. And thus, as He once ſhed His Blood for me amongſt Men, He now pleads it for me before GOD; and that not only for the Waſhing out the Guilt of my Tranſgreſſions, but likewiſe for the Waſhing away the Filth of my Corruptions; Himſelf having purchaſed the Donation of the Spirit from the Father, He there claims the Communication of it unto Me.

AND, that He hath thus undertaken to plead my Cauſe for me, I have it under His own Hand and Seal; Himſelf, by His Spirit, aſſuring me, that if I ſin, I have an Advocate with the Father, even JESUS CHRIST the Righteous, 1 John ii. 1. So that, I believe, He is not ſo much my Solicitor at the Mercy-Seat, as my Advocate at the Judgment-Seat of GOD, there pleading my Right and Title to the Crown of Glory, and to every Step of the Way that I muſt go thro' the Kingdom of Grace unto it. In a word, I believe, that CHRIST, upon Promiſe and Engagement to pay ſuch a Price for it in Time, did purchaſe this Inheritance for me from Eternity; whereupon, I was even then immediately choſen and elected into it; and had, by

by this means, a Place in Heaven, before I had any Being upon Earth: And, when the Time appointed, by Covenant, was come, I believe, CHRIST, according to his Promiſe, paid the Purchaſe-Money, even laid down His Life for me; and then forthwith went up and took Poſſeſſion of this my Kingdom, not for Himſelf, but for Me, as My Proxy and Repreſentative: So that, whilſt I am in my Infancy, under Age, I am in Poſſeſſion, though I have not as yet the Enjoyment of this my Inheritance; but that is reſerved for me till I come at Age. And howſoever, tho' I do not enjoy the Whole as yet, my Father allows me as much of it as He ſees convenient, ſo much Grace and ſo much Comfort as He thinks beſt; which are as a Pledge of what He hath laid up for me in His Kingdom, which is above.

ARTICLE VIII.

I believe, that my Perſon is only juſtify'd by the Merit of CHRIST imputed to me; and that my Nature is only ſanctify'd by the Spirit of CHRIST implanted in me.

AND thus I do not only believe CHRIST to be my Saviour, but I believe only CHRIST to be my Saviour. 'Twas He alone, that trod the Wine-Preſs of His Father's Wrath, fill'd with the ſowr and bitter Grapes of my Sins. 'Twas He that carry'd on the great Work of my Salvation, being Himſelf both the Author and the Finiſher of it. I ſay, It was He, and He alone; for, what Perſon or Perſons in the World could do it, beſides Himſelf? The Angels could not if they would, the Devils would not if they could; and, as for my Fellow-Creatures, I may as well ſatisfy for their Sins, as they for mine; and how little able, even the beſt of us, are to do either, i.e. to atone either for our own Tranſgreſſions, or thoſe of others, every Man's Experience will ſufficiently inform him. For, how ſhou'd we, poor Worms of the the Earth, ever hope, by the Slime and Mortar (if I may ſo ſpeak) of our own Natural Abilities, to raiſe up a Tower, whoſe Top may reach Heaven? Can we expect, by the Strength of our own Hands, to take Heaven by Violence? or by the Price of our Works, to purchaſe eternal Glory? 'Tis a Matter of Admiration to me, how any one, that pretends to the Uſe of his Reaſon, can imagine, that he ſhould be accepted before GOD, for what comes from Himſelf! For, how is it poſſible, that I ſhould be juſtified by Good Works, when I can do no Good Works at all, before I be firſt juſtify'd? My Works cannot be accepted as good, till my Perſon be ſo; nor can my Perſon be accepted by GOD, till firſt engrafted into CHRIST; before which Engrafting into the true Vine, 'tis impoſſible I ſhould bring forth good Fruit; for the Plowing of the Wicked is Sin, ſays Solomon, Prov. xxi. 4. yea, the Sacrifices of the Wicked are an Abomination to the Lord, cap. xv. 8. And, if both the Civil and Spiritual Actions of the Wicked be Sin, Which, of all their Actions, ſhall have the Honour to juſtify them before GOD? I know not how it is with others, but, for my own part, I do not remember, neither do I believe, that I ever pray'd in all my Life-time, with that Reverence, or heard with that Attention, or receiv'd the Sacrament with that Faith, or did any other Work whatſoever, with that pure Heart, and ſingle Eye, as I ought to have done. Inſomuch that I look upon all my Righteouſneſſes but as filthy Rags; and 'tis in the Robes only of the Righteouſneſs of the Son of GOD, that I dare appear before the Majeſty of Heaven. Nay, ſuppoſe I could, at length, attain to that Perfection, as to do Good Works, Works exactly conformable to the Will of GOD; yet they muſt have better Eyes than I, that can ſee how my Obedience in one kind, can ſatisfy for my Diſobedience in another; or, how that which GOD commands from Me, ſhould merit any thing from Him.

No; I believe, there is no Perſon can merit any thing from GOD, but he that can do more than is requir'd of him, which it is impoſſible any Creature ſhould do. For, in that it is a Creature, it continually depends upon GOD, and, therefore, is bound to do every thing it can, by any means, poſſibly to do for him; eſpecially, conſidering that the Creature's Dependence upon GOD is ſuch, that it is beholden to Him even for every Action that iſſues from it; without whom, as it is impoſſible any thing ſhould be, ſo likewiſe that any any thing ſhould act, eſpecially, what is good. So that, to ſay, a Man of himſelf can merit any thing from GOD, is as much as to ſay, that he can merit by that which of himſelf he doth not do; or, that one Perſon can merit by that which another performs, which is a plain Contradiction. For in that it merits, it is neceſſarily imply'd, that itſelf acts that by which it is ſaid to merit; but in that it doth not depend upon itſelf, but upon another in what it acts, it is as neceſſarily imply'd, that itſelf doth not do that by which it is ſaid to merit.

UPON this Account, I ſhall never be induced to believe, that any Creature, by any thing it doth or can do, can merit or deſerve any thing at the Hand of GOD, till it can be proved, that a Creature can merit by that which GOD doth; or that GOD can be bound to beſtow any thing upon us, for that which Himſelf alone is pleaſed to work in us, and by us; which, in plain Terms, would be as much as to ſay, That becauſe GOD hath been pleaſed to do one good Turn for us, He is therefore bound to do more; and, becauſe GOD hath enabled us to do our Duty, He ſhould therefore be bound to give us Glory.

'TIS

'Tis not, therefore, in the Power of any Perſon in the World, to merit any thing from GOD, but ſuch a one who is abſolutely coeſſential with Him, and ſo, depends not upon Him, either for His Exiſtence or Actions. And, as there is no Perſon can merit any thing from GOD, unleſs he be eſſentially the ſame with Him, ſo likewiſe, unleſs he be perſonally diſtinct from Him; foraſmuch as, tho' a Perſon may be ſaid to merit for himſelf, yet he cannot be ſaid, without a groſs Soleciſm, to merit any thing from himſelf. So that he that is not as perfectly another Perſon from GOD, as really the ſame in Nature with Him, can never be ſaid to merit any thing at His Hands.

But farther, GOD the Father could not properly be ſaid to do it in His own Perſon, becauſe, being (according to our Conception) the Party offended, ſhould He have undertaken this Work for me, He, in His own Perſon, muſt have undertaken to make Satisfaction to His own Perſon, for the Offences committed againſt Himſelf; which if He ſhould have done, His Mercy might have been much exalted, but His Juſtice could not have been ſatisfy'd by it. For Juſtice requires, either that the Party offending ſhould be puniſh'd for theſe Offences, or, at leaſt, ſome fit Per-ſon in his ſtead, which the Father Himſelf cannot be ſaid to be, in that He was the Party offended, to whom this Satisfaction was to be made; And 'tis abſurd to ſuppoſe, that the ſame Perſon ſhou'd be capable of making Satisfaction, both by and to Himſelf, at the ſame time.

It remains, therefore, that there were only Two Perſons in the Holy Trinity, who could poſſibly be inveſted with this Capacity; the Son, and the Spirit: As to the latter, tho' He be indeed the ſame in Nature with the Father, and a diſtinct Perſon from Him, and ſo far in a Capacity to make Satisfaction to Him; yet not being capable both of aſſuming the Humane Nature into the Divine, and alſo uniting and applying the Divine Nature to the Humane, (as I have ſhew'd before, in the fifth Article) He was not in a Capacity of making Satisfaction for Man; none being fit to take that Office upon him, but He that, of Himſelf, was perfectly GOD, and likewiſe capable of becoming perfectly Man, by uniting both Natures in the ſame Perſon; which the Holy Ghoſt cou'd not do, becauſe He was the Perſon by whom, and therefore could not be the Perſon alſo in whom, this Union of the two Natures was to be perfected. And yet, it was by this Means, and this Method only, that any Perſon could have been completely capacitated to have borne the Puniſhment of our Sins: He that was only Man could not do it, becauſe the Sin was committed againſt GOD; and He that was only GOD could not do it, becauſe the Sin was committed by Man.

FROM all which, as I may fairly infer, ſo, I hope, I may ſafely fix, my Faith in this Article, viz. That there was only one Perſon in the whole World, that could do this great Work for me, of juſtifying my Perſon before GOD, and ſo glorifying my Soul with Him; and that was the Son of GOD, the Second Perſon in the glorious Trinity, begotten of the Subſtance of the Father from all Eternity; whom I apprehend and believe to have brought about the great Work of my Juſtification before GOD, after this or the like manner.

HE being, in and of Himſelf, perfectly coequal, coeſſential, and coeternal with the Father, was, in no ſort, bound to do more than the Father himſelf did; and ſo whatſoever He ſhould do, which the Father did not, might juſtly be accounted as a Work of Supererogation; which, without any Violation of Divine Juſtice, might be ſet upon the Account of ſome other Perſons, even of ſuch whom He pleas'd to do it for. And hereupon, out of Mercy and Compaſſion to fallen Man, He covenants with His Father, that if it pleas'd His Majeſty to accept it, He would take upon Him the Suffering of thoſe Puniſhments which were due from Him to Man, and the Performance of thoſe Duties which were due from Man to Him; ſo that whatſoever He ſhould thus humble Himſelf to do or ſuffer, ſhould wholly be upon the Account of Man, Himſelf not being any ways bound to do or ſuffer more in Time, than He had from Eternity.

THIS Motion, the Father, out of the Riches of His Grace and Mercy, was pleas'd to conſent unto: And hereupon, the Son aſſuming our Nature into His Deity, becomes ſubject and obedient both to the Moral and Ceremonial Laws of His Father; and, at laſt, to Death itſelf, even the Death of the Croſs. In the one, He paid an Active, in the other a Paſſive Obedience; and ſo did not only fulfill the Will of His Father, in obeying what He had commanded, but ſatisfy'd His Juſtice in ſuffering the Puniſhment due to us for the tranſgreſſing of it. His Active Obedience, as it was infinitely pure and perfect, did, without doubt, infinitely tranſcend all the Obedience of the Sons of Men, even of Adam too in his primitive State. For, the Obedience of Adam, make the beſt of it, was but the Obedience of a finite Creature; whereas the Obedience of CHRIST was the Obedience of one that was infinite GOD, as well as Man. By which means, the Laws of GOD had higher Obedience perform'd to them, than themſelves, in their primitive Inſtitution, requir'd; for being made only to finite Creatures, they could command no more than the Obedience of finite Creatures; whereas the Obedience of CHRIST was the Obedience of one who was the infinite Creator, as well as a finite Creature.

NOW, this Obedience being more than CHRIST was bound to, and only perform'd upon the account of thoſe whoſe Nature He had aſſumed; as we, by Faith, lay hold upon it, ſo GOD, through Grace, imputes it to us, as if it had been perform'd by us in our own Perſons. And hence it is, that as, in one place, CHRIST is ſaid to be made Sin for us, 2 Cor. v. 21. ſo, in another place, He is ſaid to be made our Righteouſneſs, 1 Cor. i. 30. And in the forecited place, 2 Cor. v. 21. as He is ſaid to be made Sin for us, ſo we are ſaid to be made Righteouſneſs in Him: But what Righteouſneſs? Our own? No, The Righteouſneſs of GOD, radically His, but imputatively Ours: And this is the only way, whereby we are ſaid to be made the Righ- eousneſs of GOD, even by the Righteouſneſs of CHRIST's being made ours, by which we are accounted and reputed as Righteous before GOD.

THESE things conſider'd, I very much wonder, how any Man can preſume to exclude the Active Obedience of CHRIST from our Juſtification before GOD; as if what CHRIST did in the Fleſh, was only of Duty, not at all of Merit; or, as if it was for Himſelf, and not for Us. Eſpecially, when I conſider, that Suffering the Penalty is not what the Law primarily requireth; for the Law of GOD requires perfect Obedience, the Penalty being only threaten'd to (not properly requir'd of) the Breakers of it. For, let a Man ſuffer the Penalty of the Law in never ſo high a manner, he is not therefore accounted obedient to it; his Puniſhment doth not ſpeak his Innocence, but rather his Tranſgreſſion of the Law.

HENCE it is, that I cannot look upon CHRIST, as having made full Satisfaction to GOD's Juſtice for Me, unleſs He had perform'd the Obedience I owe to GOD's Laws, as well as borne the Puniſhment that is due to my Sins: for, tho' He ſhould have borne my Sins, I cannot ſee how that could denominate me Righteous or Obedient to the Law, ſo as to entitle me to eternal eternal Life, according to the Tenor of the Old Law, Do this and live, Lev. xviii. 5. Which old Covenant is not diſannull'd or abrogated by the Covenant of Grace, but rather eſtabliſh'd, Rom. iii. 31. eſpecially as to the Obedience it requires from us, in order to the Life it promiſeth; otherwiſe, the Laws of GOD would be mutable, and ſo come ſhort of the Laws of the very Medes and Perſians, which alter'd not. Obedience, therefore, is as ſtrictly requir'd under the New, as it was under the Old Teſtament, but with this Difference; there, Obedience in our own Perſons was requir'd as abſolutely neceſſary; here, Obedience in our Surety is accepted as completely ſufficient.

But now, if we have no ſuch Obedience in our Surety, (as we cannot have, if He did not live, as well as die, for us) let any one tell me, what Title he hath, or can have, to eternal Life? I ſuppoſe, he'll tell me, he hath none in himſelf, becauſe he hath not perform'd perfect Obedience to the Law. And I tell him, he hath none in Christ, unleſs Christ perform'd that Obedience for him, which none can ſay He did, that doth not believe His active as well as paſſive Obedience, to be wholly upon our Account.

AND now I ſpeak of CHRIST's being our Surety, as the Apoſtle calls Him, Heb. vii. 22. methinks, this gives much Light to the Truth in hand: For, what is a Surety, but one that undertakes to pay whatſoever he, whoſe Surety he is, is bound to pay, in caſe the Debtor prove non-ſolvent, or unable to pay it himſelf? And thus is CHRIST, under the Notion of a Surety, bound to pay whatever we owe to GOD, becauſe we ourſelves are not able to pay it, in our own Perſons.

NOW, there are two things that we owe to GOD, which this our Surety is bound to pay for us, viz. Firſt, and principally, Obedience to His Laws, as He is our Creator and Governor; And, Secondly, By Conſequence, the Puniſhment that is annex'd to the Breach of theſe Laws, of which we are Guilty. Now, though CHRIST ſhould pay the latter Part of our Debt for us, by bearing the Puniſhment that is due unto us; yet, if He did not pay the former and principal Part of it too, i. e. perform the Obedience which we owe to GOD, He would not fully have perform'd the Office of Suretiſhip which He undertook for us; and ſo would be but a Half-Mediator, or Half-Saviour, which are ſuch Words, as I dare ſcarce pronounce, for fear of Blaſphemy.

So

So that, tho' it is the Death of CHRIST by which I believe my Sins are pardon'd; yet, it is the Life of CHRIST, by which I believe my Perſon is accepted. His Paſſions GOD accounts as ſuffer'd by me, and, therefore, I ſhall not die for Sin: His Obedience GOD accounts as perform'd by me, and therefore, I ſhall live with Him. Not as if I believ'd, that CHRIST ſo perform'd Obedience for Me, that I ſhould be diſcharged from my Duty to Him; but only, that I ſhould not be condemn'd by GOD, in not diſcharging my Duty to Him, in ſo ſtrict a manner, as is requir'd. I believe, the active Obedience of CHRIST will ſtand Me in no ſtead, unleſs I endeavour after ſincere Obedience in mine own Perſon; His Active, as well as His Paſſive, Obedience, being imputed unto none, but only to ſuch, as apply it to themſelves by Faith; which Faith in CHRIST will certainly put ſuch as are poſſeſs'd of it upon Obedience unto GOD. This, therefore, is the Righteouſneſs, and the Manner of that Juſtification, whereby I hope to ſtand before the Judgment-Seat of GOD; even by GOD's imputing My Sins to CHRIST, and CHRIST's Righteouſneſs to Me; looking upon me as one not to be puniſh'd for my Sins, becauſe CHRIST hath ſuffer'd, but to be receiv'd into the Joys of Glory, becauſe CHRIST hath perform'd Obedience for me, and does, by Faith, through Grace, impute it to me.

AND thus, it is into the Merit of CHRIST, that I reſolve the whole Work of my Salvation; and this, not only as to that which is wrought without me, for the Juſtification of my Perſon, but likewiſe as to what is wrought within me, for the Sanctification of my Nature. As I cannot have a Sin par-don'd without CHRIST, ſo neither can I have a Sin ſubdued without Him; neither the Fire of GOD's Wrath can be quench'd, nor yet the Filth of my Sins waſh'd away, but by the Blood of CHRIST.

SO that I wonder as much at the Doctrine that ſome Men have advanc'd concerning Free-Will, as I do at that which others have broach'd in Favour of Good Works; and 'tis a Myſtery to me, how any that ever had Experience of GOD's Method in working out Sin, and planting Grace in our Hearts, ſhould think they can do it by themſelves, or any thing in order to it. Not that I do, in the leaſt, queſtion, but that every Man may be ſaved that will; (for this, I believe, is a real Truth) but I do not believe, that any Man, of himſelf, can will to be ſaved. Whereſoever GOD enables a Soul effectually to will Salvation, He will certainly tainly give Salvation to that Soul: But, I believe, it is as impoſſible for any Soul to will Salvation, of himſelf, as to enjoy Salvation without GOD.

AND this my Faith is not grounded upon a roving Fancy, but the moſt ſolid Reaſons: Foraſmuch as, of ourſelves, we are not able, in our Underſtandings, to diſcern the Evil from the Good; much leſs, then, are we able, in our Wills, to prefer the Good before the Evil; the Will never ſettling upon any thing, but what the Judgment diſcovers to it. But now, that my natural Judgment is unable to apprehend and repreſent to my Will, the true and only Good under its proper Notion, my own too ſad Experience would ſufficiently perſuade me, though I had neither Scripture, nor Reaſon for it. And yet, the Scripture alſo is ſo clear in this Point, that I could not have denied it, though I ſhould never have had any Experience of it; the moſt High expreſly telling me, that the natural Man receiveth not the Things of the Spirit of GOD, for they are Fooliſhneſs unto him; neither can he know them, becauſe they are ſpiritually diſcerned, 1 Cor. ii. 14. Neither can he know them, i. e. there is an abſolute Impoſſibility in it, that any one remaining in his Natural Principles, without the Aſſiſtance of GOD,

GOD, ſhould apprehend or conceive the Excellency of Spiritual Objects. So that a Man may as ſoon read the Letter of the Scripture without Eyes, as underſtand the Myſteries of the Goſpel without Grace. And this is not at all to be wonder'd at; eſpecially, if we conſider the vaſt and infinite Diſproportion betwixt the Object and the Faculty; the Object to be apprehended being nothing leſs than the beſt of Beings, GOD; and the Faculty whereby we apprehend it, nothing more than the Power of a finite Creature, polluted with the worſt of Evils, Sin.

So that, I believe, it is a thouſand times eaſier for a Worm, a Fly, or any other deſpicable Inſect whatſoever, to underſtand the Affairs of Men, than for the beſt of Men, in a Natural State, to apprehend the things of GOD. No; there is none can know GOD, nor, by Conſequence, any thing that is really Good, but only ſo far as they are Partakers of the Divine Nature: We muſt, in ſome meaſure, be like to GOD, before we can have any true Conceptions of Him, or be really delighted with Him: We muſt have a ſpiritual Sight, before we can behold ſpiritual Things; which every natural Man being deſtitute of, he can ſee no Comelineſs in CHRIST, why He ſhould be deſir'd; nor any Amia-

bleneſs in Religion, why it ſhou'd be embrac'd.

And hence it is, that I believe, the firſt Work which GOD puts forth upon the Soul, in order to its Converſion, is, to raiſe up a Spiritual Light within it, to clear up its Apprehenſions about Spiritual Matters, ſo as to enable the Soul to look upon GOD as the chiefeſt Good, and the Enjoyment of Him as the greateſt Bliſs; whereby the Soul may clearly diſcern betwixt Good and Evil, and evidently perceive, that nothing is good, but ſo far as 'tis like to GOD; and nothing Evil, but ſo far as it reſembles Sin.

But this is not all the Work that GOD hath to do upon a ſinful Soul, to bring it to Himſelf; for tho' I muſt confeſs, that in Natural Things, the Will always follows the ultimate Dictates of the Underſtanding, ſo as to chooſe and embrace what the Underſtanding repreſents to it, under the comely Dreſs of good and amiable, and to refuſe and abhorr whatever, under the ſame Repreſentation, appears to be evil and dangerous; I ſay, though I muſt confeſs, 'tis ſo in natural, yet, I believe, it is not ſo in ſpiritual Matters. For, tho' the Underſtanding may have never ſuch clear Apprehenſions of ſpiritual Good, yet the Will is not at all affected with with it, without the joint Operations of the Grace of GOD upon us; All of us too ſadly experiencing what St. Paul long ago bewail'd in himſelf, that what we do, we allow not, Rom. vii. 15. that though our Judgments condemn what we do, yet we cannot chooſe but do it; tho' our Underſtandings clearly diſcover to us the Excellency of Grace and Glory, yet our Wills, overpower'd with their own Corruptions, are ſtrangely hurry'd into Sin and Miſery. I muſt confeſs, it is a Truth which I ſhould ſcarcely have ever believ'd, if I had not ſuch daily Experience of it: But, alas! there is ſcarce an Hour in a Day, but I may go about lamenting, with Medea, in Seneca, Video meliora, proboque; deteriora ſequor: Tho' I ſee what is good, yea, and judge it to be the Better, yet I very often chooſe the Worſe.

And the Reaſon of it is, becauſe, as by our Fall from GOD, the whole Soul was deſperately corrupted; ſo it is not the Rectifying of one Faculty, which can make the Whole ſtreight; but as the Whole was changed from Holineſs to Sin, ſo muſt the Whole be changed again from Sin to Holineſs, before it can be inſerted into a State of Grace, or ſo much as an Act of Grace be exerted by it.

Now,

Now, therefore, the Underſtanding and Will being two diſtinct Faculties, or, at leaſt, two diſtinct Acts in the Soul, it is poſſible for the Underſtanding to be ſo enlighten'd, as to preferr the Good before the Evil, and yet for the Will to remain ſo corrupt, as to chooſe the Evil before the Good. And hence it is, that where GOD intends to work over a Soul to Himſelf, He doth not only paſs an enlightning Act upon the Underſtanding and its Apprehenſions, but likewiſe a ſanctifying Act upon the Will and its Affections, that when the Soul perceives the Glory of GOD, and the Beauty of Holineſs, it may preſently cloſe with, and entertain it with the choiceſt of its Affections. And without GOD's thus drawing it, the Underſtanding could never allure the Soul to Good.

And therefore it is, that for all the clear Diſcoveries which the Underſtanding may make to itſelf concerning the Glories of the inviſible World, yet GOD aſſures us, 'tis Himſelf alone that affects the Soul with them, by inclining its Will to them; for it is GOD, which worketh in us both to will and to do of his own good Pleaſure, Phil. ii. 13. So that, tho' GOD offer Heaven to all that will accept of it, in His Holy Scripture; yet none can accept of it, but ſuch whom Himſelf ſtirs up by His Holy Holy Spirit, to endeavour after it. And thus we find it was in Iſrael's Return from Babylon to Jeruſalem, tho' King Cyrus made a Proclamation, that whoſoever would, might go up to worſhip at the Holy City, Ezra i. 3. yet there was none that accepted of the Offer, but thoſe whoſe Spirit GOD had raiſed to go up, ver. 5. So here, tho' GOD doth, as it were, proclaim to all the World, that whoſoever will come to CHRIST ſhall certainly be ſaved, yet it doth not follow, that All ſhall receive Salvation from Him, becauſe it is certain, All will not come; or rather none can will to come, unleſs GOD enables them.

I am ſure, to ſay none ſhall be ſaved, but thoſe that will of themſelves, would be ſad News for me, whoſe Will is naturally ſo backward to every thing that is good. But this is my Comfort, I am as certain, my Salvation is of GOD, as I am certain, it cannot be of myſelf. 'Tis CHRIST who vouchſafed to die for me, who hath likewiſe promis'd to live within me; 'tis He that will work all my Works, both for me and in me too. In a word, 'tis to Him I am beholden, not only for my ſpiritual Bleſſings and Enjoyments, but even for my temporal ones too, which, in and thro' His Name, I daily put up my Petitions ons for. So that I have not so much as a Morsel of Bread, in Mercy, from GOD, but only upon the Account of CHRIST; not a Drop of Drink, but what flows unto me in His Blood. 'Tis He that is the very Blessing of all my Blessings, without whom my very Mercies would prove but Curses, and my Prosperity would but work my Ruin.

Whither, therefore, should I go, my dear and blessed Saviour, but unto Thee? Thou hast the Words of eternal Life. And how shall I come, but by Thee? Thou hast the Treasures of all Grace. O Thou, that hast wrought out my Salvation for me, be pleas'd likewise to work this Salvation in me! Give me, I beseech Thee, such a Measure of Thy Grace, as to believe in Thee here upon Earth, and then give me such Degrees of Glory, as fully to enjoy Thee for ever in Heaven!

Article IX.

I believe, GOD enter'd into a double Covenant with Man, the Covenant of Works made with the first, and the Covenant of Grace made in the second Adam.

THAT the most High GOD should take a Piece of Earth, work it up into the Frame and Fashion of a Man, and breathe into his Nostrils the Breath of Life, and then should enter into a Covenant with it, and should say, Do this and live, when Man was bound to do it, whether he cou'd live by it or no, was, without doubt, a great and amazing Act of Love and Condescension; but that, when this Covenant was unhappily broken by the first, GOD shou'd instantly vouchsafe to renew it in the second Adam; and that too upon better Terms, and more easy Conditions than the former, was yet a more surprizing Mercy: For, the same Day that Adam eat of the Forbidden Fruit, did GOD make him this Promise, That the Seed of the Woman shou'd break the Serpent's Head, Gen. iii. 15. And this Promise miſe He afterwards explain'd and confirm'd by the Mouth of His Prophet Jeremy, ſaying, This is the Covenant that I will make with the Houſe of Iſrael, after thoſe days; I will put my Law into their inward Parts, and write it in their Hearts; and I will be to them a GOD, and they ſhall be to Me a People, Jer. xxxi. 33. And again, by St. Paul, under the New Teſtament, almoſt in the ſelf-ſame Words, Heb. viii. 10.

A Covenant ſo gracious and condeſcending, that it ſeems to be made up of nothing elſe but Promiſes. The firſt was, properly ſpeaking, a Covenant of Works, requiring, on Man's part, a perfect and unſinning Obedience, without any extraordinary Grace or Aſſiſtance from GOD, to enable him to perform it; but here, in the ſecond, GOD undertakes both for Himſelf and for Man too, having digeſted the Conditions to be perform'd by us, into Promiſes to be fulfill'd by Himſelf, viz. That He will not only pardon our Sins, if we do repent, but that He will give us Repentance, that ſo we may deſerve His Pardon; that He will not only give us Life, if we come to CHRIST, but even draw us to CHRIST, that ſo He may give us Life; and ſo, not only make us happy, if we will be holy, but make us holy, that ſo we may be happy: For the Covenant is, not that He will be our GOD, if we will be His People, but He will be our GOD, and we ſhall be His People. But ſtill, all this is in and thro' CHRIST, the Surety and Mediator of this Covenant, in whom all the Promiſes are Yea and Amen, 2 Cor. i. 20. So that CHRIST may be look'd upon, not only as a Surety, but as a Party in this Covenant of Grace, being not only bound to GOD, but likewiſe covenanting with Him for us. As God-Man He is a Surety for us, but as Man He muſt needs be a Party with us, even our Head in the Covenant of Grace, as Adam was in the Covenant of Works.

WHAT, therefore, tho' I can do nothing in this Covenant of myſelf? yet this is my Comfort, that He hath undertaken for me, who can do all things. And therefore is it call'd a Covenant of Grace, and not of Works, becauſe in it there is no Work requir'd from me, but what, by Grace, I ſhall be enabled to perform.

AND as for the Tenor in which this Covenant runs, or the Habendum and Grant which each Party covenants for, it is expreſs in theſe Words, I will be your GOD, and you ſhall be My People. GOD covenants with us, that we ſhall be His People; we covenant with GOD, that He

He ſhall be our GOD. And, what can GOD ſtipulate more to us, or we reſtipulate more to Him, than this? What doth not GOD promiſe to us, when He promiſes to be our GOD? and what doth He not require from us, when He requires us to be His People?

Firſt, He doth not ſay, I will be your Hope, your Help, your Light, your Life, your Sun, your Shield, and your exceeding great Reward; but I will be your GOD, which is ten thouſand times more than poſſibly can be couch'd under any other Expreſſions whatſoever, as containing, under it, whatſoever GOD is, whatſoever GOD hath, and whatſoever GOD can do. All His eſſential Attributes are ſtill engag'd for us; we may lay Claim to them, and take hold on them: So that what the Prophet ſaith of his Righteouſneſs and Strength, Surely ſhall one ſay, in the Lord have I Righteouſneſs and Strength, Iſa. xlv. 24. I may extend to all His other Attributes, and ſay, Surely in the Lord have I Mercy to pardon me, Wiſdom to inſtruct me, Power to protect me, Truth to direct me, Grace to crown my Heart on Earth, and Glory to crown my Head in Heaven: And if what He is, then, much more, what He hath, is here made over by Covenant to me. He that ſpared not His own Son, ſaith the Apoſtle, but deliver'd Him up for us all; how ſhall He not but with Him likewiſe freely give us all things? Rom. viii. 32. But what hath GOD to give me? Why, all He hath is briefly ſumm'd up in this ſhort Inventory; whatſoever is in Heaven above, or in Earth beneath, is His; and that this Inventory is true, I have ſeveral Witneſſes to prove it, Melchizedech, Gen. xiv. 19. and Moſes, Deut. x. 14. and David, 1 Chron. xxix. 11. Indeed, Reaſon itſelf will conclude this, That He that is the Creator and Preſerver, muſt, of Neceſſity, be the Owner and Poſſeſſor, of all things; ſo that let me imagine what poſſibly I can, in all the World, I may, with the Pen of Reaſon, write under it, This is GOD's; And if I take but the Pen of Faith with it, I may write, This is mine in JESUS CHRIST.

As for Example; Hath He a Son? He hath died for me. Hath He a Spirit? It ſhall live within me. Is Earth His? It ſhall be my Proviſion. Is Heaven His? It ſhall be my Portion. Hath He Angels? They ſhall guard me. Hath He Comforts? They ſhall ſupport me. Hath He Grace? That ſhall make me Holy. Hath He Glory? That ſhall make me Happy. For the Lord will give Grace and Glory, and no good thing will He withhold from thoſe that walk uprightly, Pſal. lxxxiv. 11.

AND

And as He is nothing but what He is unto us, ſo He doth nothing but what He doth for us. So that whatſoever GOD doth by His ordinary Providence, or (if our Neceſſity requires) whatſoever He can do by His extraordinary Power, I may be ſure, He doth and will do for me. Now He hath given Himſelf to me, and taken me unto Himſelf, what will He not do for me that He can? And what can He not do for me that He will? Do I want Food? GOD can drop down Manna from the Clouds, Exod. xvi. 4. or bid the Quails come down and feed me with their own Fleſh, as they did the Iſraelites, ver. 13. or He can ſend the Ravens to bring me Bread and Fleſh, as they did His Prophet Elijah, 1 Kings xvii. 6. Am I thirſty? GOD can broach the Rocks, and diſſolve the Flints into Floods of Water, as He did for Iſrael, Deut. viii. 15. Am I caſt into a fiery Furnace? He can ſuſpend the Fury of the raging Flames, as He did for Shadrach, Meſhach, and Abednego, Dan. iii. 25. Am I thrown amongſt the devouring Lions? He can ſtop their Mouths, and make them as harmleſs Lambs, as He did for Daniel, Dan. vi. 22. Am I ready to be ſwallow'd up by the mercileſs Waves of the tempeſtuous Ocean? GOD can command a Fiſh to come and ſhip me ſafe to Land, and that in its own Belly, as He did for His Prophet Jonah, Jon. i. 17. c. ii. 10. Am I in Priſon? GOD can but ſpeak the Word, as He did for S. Peter, and the Chains ſhall immediately fall off, and the Doors fly open, and I ſhall be ſet at Liberty, as he was, Acts xii. 7, 8, 9, 10. And thus, I can have no Wants but GOD can ſupply them, no Doubts but GOD can reſolve them, no Fears but GOD can diſpell them, no Dangers but GOD can prevent them. And 'tis as certain, that He will, as that He can, do theſe things for me, Himſelf having, by Covenant, engag'd and given Himſelf unto me.

And as, in GOD's giving Himſelf, He hath given whatſoever He is, and whatſoever He hath, unto me, and will do whatſoever He can do for me; ſo in my giving myſelf to Him, whatſoever I have I am to give to Him, and whatſoever I do I am to do for Him. But now, tho' we ſhou'd thus give ourſelves up wholly to GOD, and do whatever He requires of us, (which none, I fear, without ſome Degree of Preſumption, can ſay he has done) yet there is an infinite Diſproportion betwixt the Grant on GOD's part, and that on ours, in that He is GOD, and we but Creatures, the Workmanſhip of His own Hands, to whom it was our Duty to give ourourſelves, whether He had ever given Himſelf to us or no: He is ours by Covenant only, not by Nature; we are His both by Covenant and Nature too.

HENCE we may inferr, That it is not only our Duty to do what He hath commanded us, becauſe He hath ſaid, Do this and live; but becauſe He hath ſaid do this; yea, tho' He ſhould ſay, Do this and die, it would ſtill be our Duty to do it, becauſe we are His, wholly of His Making, and therefore wholly at His Diſpoſing; Inſomuch that ſhould He put me upon doing that which would inevitably bring Ruin upon me, I am not to neglect obeying Him for fear of deſtroying myſelf, His Will and Pleaſure being infinitely to be preferred before my Life and Salvation.

BUT, if it were my Duty to obey His Commands, tho' I ſhould die for it, how much more, when He hath promiſed, I ſhall live by it? Nay, I ſhall not only live, if I obey; but my Obedience itſelf ſhall be my Life and Happineſs; for if I be obedient unto Him, He is pleaſed to account Himſelf as glorified by me; for herein is my Father glorified, if ye bring forth much Fruit, John xv. 8. Now, what greater Glory can poſſibly be deſired, than to glorify my Maker? How can I be more glorify'd by GOD, than to have GOD glo-glorified by me? It is the Glory of GOD to glorify Himſelf; and what higher Glory can a Creature aſpire after, than that which is the infinite Glory of its All-glorious Creator? It is not, therefore, my Duty only, but my Glory, to give myſelf, and whatſoever I am, unto Him, to glorify Him both in my Body and in my Spirit, which are His, 1 Cor. vi. 20. to lay out whatſoever I have for Him, to honour Him with all my Subſtance, Prov. iii. 9. and whether I eat or drink, or whatſoever I do, to do all to His Glory, 1 Cor. x. 31. Not as if it was poſſible for GOD to receive more Glory from me now, than He had in Himſelf from all Eternity. No; He was infinitely glorious then, and 'tis impoſſible for Him to be more glorious now; all that we can do, is duly to acknowledge that Glory which He hath in Himſelf, and to manifeſt it, as we ought, before others; which, tho' it be no Addition to His Glory, yet it is the Perfection of ours, which He is pleaſed to account as His.

As for the Grant, therefore, in the Covenant of Grace, I believe it to be the ſame on our parts, with that in the Covenant of Works, i. e. That we Chriſtians are as much bound to obey the Commands He lays upon us now, as the Jews under the Old Covenant were. What Difference ference there is, is wholly and ſolely on GOD's part; who, inſtead of expecting Obedience from us, is pleas'd, in this new Covenant, to give this Obedience to us. Inſtead of ſaying, Do this and live, He hath, in effect, ſaid, I will enable you to do this, that ſo you may live. I will put My Laws into your Minds, and write them in your Hearts; and I will be to you a GOD, and you ſhall be to Me a People, Heb. viii. 10. Not, I will, if you will; but, I will, and you ſhall. Not, if you will do this, you ſhall live; but, you ſhall do this, and live. So that GOD doth not require leſs from us, but only hath promiſed more to us, in the New, than He did in the Old Covenant. There, we were to perform Obedience to GOD, but it was by our own Strength: Here, we are to perform the ſame Obedience ſtill, but 'tis by His Strength. Nay, as we have more Obligations to Obedience upon us now, than we had before, by reaſon of GOD's expreſſing more Grace and Favour to us than formerly He did; ſo, I believe, GOD expects more from us, under the New, than He did under the Old Covenant. In that, He expected the Obedience of Men; in this, He expects the Obedience of Chriſtians, ſuch as are by Faith united unto CHRIST, and, in CHRIST, unto unto Himſelf; and ſo, are to do what they do, not by the Strength of Man, as before, but by the Strength of the eternal GOD Himſelf; who, as He at firſt created me for Himſelf, ſo He hath now purchaſed me to Himſelf, received me into Covenant with Him, and promiſed to enable me with Grace to perform that Obedience He requires from me; and, therefore, He now expects I ſhould lay out myſelf, even whatſoever I have or am, wholly for Him and His Glory.

THIS, therefore, being the Tenor of this Covenant of Grace, it follows, that I am now none of my own, but wholly GOD's: I am His by Creation, and His by Redemption, and, therefore, ought to be His by Converſation. Why, therefore, ſhould I live any longer to myſelf, who am not mine own, but GOD's? And why ſhould I grudge to give myſelf to Him, who did not grudge to give Himſelf for me? or rather, Why ſhould I ſteal myſelf from Him, who have already given myſelf to Him? But did I ſay, I have given myſelf to my God? Alas! it is but the reſtoring myſelf to Him, whoſe I was ever ſince I had a Being, and to whom I am ſtill infinitely more engaged, that I can thus cordially engage myſelf to Him; for, as I am not my own, but His, ſo

the very Giving of myſelf to Him, is not from myſelf, but from Him. I could not have given myſelf to Him, had He not firſt given Himſelf to me, and even wrought my Mind into this Reſolution of giving myſelf to Him.

But, having thus ſolemnly, by Covenant, given myſelf to Him, how doth it behove me to improve myſelf for Him? My Soul is His, my Body His, myParts His, my Gifts His, my Graces His, and whatſoever is mine, is His; for, without Him I cou'd not have been, and, therefore, cou'd have had nothing. So that I have no more cauſe to be proud of any thing I have, or am, than a Page hath to be proud of his fine Cloaths, which are not his, but his Maſter's; who beſtows all this Finery upon him, not for his Page's Honour or Credit, but for his own.

And thus it is with the beſt of us, in reſpect of GOD; He gives Men Parts, and Learning, and Riches, and Grace, and deſires and expects, that we ſhou'd make a due Uſe of them: But to what End? Not to gain Honour and Eſteem to ourſelves, to make us proud and haughty, but to give Him the Honour due to His Name; and ſo employ them as Inſtruments in promoting His Glory and Service. So that, whenſoever we do not lay out ourſelves to the utmoſt utmoſt of our Power for Him, it is downright Sacrilege; 'tis robbing GOD of that which is more properly His, than any Man in the World can call any thing he hath his own.

HAVING, therefore, thus wholly ſurrender'd and given up myſelf to GOD, ſo long as it ſhall pleaſe His Majeſty to entruſt me with myſelf, to lend me my Being in the lower World, or to put any thing elſe into my Hands, as Time, Health, Strength, Parts, or the like; I am reſolved, by His Grace, to lay out all for His Glory. All the Faculties of my Soul, as I have given them to Him, ſo will I endeavour to improve them for Him; they ſhall ſtill be at His moſt Noble Service; my Underſtanding ſhall be His, to know Him; my Will His, to chooſe Him; my Affections His, to embrace Him; and all the Members of my Body ſhall act in Subſerviency to Him.

AND thus, having given myſelf to GOD on Earth, I hope GOD, in a ſhort time, will take me to Himſelf in Heaven; where, as I gave myſelf to Him in Time, He'll give Himſelf to me unto all Eternity.

Article X.

I believe, that as GOD enter'd into a Covenant of Grace with us, ſo hath He ſign'd this Covenant to us by a double Seal, Baptiſm, and the Lord's Supper.

AS the Covenant of Works had two Sacraments, viz. The Tree of Life, and The Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil; the firſt ſignifying and ſealing Life and Happineſs to the Performance, the other Death and Miſery to the Breach of it: So the Covenant of Grace was likewiſe ſeal'd with two Typical Sacraments, Circumciſion, and the Paſſover. The Former was annex'd at GOD's firſt making His Covenant with Abraham's Perſon; the Other was added, at his fulfilling the Promiſes of it, to his Seed or Poſterity, which were, therefore, ſtyl'd, The Promiſed Seed. But theſe being only Typical of the true and Spiritual Sacraments, that were afterwards to take Place upon the Coming of the Meſſiah, there was then, in the Fulneſs of Time, two other Sacraments ſubſtituted ſtituted in their ſtead, viz. Baptiſm, and the Supper of the Lord. And theſe Sacraments were both correſpondent to the Types by which they were repreſented.

As to the firſt, viz. Circumciſion, whether I conſider the Time of conferring it, or the End of its Inſtitution, I find it exactly anſwers to the Sacrament of Baptiſm, in both theſe Reſpects. For, as the Children under the Law were to be circumcis'd in their Infancy, at eight Days old; ſo are the Children under the Goſpel to be baptized in their Infancy too. And as the principal thing intended in the Rite of Circumciſion, was to initiate or admit the Children of the Faithful into the Jewiſh Church; ſo the chief Deſign of Baptiſm now, is to admit the Children of ſuch as profeſs themſelves Chriſtians into the Church of CHRIST. And, for this Reaſon, I believe, that as, under the Old Teſtament, Children had the Grant of Covenant-Privileges, and Church-Membership, as really as their Parents had; ſo this Grant was not repeal'd, as is intimated, Acts ii. 39. but farther confirm'd in the New Teſtament, in that the Apoſtle calls the Children of believing Parents Holy, 1 Cor. vii. 14. Which cannot be underſtood of a real and inherent, but only of a relative and covenanted Holineſs, by vertue vertue of which, being born of believing Parents, themſelves are accounted in the Number of Believers, and are therefore call'd Holy Children under the Goſpel, in the ſame Senſe that the People of Iſrael were call'd a Holy People under the Law, Deut. vii. 6. and cap. xiv. 2, 21. as being all within the Covenant of Grace, which, through the Faith of their Parents, is thus ſeal'd to them in their Baptiſm.

NOT that I think it neceſſary, that all Parents ſhou'd be endu'd with what we call a Saving Faith, to entitle their Children to theſe Privileges, (for then, none but the Children of ſuch who have the Spirit of CHRIST truly implanted in them, wou'd be qualify'd to partake of the Covenant) but even ſuch, who, by an outward hiſtorical Faith, have taken the Name of CHRIST upon them, are, by that means, in Covenant with GOD, and ſo accounted Holy in reſpect of their Profeſſion, whatever they may be in point of Practice. And if they are themſelves Holy, it follows, on courſe, that their Children muſt be ſo too, they being eſteem'd as Parts of their Parents, till made diſtinct Members in the Body of CHRIST; or, at leaſt, till they come to the Uſe of their Reaſon, and the Improvement of their Natural Abilities.

And, therefore, tho' the Seal be changed, yet the Covenant-Privileges, wherewith the Parties ſtipulating unto GOD were before inveſted, are no whit alter'd or diminiſh'd; Believers Children being as really Confederates with their Parents, in the Covenant of Grace now, as they were before under the Jewiſh Adminiſtration of it. And this ſeems to be altogether neceſſary; for otherwiſe, Infants ſhould be inveſted with Privileges under the Type, and be depriv'd of, or excluded from them, under the more perfect Accompliſhment of the ſame Covenant in the thing typify'd; and ſo, the Diſpenſations of GOD's Grace would be more ſtreight and narrow ſince, than they were before the Coming of our Saviour, which I look upon to be no leſs than Blaſphemy to aſſert.

And, upon this ground, I believe, it is as really the Duty of Chriſtians to baptize their Children now, as ever it was the Duty of the Iſraelites to circumciſe theirs; and, therefore, S. Peter's Queſtion, Can any Man forbid Water, that theſe ſhould not be baptized, who have received the Holy Ghoſt as well as we? Acts x. 47. may very properly be apply'd to this Caſe. Can any one forbid Water, that Children ſhould not be baptized, who are in Covenant with the moſt High GOD as well as we?

For

For what is it, I pray, that the Right to Baptiſm doth depend upon? Surely, not upon performing the Conditions of the Covenant; for then none ſhould be baptiz'd, but ſuch as are true Believers in themſelves, and known to be ſo by us, and, by conſequence, none at all; it being only GOD's Prerogative to ſearch their Hearts, and to know the Truth of that Grace, which Himſelf hath been pleas'd to beſtow upon them. But Children's Right to Baptiſm is grounded upon the outward Profeſſion of their Believing Parents; ſo that, as a King may be crown'd in his Cradle, not becauſe he is able to wield the Scepter, or manage the Affairs of his Kingdom, but becauſe he is Heir to his Father; ſo here, Children are not therefore baptized, becauſe they are able to perform the Conditions of the Covenant, which is ſeal'd to them, but becauſe they are Children to Believing Parents. And this ſeems to be yet farther evident, from the very Nature of Seals, which are not adminiſtred or annex'd to any Covenant, becauſe the Conditions are already perform'd, but rather, that they may be perform'd; and ſo Children are not baptized, becauſe they are already true Chriſtians, but that they may be ſo hereafter.

As for a Command for Infant-Baptiſm, I believe, that the ſame Law that enjoin'd Circumciſion to the Jewiſh, enjoins Baptiſm likewiſe to Chriſtian Children, there being the ſame Reaſon for both. The Reaſon why the Jewiſh Children were to be circumciſed, was, becauſe they were Jewiſh Children, born of ſuch as profeſs'd the true Worſhip of GOD, and were in Covenant with Him; and there is the ſame Reaſon, why Chriſtian Children are to be baptized, even becauſe they are Chriſtian Children, born of ſuch as profeſs the true Worſhip of the ſame GOD, and are Confederates in the ſame Covenant with the Jews themſelves. And, as there is the ſame Reaſon, ſo likewiſe the ſame End for both, viz. That the Children might be actually admitted into the ſame Covenant with their Parents, and have it viſibly confirm'd to them by this initiating Seal put upon them: So that Circumciſion and Baptiſm are not two diſtinct Seals, but the ſame Seal diverſly apply'd; the one being but as a Type of the other, and ſo to give place to it, whenſoever, by the Inſtitution of CHRIST, it ſhould be brought into the Church of GOD. And, therefore, the Command for initiating Children into the Church by Baptiſm, remains ſtill in Force, tho' Circumcumciſion, which was the Type and Shadow of it, be done away. And for this Reaſon, I believe, that was there never a Command in the New Teſtament for Infant-Baptiſm, yet, ſeeing there is one for Circumciſion in the Old, and for Baptiſm, as coming into the place of it, in the New, I ſhould look upon Baptiſm as neceſſarily to be apply'd to Infants now, as Circumciſion was then.

But why ſhou'd it be ſuppos'd, that there is no Command in the New Teſtament for Infant-Baptiſm? There are ſeveral Texts that ſeem to imply its being practis'd in the firſt Preaching of the Goſpel, as particularly in the Caſe of Lydia, and the Keeper of the Priſon, Acts xvi. 15, 33. who had their whole Families baptiz'd; and we no where find, that Children were excepted. On the contrary, S. Peter exhorting the Converted Jews to be baptiz'd, makes uſe of this Argument to bring them to it, For the Promiſe, ſays he, is unto you, and to your Children, Acts ii. 38, 39. which may as reaſonably be underſtood of their Infants, as of their adult Poſterity. But, beſides, it was the expreſs Command of Christ to His Diſciples, that they ſhou'd go and teach all Nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt, Matt. xxviii. 19.

The Meaning of which Words I take to be this; Go ye, and preach the Gospel amongst all Nations, and endeavour thereby to bring them over to the embracing of it; that leaving all Jewish Ceremonies and Heathenish Idolatries, they may profess My Name, and become My Disciples, receive the Truth, and follow Me; which if they do, I charge you to baptize them in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost: For the Word μαθητευσατε doth not signify to teach, but to make Disciples, denoting the same here, that μαθητὰς ποιεῖν doth upon the like Occasion, John iv. 1.

And this is the Sense that all the ancient Translations agree in; nor, indeed, will the Text itself bear any other; especially, not that of Teaching; for though the Apostles should have taught all Nations, yet they were not presently to baptize them, unless they became Disciples, and Professors of the Doctrine that they were taught. A Man may be taught the Doctrine of the Gospel, and yet not believe it; and even tho' he should believe, yet unless he openly professes his Faith in it, he ought not presently to be baptiz'd. For, without this outward Profession, the very Possessing of Christ cannot entitle a Man to this Privilege before before Men, tho' it doth before GOD; becauſe we cannot know how any one ſtands affected towards CHRIST, but only by his outward Profeſſion of Him. 'Tis the inward Poſſeſſion of CHRIST's Perſon that entitles us to the inward ſpiritual Grace; but 'tis the outward Profeſſion of His Name only, that entitles us to the outward viſible Sign in Baptiſm; So that a Man muſt, of Neceſſity, be a profeſs'd Diſciple of the Goſpel, before he can be admitted into the Church of CHRIST. And hence it is, that the Words muſt neceſſarily be underſtood of diſcipling, or bringing the Nations over to the Profeſſion of the Chriſtian Religion; or elſe, we muſt ſuppoſe, what ought not to be granted, that our Saviour muſt command many that were viſible Enemies to His Croſs, to be receiv'd into His Church; for many of the Jews were taught and inſtructed in the Doctrine of the Goſpel, who, notwithſtanding, were inveterate Enemies unto CHRIST. They were taught, that He was the Meſſiah, and Saviour of the World, and that whoſoever believed in Him, ſhould not periſh, but have everlaſting Life; and they had all the Reaſon in the World to be convinc'd of it: yet, I hope, there is none will ſay, that the bare Knowledge of, or tacit Aſſent unto, theſe things, are a ſufficient ground for their Reception into the Church.

NOW, as it was in the Jewiſh Church, when any one became a Proſelyte, not only himſelf, but whatſoever Children he afterwards had, were to be circumciſed; ſo in the Church of CHRIST, whenſoever any Perſon is brought over into the Profeſſion of the Chriſtian Religion, his Seed are all equally inveſted with the outward Privileges of it with himſelf, tho' they be not as yet come to Years of Diſcretion, nor able, of themſelves, to make their Profeſſion of that Religion they are to be receiv'd and baptiz'd into. For, ſo long as Children are in their Infancy, they are (as I before obſerv'd) look'd upon as Parts of their Parents, and are therefore accounted Holy, by the outward Profeſſion which their Parents, under whom they are comprehended, make of it: And, in this Senſe, 1 Cor. viii. 14. the unbelieving Husband is ſaid to be ſanctified by the believing Wife, and the unbelieving Wife by the believing Husband; that is, Man and Wife being made one Fleſh, they are denominated, from the better part, Holy, and ſo are their Children too.

AND hence it is, that I verily believe, that in the Commiſſion which our Saviour

our gave to His Apoſtles, to diſciple and baptize all Nations, He meant, that they ſhould preach the Goſpel in all Nations, and thereby bring over all Perſons of Underſtanding and Diſcretion to the Profeſſion of His Name, and, in them, their Children; and ſo engraft both Root and Branch into Himſelf, the true Vine, by baptizing both Parents and Children in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt.

THE main Objection againſt this is, That Infants are not in a Capacity either to learn and underſtand their Duty in this Covenant, or to ſtipulate and promiſe for their future Performance of the Conditions of it. But this Difficulty is eaſily removed, when I conſider, that 'tis not by vertue of their own Faith or Knowledge, but that of their Parents, that they are admitted to this Sacrament; nor is it requir'd, that they ſhou'd ſtipulate or promiſe in their own Perſons, but by their Godfathers or Sponſors, who enter into this Engagement for them, and oblige them, when they come of Age, to take it upon themſelves; which accordingly they do. And this Engagement, by Proxy, does as effectually bind them to the Performance of the Conditions, as if they were actually in a Capacity to have ſtipu-ſtipulated for themſelves, or ſeal'd the Covenant in their own Perſons. For theſe ſpiritual Signs or Seals are not deſign'd to make GOD's Word ſurer to Us, but only to make our Faith ſtronger in Him; nor are they of the Subſtance of the Covenant, but only for the better Confirmation of it.

AND, as Baptiſm thus comes in the place of the Jews Circumciſion, ſo doth Our Lord's Supper anſwer to Their Paſſover. Their Paſchal Lamb repreſented our Saviour CHRIST, and the Sacrificing of it the Shedding of His Blood upon the Croſs; and as the Paſſover was the Memorial of the Iſraelites Redemption from Egypt's Bondage, Exod. xii. 14. ſo is the Lord's Supper the Memorial of our Redemption from the Slavery of Sin, and Aſſertion into Chriſtian Liberty: Or rather, It is a ſolemn and lively Repreſentation of the Death of CHRIST, and Offering it again to GOD, as an Atonement for Sin, and Reconciliation to His Favour.

SO that, I believe, this Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, under the Goſpel, ſucceeds to the Rite of Sacrificing under the Law, and is properly call'd the Chriſtian Sacrifice, as repreſenting the Sacrifice of CHRIST upon the Croſs. And the End of both both is the ſame: For, as the Sacrifices, under the Law, were deſign'd as a Propitiation or Atonement for Sins, by transferring the Puniſhment from the Offerer, to the thing Offer'd, which is therefore call'd, The accurſed thing, as we read Lev. xvii. 11. So, under the Goſpel, we are told, That it was for this End that our Saviour dy'd, and ſuffer'd in our ſtead, that He might obtain the Pardon of our Sins, and reconcile us to His Father, by laying the Guilt of them upon His own Perſon. And accordingly, He ſays of Himſelf, that He came to give His Life a Ranſom for many, Matt. xx. 28. And S. Paul tells us, 2 Cor. v. 21. that He was made Sin for us, who knew no Sin.

And as the End of both Inſtitutions was the ſame, ſo they were both equally extended. The Paſchal Lamb was offer'd for all the Congregation of Iſrael, and ſo is the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to be adminiſter'd to all the Faithful People in Christ, that do not exclude themſelves from it. And, for this Reaſon, I believe, That as all the Congregation of Iſrael was to eat the Paſſover, ſo is all the Society of Chriſtians to receive the Lord's Supper; thoſe only to be excepted, who are altogether ignorant of the Nature of that Covenant it ſeals, or openly and ſcandalouſly dalouſly guilty of the Breach of the Conditions it requires.

But why, ſay ſome, ſhou'd there be any Exception? Did not Christ die for all Mankind? And is not that Death ſaid to be a full, perfect, and ſufficient Sacrifice, Oblation, and Satisfaction for the Sins of the whole World? All this is true, but it does not, from hence, follow, that all Men muſt be actually ſav'd and abſolv'd from their Sins, by vertue of His Death. No, 'tis only they, who apply to themſelves the Merits of His Paſſion, by partaking duly of this Holy Sacrament, which is the proper Means by which theſe Bleſſings are convey'd to us, whereby we are ſeal'd to the Day of Redemption. I ſay duly, becauſe tho' this Sacrament was ordain'd for all, yet all will not make themſelves worthy of it; and thoſe that are not ſo, are ſo far from reaping any Benefit from it, that, as the Apoſtle ſays, they eat and drink their own Damnation, not diſcerning the Lord's Body, 1 Cor. xi. 29. And, therefore, I believe, That as in the Inſtitution of the Paſſover, there were ſome particular Duties and Ceremonies enjoin'd for the better Solemnization of it; ſo there are ſome Preparatory Duties and Qualifications neceſſarily requir'd for the Celebration of the Lord's Sup- per, which, before I presume to partake of it, I must always use my utmost Endeavours to exercise myself in. And these are,

First, That I shou'd examine, confess, and bewail my Sins before GOD, with a true Sense of, and Sorrow for, them; and taking firm Resolutions for the time to come utterly to relinquish and forsake them, solemnly engage myself in a new and truly Christian Course of Life.

Secondly, That I shou'd be in perfect Charity with all Men, i. e. That I shou'd heartily forgive those who have any ways injur'd or offended me; and make Restitution or Satisfaction to such whom I have, in any respect, injur'd or offended myself. And then,

Thirdly, That I shou'd, with an humble and obedient Heart, exercise the Acts of Faith, and Love, and Devotion, during the Celebration of that Holy Mystery; and express the Sense I have of this Mystery, by devout Praises and Thanksgivings for the great Mercies and Favours that GOD vouchsafes to me therein; and by all the Ways and Measures of Charity that He has prescrib'd, manifest my Love and Beneficence to my Christian Brethren.

THESE are the proper Graces, this the Wedding Garment that every true Chriſtian, who comes to be a Gueſt at this Holy Supper, ought to be cloath'd and inveſted with.

DO Thou, O Bleſſed JESUS! adorn me with this Holy Robe, and inſpire my Soul with ſuch Heavenly Qualities and Diſpoſitions as theſe; and then I need not fear, but that as oft as I eat the Fleſh of CHRIST, and drink His Blood, I ſhall effectually obtain the Pardon and Remiſſion of my Sins, the ſanctifying Influences of His Holy Spirit, and a certain Intereſt in the Kingdom of Glory!

See, farther, Treatiſe of the Sacrament.

ARTICLE XI.

I believe, that after a ſhort Separation, my Soul and Body ſhall be united together again, in order to appear before the Judgment-Seat of CHRIST, and be finally ſentenc'd according to my Deſerts.

I KNOW, this Body, which, for the preſent, I am ty'd to, is nothing elſe, but a Piece of Clay, made up into the Frame and Faſhion of a Man; and, therefore, as it was firſt taken from the Duſt, ſo ſhall it return to Duſt again: But, then, I believe, on the other hand, that it ſhall as really be rais'd from the Earth, as ever it ſhall be carry'd to it; yea, tho' perhaps it may go through a hundred, or a thouſand Changes, before that Day come. There are, I confeſs, ſome Points in this Article, which are hardly to be ſolv'd by Humane Reaſon; but, I believe, there are none ſo difficult, but what may be reconcil'd by a Divine Faith: Tho' it be too hard for me to know, yet it is not too hard for GOD to do. He that ſhould have told me, ſome Years ago, that my Body then was, or ſhould be, a Mixture of Par-

Particles fetch'd from ſo many Parts of the World, and undergo ſo many Changes and Alterations, as to become in a manner new, ſhou'd ſcarce have extorted the Belief of it from me, tho' now I perceive it to be a real Truth; the Meats, Fruits, and Spices, which we eat, being tranſported from ſeveral different Places and Nations, and, by Natural Digeſtion, tranſfus'd into the Conſtitution of the Body. And why ſhou'd not I believe, that the ſame Almighty Power, who made theſe ſeveral Beings, or Particles of Matter, by which I am fed and ſuſtain'd, can as eaſily, with His Word, recall each Part again from the moſt ſecret, or remote Place, that it can poſſibly be tranſported to? Or, That He who fram'd me out of the Duſt, can, with as much Eaſe, gather all the ſcatter'd Parts of the Body, and put them together again, as He at firſt form'd it into ſuch a Shape, and infus'd into it a Spiritual Being?

And this Article of my Faith, I believe, is not only grounded upon, but may, even by the Force of Reaſon, be deduced from, the Principles of Juſtice and Equity; Juſtice requiring, that they who are Copartners in Vice and Vertue, ſhould be Copartners alſo in Puniſhments and Rewards. There is ſcarce a Sin a Man commits, mits, but his Body hath a Share in it; for tho' the Sin committed would not be a Sin without the Soul, yet it could not be committed without the Body; the Sinfulneſs of it depends upon the former, but the Commiſſion of it may lawfully be charg'd upon the latter: The Body could not ſin, if the Soul did not conſent; nor could the Soul ſin (eſpecially ſo oft) if the Body did not tempt to it. And this is particularly obſervable in the Sins of Adultery, Drunkenneſs, and Gluttony, which the Soul, of itſelf, cannot commit, neither would it ever conſent unto them, did not the prevalent Humours of the Body, as it were, force it to do ſo. For in theſe Sins, the Act that is ſinful, is wholly perform'd by the Body, tho' the Sinfulneſs of that Act doth principally depend upon the Soul.

Neither is the Body only Partner with the Soul in theſe groſſer Sins, but even the more ſpiritual Sins, which ſeem to be moſt abſtracted from the Temperature of the Body, as if they depended only upon the Pravity and Corruption of the Soul; I ſay, even theſe are partly to be aſcrib'd to the Body. For Inſtance, an Atheiſtical Thought, which, one would think, was to be laid only upon the Soul, becauſe the Thought takes its Riſe from thence; yet if we ſeriouſly weigh and conſider the Matter, we ſhall find, that it is uſually the ſinful Affections of the Body that thus debauch the Mind into theſe Blaſphemous Thoughts; and that it is the Pleaſures of Senſe that firſt ſuggeſt them to us, and raiſe them in us. And this appears, in that there is no Perſon that ever was, or indeed ever can be, an Atheiſt at all times; but ſuch Thoughts ſpring up in the Fountain of the Soul, only when mudded with fleſhly Pleaſures. And thus it is in moſt other Sins; the carnal Appetite having gotten the Reins into its Hand, it miſleads the Reaſon, and hurries the Soul whereſoever it pleaſeth. And what, then, can be more reaſonable, than that the Body ſhould be puniſh'd, both for its uſurping the Soul's Prerogative, and for its tyrannizing ſo much over that, which, at the firſt, it was made to be ſubject to?

But farther, it is the Body that enjoys the Pleaſure, and, therefore, good Reaſon, that the Body ſhould likewiſe bear the Puniſhment of Sin. Indeed, I cannot conceive, how it can ſtand with the Principles of Juſtice, but that the Body, which both accompanies the Soul in Sin, enjoys the Pleaſures of it, and leads the Soul into it, ſhould bear a Share in the Miſeries which are due to, and inflicted upon, it.

For

For what doth Juſtice require, but to puniſh the Perſon that offends for the Offence he commits? Whereas, if the Soul only, and not the Body, were to ſuffer, the Perſon would not ſuffer at all; the Body being Part of the Perſon as well as the Soul, and, therefore, the Soul no Perſon without the Body.

HENCE it is, That tho' the Scripture had been ſilent in this Point, yet methinks, I could not but have believ'd it: How much more firm and ſtedfaſt, then, ought I to be in my Faith, when Truth itſelf hath been pleas'd ſo expreſly to affirm it? For thus ſaith the Lord of Hoſts, Thy dead Men ſhall live, together with My dead Body ſhall they ariſe, Iſa. xxvi. 19. And many of them that ſleep in the Duſt of the Earth ſhall awake, ſome to everlaſting Life, and ſome to Shame and everlaſting Contempt, Dan. xii. 2. And thus ſaith the Saviour of the World, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life; the Hour is coming, in which all that are in the Graves ſhall hear His Voice, and ſhall come forth, they that have done Good, unto the Reſurrection of Life; and they that have done Evil, unto the Reſurrection of Damnation, John v. 28, 29. The ſame hath it pleas'd His Divine Majeſty to aſſert and prove with His own Mouth, Matth. xxii. 31, 32. and by His Spirit,

2 Cor. xv. and in many other Places: From all which, I may, with Comfort and Confidence, draw the ſame Concluſion that Holy Job did, and ſay, I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He ſhall ſtand at the latter Day upon the Earth; and tho' after my Skin, Worms deſtroy this Body, yet in my Fleſh ſhall I ſee GOD; whom I ſhall ſee for myſelf, and mine Eyes ſhall behold, and not another, though my Reins be conſumed within me, Job. xix. 25, 26, 27.

And, as I believe my Body ſhall be thus rais'd from the Grave, ſo I believe the other Part of me, my Soul, ſhall never be carry'd to it; I mean, it ſhall never die, but ſhall be as much, yea, more alive, when I am dying, than it is now; by ſo much my Soul ſhall be the more active in itſelf, by how much it is leſs tied and ſubjected to the Body.

And farther I believe, That ſo ſoon as ever my Breath is out of my Noſtrils, my Soul ſhall remove her Lodging into the other World, there to live as really to Eternity, as I now live here in Time. Yea, I am more certain, that my Soul ſhall return to GOD that gave it, than that my Body ſhall return to the Earth, out of which I had it. For I know, 'tis poſſible my Body may be made immortal, but I am ſure, my Soul ſhall never be

mortal. I know, that, at the firſt, the Body did equally participate of Immortality with the Soul, and that had not Sin made the Divorce, they had liv'd together, like loving Mates, to all Eternity. And I dare not affirm, that Enoch and Elias underwent the common Fate; or, ſuppoſe they did, yet, ſure I am, the Time will come, when thouſands of Men and Women ſhall not be diſſolv'd and die, but be immediately chang'd and caught up into Heaven, or, to their eternal Confuſion, thruſt down into Hell; whoſe Bodies, therefore, ſhall undergo no ſuch thing as Rotting in the Grave, or being Eaten up of Worms, but, together with their Souls, ſhall immediately launch into the vaſt Ocean of Eternity. But who ever yet read or heard of a Soul's Funeral? Who is it? Where is the Man? or, What is his Name, that wrote the Hiſtory of her Life and Death? Can any Diſeaſe ariſe in a Spiritual Subſtance, wherein there is no ſuch thing as Contrariety of Principles or Qualities to occaſion any Diſorder or Diſtemper? Can an Angel be ſick, or die? And, if not an Angel, why a Soul, which is endow'd with the ſame ſpiritual Nature here, and ſhall be adorn'd with the ſame eternal Glory hereafter? No, no; deceive not thyſelf, my Soul; for 'tis more certain, that Thou ſhalt always live, than that thy Body ſhall ever die.

Not that I think my Soul muſt always live, in deſpight of Omnipotence itſelf, as if it was not in the Power of the Almighty, to take my Being and Exiſtence from me; for I know, I am but as a Potſhard in the Potter's Hand, and that it is as eaſy for Him to daſh me in pieces now, as it was to raiſe it up at the firſt. I believe, it is as eaſy for Him to command my Soul out of its Being, as out of its Body; and to ſend me back into my Mother Nothing, out of whoſe Womb He took me, as it was at firſt to fetch me thence. I know, He could do it, if He would, but Himſelf hath ſaid, He will not, and, therefore, I am ſure, He cannot do it; and that, not becauſe He hath not Power, but becauſe He hath not Will to do it; it being impoſſible for Him to do that which He doth not will to do. And, that it is not His Will or Pleaſure ever to annihilate my Soul, I have it under His own Hand, that my Duſt ſhall return to the Earth as it was, and my Spirit to GOD that gave it, Eccleſ. xii. 7. And if it return to GOD, it is ſo far from returning to Nothing, that it returns to the Being of all Beings; and ſo, Death to me will be nothing more, than going home to my my Father and Mother; my Soul goes to my Father, GOD, and my Body to my Mother, Earth.

THUS, likewiſe, hath it pleas'd His Sacred Majeſty to aſſure me, that if our earthly Houſe of this Tabernacle were diſſolv'd, we have a Building of GOD, an Houſe not made with Hands, eternal in the Heavens, 2 Cor. v. 1. ſo clearly hath the great GOD brought Life and Immortality to Light, through the Goſpel, 2 Tim. i. 10. The Light of Nature ſhews, the Soul can never periſh or be diſſolv'd, without the immediate Interpoſition of GOD's Omnipotence, and we have His own Divine Word for it, that He will never uſe that Power, in the Diſſolution of it. And, therefore, I may, with the greateſt Aſſurance, affirm and believe, that as really as I now live, ſo really ſhall I never die; but that my Soul, at the very Moment of its Departure from the Fleſh, ſhall immediately mount up to the Tribunal of the moſt High GOD, there to be judg'd, firſt privately, by itſelf, (or perhaps with ſome other Souls, that ſhall be ſummon'd to appear before GOD the ſame Moment:) And then, from theſe private Seſſions, I believe, that every Soul that ever was, or ſhall be, ſeparated from the Body, muſt either be receiv'd into the Manſions of Heaven, or else sent down to the Dungeon of Hell, there to remain till the Grand Assizes, the Judgment of the Great Day, when the Trumpet shall sound, and the Dead shall be rais'd incorruptible, and we shall be chang'd, 1 Cor. xv. 52. And when our Bodies, by the Word of the Almighty GOD, shall be thus call'd together again, I believe, that our Souls shall be all prepar'd to meet them, and be united again to them, and so both appear before the Judgment-Seat of CHRIST, to receive Sentence according to what they have done in the Flesh, whether it be Good, or whether it be Evil. And, tho' it is very difficult, or rather impossible, for me to conceive or determine the particular Circumstances of this Grand Assize, or the Manner and Method how it shall be manag'd, yet from the Light and Intimations that GOD has vouchsafed to give us of it, I have Grounds to believe, it will be order'd and carry'd on after this, or the like manner.

THE Day and Place being appointed by the King of Kings, the glorious Majesty of Heaven, and Saviour of the World, JESUS CHRIST, who long ago receiv'd His Commission from the Father, to be the Judge of Quick and Dead, Joh. v. 22. Acts xvii. 31. shall descend from Heaven, Heaven, with the Shout of the Archangel, and with the Trump of GOD, 1 Theſſ. iv. 16. royally attended with an innumerable Company of glorious Angels, Matt. xxv. 31. Theſe He ſhall ſend with the great Sound of a Trumpet, and they ſhall gather together His Elect from the four Winds, from the one End of Heaven to the other, cap. xxiv. 31. yea, and the Wicked too, from whatſoever Place they ſhall be in; and then ſhall He ſever the Wicked from the Juſt, Matt. xiii. 49. So that all Nations, and every particular Perſon, that ever did, or ever ſhall, live upon the Face of the Earth, ſhall be gather'd together before Him, and He ſhall ſeparate the one from the other, as a Shepherd divideth his Sheep from the Goats, and He ſhall ſet the Sheep on His Right Hand, but the Goats upon the Left, Matt. xxv. 32, 33.

THINGS being thus ſet in Order, the Judge ſhall read His Commiſſion, i. e. declare and manifeſt Himſelf to be the Judge of all the Earth, ſent by the GOD of Heaven, to judge Them that had condemn'd Him, and, in that very Body, that once was crucified upon the Croſs at Jeruſalem, for our Sins. So that all the World ſhall then behold Him ſhining in all His Glory and Majeſty, and ſhall acknowledge Him to be now, what they would would not believe Him to be before, even both GOD and Man, and ſo the Judge of all the World, from whom there can be no Appeal.

AND having thus declar'd His Commiſſion, I believe, the firſt Work He will go upon, will be to open the Book of GOD's Remembrance, and to cauſe all the Indictments to be read, that are there found on Record againſt thoſe on His Right Hand; but behold, all the Black Lines of their Sins being blotted out with the Red Lines of their Saviour's Blood, and nothing but their Good Works, their Prayers, their Sermons, their Meditations, their Alms, and the like, to be found there; the righteous Judge, before whom they ſtand, turning Himſelf towards them, with a ſerene and ſmiling Countenance, will declare to them, before all the World, that their Sins are pardon'd, and their Perſons accepted by Him, as having believ'd in Him; and, therefore, will He immediately proceed to pronounce the happy Sentence of Election upon them, ſaying, Come, ye Bleſſed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the Foundation of the World.

THE Sentence being thus pronounc'd, the Righteous (and I hope myſelf among the reſt) ſhall go up with Shouts of Joy and and Triumph, to ſit with our Bleſſed Redeemer, to judge the other Parts of the World, who ſtand at the Left-hand of the Tribunal, with ghaſtly Countenances and trembling Hearts, to receive their laſt and dreadful Doom. Againſt theſe, all the Sins that ever they committed, or were guilty of, ſhall be brought up in Judgment againſt them, as they are found on Record in the Book of GOD's Remembrance, and the Indictment read againſt every particular Perſon, high or low, for every particular Sin, great or ſmall, which they have committed.

AND the Truth of this Indictment ſhall be atteſted by their own Conſciences, crying, Guilty, Guilty: I ſay, by their own Conſciences, which are as a thouſand Witneſſes; yea, and by the Omniſcience of GOD too, which is as a thouſand Conſciences. And, therefore, without any farther Delay, ſhall the Judge proceed to pronounce the Sentence, the doleful Sentence of Condemnation upon them, Depart, ye Curſed, into everlaſting Fire, prepared for the Devil and his Angels.

THIS, I believe, or ſuch like, will be the Method of CHRIST's Proceeding with us in that great and terrible Day of Tryal and Retribution.

OH!

O H! may these awful Thoughts and Ideas of it, always accompany me, and strike such a deep and lively Impression upon my Heart, in every Action of Life, as to deter me from offending this Just and Almighty Being, in whose Power it is, to destroy both Body and Soul in Hell; and engage me in such a regular, strict, and conscientious Course of Life, as to be always ready, whenever He shall please to summon me, to give in my Accounts at the grand Audit, and, with a Holy Assurance, fly for Mercy and Succour into the Hands of my Redeemer, and be permitted to enter into the Joys of His Rest!

Article XII.

I believe, there are two other Worlds, beſides this I live in; a World of Miſery for unrepenting Sinners, and a World of Glory for believing Saints.

WHEN Death hath open'd the Cage of Fleſh, wherein the Soul is penn'd up, whither it flies, or how it ſubſiſts, I think it not eaſy to determine, or indeed to conceive. As for the Platonick Aerial and Ætherial Vehicles, ſucceeding this Terreſtrial one, I find neither Mention of, nor Warrant for them, in the Word of GOD. And, indeed, to ſuppoſe that a Spiritual Subſtance cannot ſubſiſt of itſelf, without being ſupported by a Corporeal Vehicle, is, in my Opinion, too groſs a Conceit for any Philoſopher, much more for one that profeſſes himſelf a Divine, to advance or entertain. Only this I am ſure of, that according to the Diſtinction of Lives here into good or bad, and the Sentences paſs'd upon all hereafter, of Abſolution or Condemnation, there will be a twofold Receptacle for the Souls of Men, the one of Happineſs, the other of Miſery.

As to the firſt, I believe, that at the great and general Aſſizes of the World, there will be a glorious Entrance open'd for the Righteous into the Holy of Holies, the Seat and Fountain of all Bliſs and Happineſs, where they ſhall draw nigh to the moſt High GOD, behold His Preſence in Righteouſneſs, and reign with Him for ever in Glory, where they ſhall ſee Him Face to Face, 1 Cor. xiii. 12. and know Him the only true GOD, and JESUS CHRIST whom He has ſent, John xvii. 3. And this Knowing and Beholding GOD Face to Face is, I believe, the very Heaven of Heavens, even the higheſt Happineſs that it is poſſible a Creature ſhould be made capable of: For in having a perfect Knowledge of GOD, we ſhall have a perfect Knowledge of all things that ever were, are, ſhall, yea, or can be, in the World. For GOD being the Being of all Beings, in ſeeing Him, we ſhall not only ſee whatſoever hath been, but whatſoever can be communicated from Him. The Contemplation of which, cannot but raviſh and tranſport my Spirit beyond itſelf; eſpecially, when I conſider, that in knowing this One-All-things, GOD, I cannot but enjoy whatſoever 'tis poſſible any any Creature ſhould enjoy. For the Knowing of a thing is the Soul's Enjoyment of it; the Underſtanding being to the Soul, what the Senſes are to the Body. And, therefore, as the Body enjoys nothing but by its Senſes, ſo neither doth the Soul enjoy any thing but by its Underſtanding: And, as the Body is ſaid to have whatſoever affects its proper Senſes, ſo may the Soul be ſaid to have whatſoever comes under its Knowledge. Nay, the Soul ſo far hath what it knows, that, in a manner, it is what it knows; itſelf being, in a ſpiritual manner, enlarged, according to the Extent of the Objects which it knows, as the Body is by the Meat it eats; the Truths we know turning into the Subſtance of our Souls, as the Meat we eat doth into the Subſtance of our Bodies.

But Oh! what a rare Soul ſhall I then have, when it ſhall be extended to every thing that ever was, or ever could have been! What a happy Creature ſhall I then be, when I ſhall know, and ſo enjoy Him that is all things in Himſelf! What can a Creature deſire more? yea, What more can a Creature be made capable of enjoying or deſiring? And that which will always accompany this our Knowledge and Enjoyment, is, perfect Love to what we enjoy and know, without which we

we ſhould take Pleaſure in nothing, tho' we ſhould have all things to take Pleaſure in. But, who will be able not to love the chiefeſt Good, that knows and enjoys Him, and therefore enjoys Him becauſe he knows Him? Queſtionleſs, in Heaven, as I ſhall enjoy whatſoever I can love, ſo ſhall I love whatſoever I enjoy. And this, therefore, I believe to be the Perfection of my Happineſs, and the Happineſs of my Perfection, in the other World; that I ſhall perfectly know and love, and ſo, perfectly enjoy and rejoice in the moſt High GOD; and ſhall be, as known, ſo perfectly loved and rejoiced in by Him. And, queſtionleſs, for all our ſhallow Apprehenſions and low Eſtimations of theſe things now, they cannot chooſe but be vaſt and unconceivable Pleaſures, too great for any Creature to enjoy, whilſt here below.

If we have but the leaſt Drop of theſe Pleaſures diſtill'd into us here upon Earth, how ſtrangely do they make us, as it were, beſides ourſelves, by lifting us above ourſelves! If we can but at any time get a Glympſe of GOD, and of His Love to us, how are we immediately carried beyond all other Pleaſures and Contentments whatſoever! How apt are we to ſay, with Peter, It is good for us to be here! And, if the Fore-Taſtes of the Bleſſings of Canaan, if the dark Intimations of GOD's Love to us, be ſo unſpeakably pleaſant, ſo raviſhingly delightſome, Oh! What will the full Poſſeſſion of Him be! What tranſporting Extaſies of Love and Joy ſhall thoſe bleſſed Souls be poſſeſſed with, who ſhall behold the King of Glory ſmiling upon them, rejoicing over them, and ſhining forth in all His Love and Glory upon them! Oh! what aſtoniſhing Beauty will they then behold! What flowing, what refreſhing Pleaſures, ſhall then ſolace and delight their Spirits, unto all Eternity! Pleaſures! far greater than I am able either to expreſs or conceive, much leſs to enjoy, on this ſide Heaven! My Faculties are now too narrow and ſcanty for ſuch an Entertainment; and, therefore, till they are ſpiritualiz'd and enlarg'd, they can't receive it! This is the Portion only of another World, this the Crown of Righteouſneſs, which the Lord the Righteous Judge reſerves in Heaven for me, and which, at His ſecond Coming, He has promis'd to beſtow upon me, and not upon me only, but upon all them alſo that love His Appearing!

As to the other State, viz. That of the Wicked in another Life, I believe, it will be as exquiſitely miſerable and wretched, as that of the Righteous is happy and glorious: They will be driven for ever from the Preſence of the Lord, from thoſe bright and bleſſed Regions above, where CHRIST ſits at the Right Hand of GOD, to thoſe dark and diſmal Dungeons below, where the Devil and his Angels are for ever doom'd to be tormented.

WHAT Sort of Torments or Puniſhments they are there to undergo, I am as unable to expreſs, as I am unwilling ever to experience; but, according to the Notions which Scripture and Reaſon give me of theſe Matters, I believe, they will be twofold, viz. 1. Privative, and, 2. Poſitive, i. e. The Wicked will not only be depriv'd of all that is good and happy, but actually condemn'd to all that is evil and miſerable; and that in the moſt tranſcendent Degree.

THE firſt Part of their Puniſhment will conſiſt in envious, melancholy, and ſelf-condemning Reflexions upon their having defeated and deprived themſelves, not only of their carnal Mirth and ſenſual Enjoyments, their Friends, Fortunes, and Eſtates in this World, but alſo of all the infinite Joys and Glories of the next, the Preſence of GOD, the Society of Saints and Angels, and all the refreſhing and raviſhing Delights which flow from

from the Fruition of the chiefeſt Good: And what adds yet farther to their Anguiſh and Remorſe, is, that they have loſt the very Hopes of ever regaining any of theſe Enjoyments!

Oh! how infinitely tormenting and vexatious muſt ſuch a Condition be, which at once gives them a View both of the greateſt Happineſs, and the greateſt Miſery, without the leaſt Hopes either of recovering the one, or being deliver'd from the other! How muſt they tear, torment, and curſe themſelves, for their former Follies; and, too late, wiſh that they had been ſtifled in the Womb, or drown'd in the Font which was to be their ſecond Birth!

And, if the bare Privation of Heaven and Happineſs be ſo miſerable and tormenting, how will it rack their Conſciences, and fill their Souls with Horror and Amazement, to behold the Eternal GOD, the Glorious Jehovah, in the Fierceneſs of His Wrath, continually threatning to pour out His Vengeance upon them! How much more, when He poſitively conſigns them over to the Power of the Devil, to execute his Judgment in full Meaſure! when they are gnaw'd upon by the Worm of their own Conſciences, feel the Wrath of the Almighty flaming in their Hearts, and Fire and Brimſtone their continual Torture! And all this, without the leaſt Allay or Mixture of Refreſhment, or the leaſt Hopes of Ending or Ceſſation!

In a word, when they have nothing elſe to expect but Miſery for their Portion, Weeping and Wailing for their conſtant Employment, and the Devil and Damn'd Fiends their only Companions to all Eternity! And this is that World of Miſery, which all that will not be perſuaded to believe in Christ here, muſt be doom'd for ever to live in hereafter!

I know, the Subjects of this Article were never the Objects of my Sight, tho' they are of my Faith. I never yet ſaw Heaven or Hell, the Places I am now ſpeaking of; but why ſhou'd my Faith be ſtagger'd or diminiſh'd becauſe of that? I never ſaw Rome or Conſtantinople; I never ſaw the flaming Sicilian Hill Ætna; yet I can believe, there is ſuch a burning Mountain, and ſuch glorious Cities; becauſe others, who have been there, have told me ſo; and faithful Writers have related and deſcrib'd them to me. And ſhall I believe my Fellow Worms, and not my great Creator, who is Truth itſelf? What tho' I never did ſee the New Jeruſalem that is above, nor the flaming Tophet that is below; yet, ſince GOD Himſelf hath both related and deſcrib'd them to me, why ſhould I doubt of them? Why ſhould not I, a thouſand times ſooner, believe them to be, than if I had ſeen them with mine own Eyes? I cannot ſo much believe, that I have now a Pen in my Hand, have a Book before me, and am writing in it, as I do and ought to believe, that I ſhall, one Day, and that e'er long, be either in Heaven, or in Hell; in the Height of Happineſs, or the Depth of Miſery.

I KNOW, my Senſes are fallible, and, therefore, may deceive me; but my GOD, I am ſure, cannot. And, therefore, let others raiſe Doubts and Scruples as they pleaſe, I am as fully ſatisfy'd and convinc'd of the Truth of this Article, as any of the reſt.

Do Thou, O my GOD, keep me ſtedfaſt in this Faith, and give me Grace ſo to fit and prepare myſelf to appear before Thee, in the white Robes of Purity and Holineſs in another World, that whenever my Diſſolution comes, I may chearfully reſign my Spirit into the Hands of my Creator, and Redeemer; and, from this crazy Houſe of Clay, take my Flight into the Manſions of Glory, where CHRIST ſits at the Right Hand of GOD; and, with the joyful Quire of Saints, and Angels, and the Bleſſed Spirits of juſt Men made perfect, chant forth Thy Praiſes to all Eternity!

RESOLUTIONS

Form'd from the foregoing

ARTICLES.

AS Obedience without Faith is impoſſible, ſo Faith without Obedience is vain and unprofitable: For, as the Body, ſays S. James, without the Spirit, is dead, ſo Faith, without good Works, is dead alſo, James ii. 26. Having, therefore, I hope, laid a ſure Foundation, by reſolving what, and how, to believe, I ſhall now, by the Grace of GOD, reſolve ſo to order my Converſation, in all Circumſtances and Conditions of Life, as to raiſe a good Superſtructure upon it, and to finiſh the Work GOD has given me to do, i. e. ſo to love and pleaſe GOD in this World, as to enjoy and be happy with Him for ever, in the next. And, 'tis abſolutely neceſſary, that

I shou'd be speedy and serious in these Resolutions; especially, when I reflect with myself, how much of my Time I have already spent upon the Vanities and Follies of Youth, and how much enhanced and increas'd this Work, by acquir'd Guilt, by settled and repeated Habits of Sin, which are not, without great Difficulty, to be aton'd for, and remov'd. My Heart, alas! is now more harden'd in Iniquity, more puff'd with Pride, and more averse from GOD, than when I first enter'd into Covenant with Him: And I have added many actual Sins and Provocations to my Original Guilt and Pollution; instead of glorifying GOD, I have dishonour'd Him; and, instead of working out my own Salvation, I have taken a Pleasure and Delight in such things, as wou'd, in the End, be my Ruin and Destruction. So that, before I can be able to make any Progress in the Duties of Religion, or walk in the Paths that lead to Life, I must first be freed and disentangled from these Weights and Incumbrances that clog and detard me in my Spiritual Course; I must have my Heart cleans'd and soften'd, humbled and converted to GOD, and all my Transgressions purged and pardon'd by the Merits of my Redeemer. And then, being fully persuaded, that there is no way for me to come to the Joys of Heaven, but by walking according to the ſtricteſt Rules of Holineſs upon Earth, I muſt endeavour, for the future, by a thorow Change and Reformation of my Life, to act in Conformity to the Divine Will and Pleaſure in all things, and perfect Holineſs in the Fear of the Lord: For, the moſt High has told me, in His Word, that without Holineſs no Man ſhall ſee the Lord.

In order, therefore, to qualify myſelf for this Happineſs, it will be neceſſary for me to ſettle firm and ſteady Reſolutions, to fulfill my Duty, in all the ſeveral Branches of it, to GOD, my Neighbour, and myſelf; and to take care, theſe Reſolutions be put in Practice, according to the following Method.

Resolution I.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to walk by Rule; and, therefore, think it neceſſary, to reſolve upon Rules to walk by.

AND this the rather, becauſe I perceive, the Want of ſuch Rules has been the Occaſion of all, or moſt of my Miſcarriages. For, what other Reaſon can I aſſign to myſelf, for having trifled and ſinn'd away ſo much Time, as I have done in my younger Years, but becauſe I did not throughly reſolve to ſpend it better? What is the Reaſon, I have hitherto liv'd ſo unſerviceably to GOD, ſo unprofitably to others, and ſo ſinfully againſt my own Soul; but becauſe I did not apply myſelf, with that Sincerity of Reſolution, Diligence, and Circumſpection, as a Wiſe Man ought to have done, to diſcharge my Duty in theſe Particulars? I have, indeed, often reſolv'd to bid adieu to my Sins and Follies, and enter upon a new Courſe of Life; but theſe Reſolutions being not rightly form'd upon ſteady Principles, the firſt Temptation made way for a Relapſe, and the Bleſsed are all they that fear the Lord and walk in his Ways. Pſalm. 128. vers. 1.

the ſame Bait that firſt allur'd me, has no ſooner been thrown in my way, but I have been as ready to catch at it again, and as greedy to ſwallow it, as ever. At other times, again, I have acted without any Thought or Reſolution at all; and then, tho' ſome of my Actions might be good in themſelves, yet, being done by chance, without any true Deſign or Intention, they cou'd not be imputed to me as good, but rather the quite contrary: So that, in this reſpect, the Want of Reſolution has not only been the Occaſion of my ſinful Actions, but the Corruption of my good ones too. And ſhall I ſtill go on in this ſame looſe and careleſs manner, as I have formerly done? No, I now reſolve with myſelf, in the Preſence of the moſt High and Eternal GOD, not only, in general, to walk by Rule, but to fix the Rule I deſign to walk by; ſo that, in all my Thoughts, and Words, and Actions, in all Places, Companies, Relations, and Conditions, I may ſtill have a ſure Guide at hand to direct me, ſuch a one as I can ſafely depend upon, without any Danger of being deceiv'd or miſled, i. e. the Holy Scripture. And, therefore,

Resolution II.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to make the Divine Word the Rule of all the Rules I propoſe to myſelf.

AS the Will of GOD is the Rule and Meaſure of all that is good, ſo there is nothing deſerves that Name, but what is agreeable and conformable thereto: And this Will being fully reveal'd and contain'd in the Holy Scripture, it will be neceſſary for me, in directing my Courſe over the Ocean of this World, that I ſhou'd fix my Eye continually upon this Star, ſteer by this Compaſs, and make it the only Land-mark, by which I am to be guided to my wiſh'd-for Haven. I muſt not, therefore, have Recourſe to the inward Workings of my own roving Fancy, or the corrupt Dictates of my own carnal Reaſon; Theſe are but blind Guides, and will certainly lead me into the Ditch of Error, Hereſy, and Irreligion, which, in theſe our ſelf-admiring Days, ſo many poor Souls have been plunged in. Alas! how many hath the impetuous Torrent of blind Zeal and erroneous Conſcience, borne down into a Will-

Will-Worſhip, and voluntary Subjection of themſelves to the ſpurious Offspring of their own deluded Fancies! If the Light that is within them doth but dictate any thing to be done; or rather, if the Whimſy doth but take them, that they muſt do thus or thus, they preſently ſet about it, without ever conſulting the Sacred Writings, to ſee whether 'tis acceptable to GOD, or diſpleaſing to Him. Whereas, for my own part, I know not how any thing ſhould be worthy of GOD's Accepting, that is not of GOD's Commanding. I am ſure, the Word of GOD is the good old Way that will certainly bring me to my Father's Houſe; for how ſhould that Way but lead me to Heaven, which Truth itſelf has chalk'd out for me? Not as if it was neceſſary, that every one of my Reſolutions ſhould be contain'd, Word for Word, in the Holy Scriptures; 'tis ſufficient, that they be imply'd in, and agreeable thereto. So that, tho' the Manner of my Expreſſions may not be found in the Word of GOD, yet the Matter of my Reſolutions may clearly be drawn from thence. But let me dive a little into the Depth of my ſinful Heart! What's the Reaſon of my thus reſolving upon ſuch an exact Conformity to the Will and Word of GOD? Is it to work work my Way to Heaven with mine own Hands? to purchase an Inheritance in the Land of Canaan, with the Price of my own Holiness and Religion? or to swim over the Ocean of this World, into the Haven of Happiness, upon the empty Bladders of my own Resolutions? No:

Resolution III.

I am resolv'd, That as I am not able to think or do any thing that is Good, without the Influence of the Divine Grace; so I will not pretend to merit any Favour from GOD, upon Account of any thing I do for His Glory and Service.

AND indeed, I may very well put this Resolution amongst the rest; for should I resolve to perform my Resolutions by mine own Strength, I might as well resolve never to perform them at all: For Truth itself, and mine own woful Experience, hath convinc'd me, That I am not able, of myself, so much as to think a good a good Thought: And how, then, ſhall I be able, of myſelf, to reſolve upon Rules of Holineſs, according to the Word of GOD, or to order my Converſation according to theſe Reſolutions, without the Concurrence of the Divine Grace? Alas! ſhould the Great GOD be pleaſed to leave me to myſelf, to reſolve upon what is agreeable to my corrupt Nature, what ſtrange kind of Reſolutions ſhould I make? What ſhould I reſolve upon? Certainly, only nothing but to gratify my carnal Appetite with ſenſual and ſinful Pleaſures, to indulge myſelf in Riot and Exceſs, to ſpend my Time, and ravel out my Parts and Talents, in the Revels of Sin and Vanity. But now, to live holily, righteouſly, and godlily in this preſent World, to deny my own, that I may fulfill the Will of GOD; alas! ſuch Reſolutions as theſe would never ſo much as come into my Thoughts, much leſs would they diſcover themſelves in my outward Converſation.

But, ſuppoſe I ſhould be able to make good Reſolutions, and fulfill them exactly in my Life and Actions; yet, What ſhou'd I do more than my Duty? And what ſhould I be eſteem'd of, for doing that? Alas! this is ſo far from puffing me up, that I am verily perſuaded, ſhould I ſpend all my Time, my Parts, my Strength, my Gifts, Gifts, for GOD, and all my Estate upon the Poor; should I water my Couch continually with my Tears, and fast my Body into a Skeleton; should I employ each Moment of my Life in the immediate Worship of my Glorious Creator; so that all my Actions, from my Birth to my Death, should be but one continued Act of Holiness and Obedience; In a word, should I live like an Angel in Heaven, and die like a Saint on Earth, yet I know no truer, nor should I desire any better Epitaph to be engraven upon my Tomb, than this, Here lies an unprofitable Servant. No, no; 'tis CHRIST, and CHRIST alone, that my Soul must support itself upon. It is Holiness, indeed, that is the Way to Heaven; but there is none, none but CHRIST can lead me to it. As the worst of my Sins are pardonable by CHRIST, so are the best of my Duties damnable without Him.

BUT if so, then whither tend my Resolutions? Why so strict, so circumspect a Conversation? Why, 'tis to justify that Faith before others, and mine own Conscience, which, I hope, thro' CHRIST, shall justify my Soul before GOD. And I believe farther, That the Holier I live here, the Happier I shall live hereafter; For tho' I shall not be sav'd for my Works, yet yet I believe, I ſhall be ſav'd according to them. And thus, as I dare not expect to be ſav'd by the Performance of my Reſolutions, without CHRIST's Merit, ſo neither do I ever expect to be enabled to perform my Reſolutions, without His Spirit aſſiſting me therein.

NO; 'tis Thyſelf, my GOD, and my Guide, that I wholly and ſolely depend upon! Oh! for Thine own Name's Sake, for Thy Son's Sake, and for Thy Promiſe Sake, do Thou both make me to know what Thou would'ſt have me to do, and then help me to do what Thou would'ſt have me to know! Teach me firſt what to reſolve upon, and then enable me to perform my Reſolutions; that I may walk with Thee in the Ways of Holineſs here, and reſt with Thee in the Joys of Happineſs hereafter!

Concerning my Converſation in general.

HAVING thus far determin'd in general, to form Reſolutions for the better regulating of my Life, I muſt now deſcend to Particulars, and ſettle ſome Rules with myſelf, to reſolve my future Life and Converſation wholly into Holineſs and Religion. I know, this is a hard Task to do; but I am ſure, 'tis no more than what my GOD and my Father has ſet me: Why, therefore, ſhould I think much to do it? Shall I grudge to ſpend my Life for Him, who did not grudge to ſpend His own Blood for me? Shall not I ſo live, that He may be glorify'd on Earth, who died, that I might be glorify'd in Heaven? Eſpecially, conſidering, that if my whole Life could be ſublimated into Holineſs, and moulded into an exact Conformity unto the Will of the moſt High, I ſhould be happy beyond Expreſſion? Oh! what a Heaven ſhould I then live on Earth! What Raviſhments of Love and Joy would my Soul be continually poſſeſs'd with! Well; I am reſolv'd, by the

the Grace of GOD, to try; And to that end, do, this Morning, wholly sequester and set myself apart for GOD, resolving, by the Assistance of His Grace, to make all and every Thought, Word, and Action, to pay their Tribute unto Him. Let This Man mind his Profit, a Second his Pleasures, a Third his Honours, a Fourth Himself, and All their Sins; I am resolv'd to mind and serve my GOD, so as to make Him the Alpha and Omega, the first and the last of my whole Life. And, that I may always have an exact Copy before me, to write and frame every Letter of this my Life by,

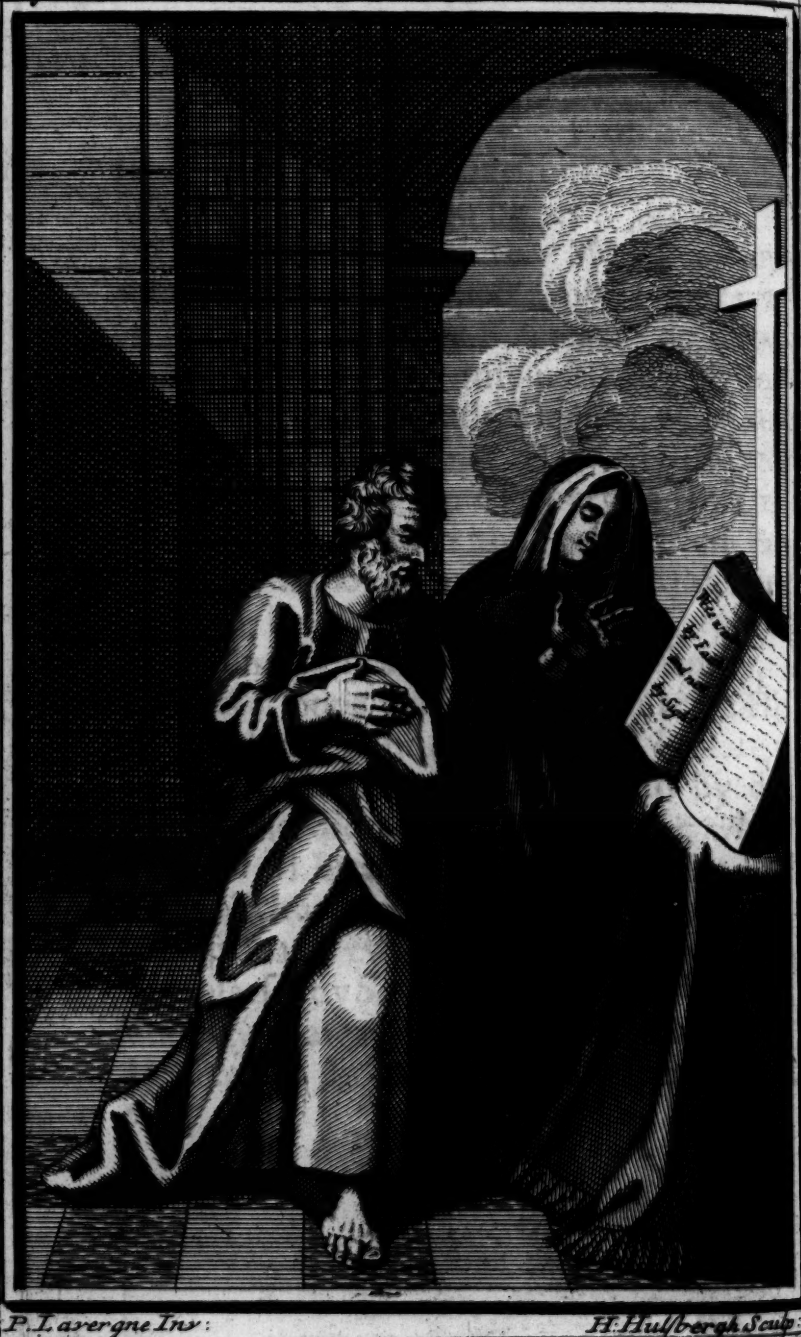

Resolution I.

I am resolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to make Christ the Pattern of my Life here, that so Christ may be the Portion of my Soul hereafter.

LET the whole World go whither it will, I am resolv'd to walk in the Steps that my Saviour went in before me: I shall endeavour, in all Places I come into, in all Companies I converse with, in all the Duties I undertake, in all the Miseries I undergo, still to behave myself as my Saviour would do, was He in my Place. So that whereſoever I am, or whatſoever I am about, I ſhall ſtill put this Queſtion to myſelf, Would my Saviour go hither? Would He do this or that? And, every Morning, conſider with myſelf, Suppoſe my Saviour was in my ſtead, had my Buſineſs to do, how would He demean Himſelf this Day? How meek and lowly would He be in His Carriage and Deportment? How circumſpect in His Walking? How ſavoury in His Diſcourſe? How heavenly in all, even His earthly Employments? Well; and I am reſolv'd, by Strength from Himſelf, to follow Him as near as poſſible. I know, I can never hope perfectly to tranſcribe His Copy, but I muſt endeavour to imitate it in the beſt Manner I can, that ſo by doing as He did in Time, I may be where He is to all Eternity. But, alas! His Life was Spiritual, and I am Carnal, ſold under Sin; and every petty Object that doth but pleaſe my Senſes, will be apt to divert and draw away my Soul from following His Steps. In order, therefore, to prevent this,

Resolution II.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to walk by Faith, and not by Sight, on Earth, that ſo I may live by Sight, and not by Faith, in Heaven.

AND truly, this Reſolution is ſo neceſſary to the Performance of all the reſt, that without it I can do nothing, with it I can do every thing that is required. The Reaſon why I am ſo much taken with the Garniſh and ſeeming Beauty of this World's Vanities, ſo as to ſtep out of the Road of Holineſs to catch at, or delight myſelf in them, is only becauſe I look upon them with an Eye of Senſe. For could I behold every thing with the Eye of Faith, I ſhould judge of them, not as they ſeem to me, but as they are in themſelves, Vanity and Vexation of Spirit. For, Faith has a quick and piercing Eye, that can look through the outward Superficies, into the inward Eſſence of Things. It can look through the pleaſing Bait to the hidden Hook, view the Sting, as well as the Honey, the everlaſting Puniſhment, as well as the temporal Contentment there is in Sin. It is, as the Apoſtle ſtle very well defines it, the Subſtance of Things hoped for, and the Evidence of Things not ſeen, Heb. xi. 1. 'Tis the Subſtance of whatſoever is promiſed by GOD to me, or expected by me from Him: So that, by Faith, whatſoever I hope for in Heaven, I may have the Subſtance of upon Earth: And 'tis the Evidence of Things not ſeen, the Preſence of what is abſent, the clear Demonſtration of what wou'd otherwiſe ſeem impoſſible; ſo that I can clearly diſcern, as through a Proſpective, hidden Things, and Things afar off, as if they were open, and juſt at hand. I can look into the deepeſt Myſteries, as fully reveal'd, and ſee Heaven and Eternity as juſt ready to receive me.

And, Oh! could I but always look thro' this Glaſs, and be conſtantly upon the Mount, taking a View of the Land of Canaan, what Dreams and Shadows would all things here below appear to be? Well; by the Grace of GOD, I am reſolv'd no longer to tye myſelf to Senſe and Sight, the ſordid and trifling Affairs of this Life, but always to walk as one of the other World, to behave myſelf in all Places, and at all Times, as one already poſſeſs'd of my Inheritance, and an Inhabitant of the New Jeruſalem: By Faith aſſuring myſelf, I have but a few more Days to live below, a little more

Work

Work to do; And then I ſhall lay aſide my Glaſs, and be admitted to a nearer Viſion and Fruition of GOD, and ſee Him Face to Face.

By this means, I ſhall always live, as if I was daily to die; always ſpeak, as if my Tongue, the next Moment, were to cleave to the Roof of my Mouth; and continually order my Thoughts and Affections in ſuch a manner, as if my Soul were juſt ready to depart, and take its Flight into the other World. By this means, whatſoever Place I am in, or whatſoever Work I am about, I ſhall ſtill be with my GOD, and demean myſelf ſo, as if, with S. Jerome, I heard the Voice of the Trumpet crying out, Awake, ye Dead, and come to Judgment.

And thus, tho' I am at preſent here in the Fleſh, yet I ſhall look upon myſelf as more really an Inhabitant of Heaven, than I am upon Earth. Here I am but as a Pilgrim or Sojourner, that has no abiding City; but There I have a ſure and everlaſting Inheritance, which Christ has purchas'd and prepar'd for me, and which Faith has given me the Poſſeſſion of. And, therefore, as it is my Duty, ſo will I conſtantly make it my Endeavour, to live up to the Character of a true Chriſtian, whoſe Portion and Converſation is in Heaven, and think it a Diſgrace and Diſparagement to my Profeſſion, to ſtoop to, or entangle myſelf with, ſuch Toys and Trifles, as the Men of the World buſy themſelves about; or to feed upon Husks, with Swine, here below, when it is in my Power, by Faith, to be continually ſupply'd with ſpiritual Manna from Heaven, till at laſt I am admitted to it. And that I may awe my Spirit into the Performance of theſe, and all other my Reſolutions,

Resolution III.

I am reſolved, by the Grace of GOD, always to be looking upon GOD, as always looking upon me.

WHERESOEVER I am, or whatſoever I am a doing, I muſt ſtill conſider the Eye of the Great GOD, as directly intent upon me, viewing and obſerving all my Thoughts, Words, and Actions, and writing them down in the Book of His Remembrance; and that all theſe, unleſs they be waſh'd out with the Tears of Repentance, and croſs'd with the

the Blood of my crucify'd Saviour, muſt ſtill remain on Record, and be brought in Judgment againſt me, at the Great Day. That, therefore, I may always behave myſelf as in His Preſence, it behoves me throughly to conſider, and be perſuaded, not only that my outward Man, but even all the ſecret Thoughts, the inward Motions and Retirements of my Soul, all the ſeveral Windings and Turnings of my Heart, are exactly known and manifeſt, as anatomiz'd before Him. He knows what I am now a thinking, doing, and writing, as well as I do myſelf; yea, He ſees every Word whilſt 'tis in my Heart, before it be brought forth and ſet down. He knows all the Reſolutions I have made, and how often, poor Creature! I have broken them already, ſince I made them.

Upon this Conſideration, I reſolve to ſtand my Ground againſt all Temptations, and whenever I find myſelf in danger to be drawn aſide by them, to oppoſe the Bent of my corrupt Affections, by theſe or the like Queſtions: Am I really in the Preſence of the Almighty, the great Lord of Heaven and Earth, and ſhall I preſume to affront Him to His Face, by doing ſuch things as I know are odious and diſpleaſing to Him? I would not commit Adultery in the Preſence of my Fellow-Creatures, tures, and ſhall I do it in the Preſence of the glorious Jehovah? I would not ſteal in the Sight of an Earthly Judge, and ſhall I do it before the Judge of all the World? If Fear and Shame from Men have ſuch an Influence upon me, as to deterr me from the Commiſſion of Sin, how ought I to be mov'd with the Apprehenſion of GOD's Inſpection, who does not only know my Tranſgreſſions, but will eternally puniſh me for them?

MAY theſe Thoughts and Conſiderations always take Place in my Heart, and be accompany'd with ſuch happy Effects in my Converſation, that I may live with GOD upon Earth, and ſo love and fear His Preſence in this World, that I may for ever enjoy His Glory in the next!

Concerning my Thoughts.

BUT who am I, poor, proud ſinful Duſt and Aſhes, that I ſhould expect ever to live ſo Holy, ſo Heavenly, as is here ſuppos'd! Can Grapes be gather'd from Thorns, or Figs from Thiſtles? Can the Fruit be ſweet, when the Root is bitter? Or the Streams healthful, when the Fountain's poiſon'd? No; I muſt either get me a new and better Heart, or elſe it will be impoſſible for me ever to lead a new and better Life. But how muſt I come by this Pearl of ineſtimable Value, a new Heart? Can I purchaſe it with my own Riches? or find it in my own Field? Can I raiſe it from Sin to Holineſs? from Earth to Heaven? or from Myſelf to GOD? Alas! I have endeavour'd it, but I find, by woful Experience, I cannot attain to it: I have been lifting and heaving again and again, to raiſe it out of the Mire and Clay of Sin and Corruption; but, alas! it will not ſtir: I have rubb'd and chaf'd it with one Threatning after another, and all to

to get Heat and Life into it; but ſtill 'tis as cold and dead as ever: I have brought it to the Promiſes, and ſet it under the Droppings of the Sanctuary; I have ſhewn it the Beauty of CHRIST, and the Deformity of Sin; but yet 'tis a hard and ſinful, an earthly and ſenſual Heart ſtill. What, therefore, ſhall I do with it? O my GOD, I bring it unto Thee! Thou that madeſt it a Heart at firſt, canſt only make it a new Heart now! O do Thou purify and refine it, and renew a right Spirit within me! Do Thou take it into Thy Hands, and, out of Thine Infinite Goodneſs, new mould it up, by Thine own Grace, into an exact Conformity to Thine own Will? Do Thou but give me a New Heart, and I ſhall promiſe Thee, by Thy Grace, to lead a New Life, and become a New Creature! Do Thou but clear the Fountain, and I ſhall endeavour to look to the Streams that flow from it! which that I may be able to do, with the better Succeſs,

Resolution I.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to watch as much over the inward Motions of my Heart, as the outward Actions of my Life.

FOR, my Heart, I perceive, is the Womb, in which all Sin is firſt conceiv'd, and from which, my Saviour tells me, proceed evil Thoughts, Adulteries, Fornications, Murders, Thefts, Covetouſneſs, Wickedneſs, Deceit, Laſciviouſneſs, an evil Eye, Blaſphemy, Pride, Fooliſhneſs, Mar. vii. 21, 22. So that, as ever I would prevent the Commiſſion of theſe Sins in my Life, I muſt endeavour to hinder their Conception in my Heart, following the Wiſe Man's Counſel, to keep my Heart with all Diligence, becauſe out of it are the Iſſues of Life, Prov. iv. 23. Neither is this the only Reaſon, why I ſhould ſet ſo ſtrict a Watch over my Heart, becauſe ſinful Thoughts lead to ſinful Acts; but becauſe the Thoughts themſelves are ſinful, yea, the very Firſt-born of Iniquity; which tho' Men cannot pry into or diſcover, yet the All-ſeeing GOD knows and obſerves, and remembers them, as well as the greateſt eſt Actions of all my Life. And Oh! what wicked and prophane Thoughts have I formerly entertain'd, not only againſt GOD, but againſt CHRIST, by queſtioning the Juſtice of His Laws, and doubting of the Truth of His Revelation, ſo as to make both His Life and Death of none Effect to me! Which that they may never be laid to my Charge hereafter, I humbly beſeech GOD to pardon and abſolve me from them, and to give me Grace, for the Remainder of my Life, to be as careful of thinking, as of doing well, and as fearful of offending Him in my Heart, as of tranſgreſſing His Laws in my Life and Converſation. To this end,

RESOLUTION II.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to ſtop every Thought, at its firſt Entring into my Heart, and to examine it, whence it comes, and whither it tends.

SO ſoon as ever any new Thought begins to bubble in my Soul, I am reſolv'd to examine, what Stamp it is of, whether it ſpring from the pure Foun-

Fountain of Living Waters, or the polluted Streams of my own Affections; as alſo, which way it tends, or takes its Courſe, towards the Ocean of Happineſs, or the Pit of Deſtruction. And the Reaſon of this my Reſolution, I draw from the Experience I have had of the Devil's Temptations, and the Working of my own Corruptions; by which I find, that there is no Sin I am betray'd into, but what takes its Riſe from my inward Thoughts. Theſe are the Tempters that firſt preſent ſome pleaſing Object to my View, and then biaſs my Underſtanding, and pervert my Will, to comply with the Suggeſtions. So that, tho' the Spirit of GOD is pleas'd to dart a Beam into my Heart at the ſame time, and ſhew me the odious and dangerous Effects of ſuch Thoughts; yet, I know not how or why, I find a prevailing Suggeſtion within, that tells me, 'tis but a Thought, and that ſo long as it goes no farther, it cannot do me much Hurt. Under this ſpecious Colour and Pretence, I ſecretly perſuade myſelf to dwell a little longer upon it; and finding my Heart pleas'd and delighted with its natural Iſſue, I give it a little farther Indulgence, till, at laſt, my Deſire breaks out into a Flame, and will be ſatisfy'd with nothing leſs than the Enjoyment of the Object it is exercis'd upon. And what Water can quench such a raging Fire, as is thus kindled by the Devil, and blown up by the Bellows of my own inordinate Affections, which the more I think of, the more I increase the Flame? How nearly, therefore, does it concern me to take up this Resolution of setting a constant Watch and Guard at the Door of my Heart, that nothing may enter in without a strict Examination? Not as if I could examine every particular Thought that arises in my Heart, for by that means I should do nothing else but examine my Thoughts without Intermission. But this I must do; whensoever I find any Thought that bears the Face or Appearance of Sin, I must throw it aside, with the utmost Abhorrence: And when it comes in Disguise, as the Devil under Samuel's Mantle, or when it is a Thought I never conceiv'd before, and know not but it may be bad, as well as good; then, before I suffer it to settle upon my Spirits, I must examine, as well as I can, whether it be sent from Heaven or Hell, and what Message it comes about, and what will be the Issue of it. And thus, by the Divine Assistance, I shall let nothing into my Heart, but what will bring me nearer to my GOD, and set me at a greater Diſtance from the Evil and Puniſhment of Sin. Neither do I think it my Duty only to be ſo watchful againſt ſuch Thoughts as are in themſelves ſinful; but,

Resolution III.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to be as fearful to let in vain, as careful to keep out ſinful Thoughts.

I Do not look upon vain Thoughts as only tending to Sin, but as in themſelves ſinful; for that which makes Sin to be Sin, is the Want of Conformity to the Will of GOD; and that vain Thoughts are not conformable and agreeable to the Divine Will, appears, in that GOD Himſelf, by the Mouth of His Royal Prophet, expreſly ſaith, I hate vain Thoughts, Pſal. cxix. 113. Again, vain Thoughts are therefore ſinful, becauſe they have in them nothing that can denominate them good: For as, in a Moral Senſe, there is never a particular individual Act, ſo neither ther is there any particular Thought, but what is either good or bad, in ſome reſpect or other. There is not a Moment of my Life, but 'tis my Duty either to be thinking, or ſpeaking, or doing Good; ſo that whenſoever I am not thus employ'd, I come ſhort of my Duty, and, by Conſequence, am guilty of Sin.

But what are theſe vain Thoughts I am thus reſolving againſt? Why, all Wandrings and Diſtractions in Prayer, or in Hearing the Word of GOD; all uſeleſs, trifling, and impertinent Thoughts, that do not belong to, nor further, the Work I am about, the grand Affair of my Salvation, may properly be call'd Vain Thoughts. And, alas! What Swarms of theſe are continually crowding into my Heart? How have I thought away whole Hours together, about I know not what Chimeras, whereof one ſcarce ever depends upon another: Sometimes entertaining myſelf with the Pleaſures of Senſe, as Eating and Drinking, and ſuch-like earthly Enjoyments; ſometimes building Caſtles in the Air, and clambering up to the Pinacle of Wealth and Honour, which I am not half way got up to, but down I fall again into a Fool's Paradiſe?

Or, if I chance, at any time, to think a good while upon one thing, it is juſt to as much purpoſe as the Man's Thoughts were, which I have ſometimes heard of, and ſmil'd at, who having an Egg in his Hand, by a ſort of Chimerical Climax, improv'd it into an Eſtate; but while he was thus pleaſing himſelf with theſe imaginary Products, down dropt the Egg, and all his Hens, and Cattle, and Houſe, and Land, that he had rais'd from it, vaniſh'd in the Fall. Theſe, and ſuch-like, are the Vain Thoughts that I muſt, for the future, endeavour to avoid; and tho' it will be impoſſible for me wholly to prevent their firſt entring into my Mind, yet I reſolve, by the Grace of GOD, not to harbour or dwell upon, or delight myſelf in them. And then, notwithſtanding they are, in ſome Senſe, ſinful, yet they will not be imputed to me as ſuch, provided I uſe my utmoſt Endeavours to avoid them. Which that I may be the better able to do,

Resolution IV.

I am resolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to be always exercising my Thoughts upon good Objects, that the Devil may not exercise them upon bad.

THE Soul, being a spiritual Substance, is always in Action, and its proper and immediate Act is Thinking, which is as natural and proper to the Soul, as Extension is to the Body: 'Tis that upon which all the other Actings of the Soul are grounded; so that neither our Apprehensions of, nor Affections to, any Object, can be acted without it. And hence it is, that I think the Soul is very properly defined, Substantia cogitans, a Thinking Substance; for there is nothing else but a Spirit can think, and there is no Spirit but always doth think. And this I find, by Experience, to be so true and certain, that if at any time I have endeavour'd to think of Nothing, (as I have sometimes done) I have spent all the time in thinking upon that very Thought.

How

How much, therefore, doth it concern me to keep my Soul in continual Exerciſe upon what is Good? for, be ſure, if I do not ſet it on work, the Devil will; and if it do not work for GOD, it will work for Him: I know, ſinful Objects are more agreeable to a ſinful Soul; but, I am ſure, Holy Thoughts are more conformable to a Holy GOD. Why, therefore, ſhould I ſpend and ravel out my Thoughts upon that which will deſtroy my Soul? No, no; I ſhall henceforth endeavour always to be employing my Thoughts upon ſomething that is Good; and, therefore, to have good Subjects conſtantly at Hand to think upon, [as the Attributes of GOD, the Glory of Heaven, the Miſery of Hell, the Merits of CHRIST, the Corruption of my Nature, the Sinfulneſs of Sin, the Beauty of Holineſs, the Vanity of the World, the Immortality of the Soul, and the like;] and likewiſe to take Occaſion, from the Objects I meet or converſe with in the World, to make ſuch Remarks and Reflexions, as may be for my Advantage and Improvement in my Spiritual Affairs. For, there is nothing in the World, tho' it be never ſo bad, but what I may exerciſe good Thoughts upon: And my Neglect, in this kind, has been the real Occaſion of all thoſe Vain Thoughts that have hitherto possess'd my Soul. I have not kept them close to their Work, to think upon what is Good, and, therefore, they have run out into those Extravagancies, which, by the Blessing of GOD, in the Performance of these Resolutions, I shall endeavour to avoid.

It is, indeed, a singular Advantage of that High and Heavenly Calling, in which the Most High, of His Wisdom and Goodness, has been pleas'd to place me, that all the Objects we converse with, and all the Subjects we exercise our Thoughts upon, are either GOD and Heaven, or something relating to them. So that we need not go out of our common Road to meet with this heavenly Company, Good Thoughts. But then, I do not account every Thought of GOD or Heaven, which only swims in my Brain, to be a Good and Holy Thought, unless it sinks down into my Heart and Affections, i.e. unless to my Meditations of GOD and another World, I join a Longing for Him, a Rejoicing in Him, and a Solacing myself in the Hopes of a future Enjoyment of Him. Neither will this be any Hindrance, but a Furtherance to my Studies; for, as I know no Divine Truths as I ought, unless I know them practically and experimentally; so I never think I have any clear Appre-

Apprehenſions of GOD, till I find my Affections are inflamed towards Him; or that I ever underſtand any Divine Truth aright, till my Heart be brought into Subjection to it.

THIS Reſolution, therefore, extends itſelf, not only to the ſubject Matter of my Thoughts, but alſo to the Quality of them, with regard to Practice, that they may influence my Life and Converſation, that whether I ſpeak, or write, or eat, or drink, or whatſoever I do, I may ſtill ſeaſon all, even my commoneſt Actions, with Heavenly Meditations; there being nothing I can ſet my Hand to, but I may likewiſe ſet my Heart a working upon it. Which, accordingly, I ſhall endeavour, by the Bleſſing of GOD, to do. And, for the better Ordering of my Thoughts,

Resolution V.

I am resolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, so to marshal my Thoughts, that they may not one justle out another, nor any of them prejudice the Business I am about.

MY Soul being by Nature swift and nimble, and by Corruption inordinate and irregular in its Operations, I can never set myself to think upon one thing, but presently another presses in, and another after that, and so on, till by thinking of so many things at once, I can think upon nothing to any purpose. And hence it is, that I throw away thousands of Thoughts each Day for nothing, which, if well managed, might prove very profitable and advantageous to me. To prevent, therefore, this tumultuous, desultory, and useless Working of my Thoughts, as I have already resolv'd to fix and settle my Heart upon necessary, and useful, and good Objects, so, to prevent my Thoughts rolling from one thing to another, or leaping from the Top of one to the Height of another Object, I muſt now endeavour to rank and digeſt them into Order and Method, that they may, for the future, be more ſteady and regular in their Purſuits. I know, the Devil and my own corrupt Nature will labour to break the Ranks, and confound the Order of them; What Stratagem, therefore, ſhall I uſe, to prevent this Confuſion? I ſhall endeavour, by the Grace of GOD, whenſoever I find any idle Thoughts begin to friſk and rove out of the way, to call them in again, and ſet them at work upon one or other of theſe Objects before-mention'd, and to keep them, for ſome time, fix'd and intent upon it; and, conſidering the Relations and Dependencies of one thing upon another, not to ſuffer any foreign Ideas, ſuch, I mean, as are impertinent to the Chain of Thoughts I am upon, to juſtle them out, or divert my Mind another way. No, not tho' they be otherwiſe good Thoughts; for Thoughts in themſelves good, when they crowd in unſeaſonably, are ſometimes attended with very ill Effects, by interrupting and preventing ſome good Purpoſes and Reſolutions, which might prove more effectual for promoting GOD's Glory, the Good of others, and the Comfort of our own Souls.

THESE,

THESE, and such-like, are the Methods by which I design and resolve to regulate my Thoughts: And since I can do nothing without the Divine Assistance, I earnestly beg of GOD to give me such a Measure of His Grace, as may enable me effectually to put these Resolutions in Practice, that I may not think and resolve in vain.

Concerning my Affections.

BUT whilst I am thus ranging my Thoughts, I find something of a Passion or Inclination within me, either drawing me to, or driving me from, every thing I think on; so that I cannot so much as think upon a Thought, but 'tis either pleasing or displeasing to me, according to the Agreeableness or Disagreeableness of the Object it is placed upon, to my Natural Affections. If it comes under the pleasing Dress and Appearance of Good, I readily choose and embrace it; if otherwise, I am as eagerly bent to refuse and reject it. And these two Acts of the Will are naturally founded in those two reigning Passions of the Soul, Love and Hatred, which I cannot but look upon on as the Grounds of all its other Motions and Affections. For what are thoſe other Paſſions of Deſire, Hope, Joy, and the like, but Love in its ſeveral Poſtures? And what elſe can we conceive of Fear, Grief, Abhorrence, &c. but ſo many different Expreſſions of Hatred, according to the ſeveral Circumſtances that the diſpleaſing Object appears to be under. Doth my Underſtanding repreſent any thing to my Will, under the Notion of good and pleaſant? My Will is preſently taken and delighted with it, and ſo places its Love upon it; and this Love, if the Object be preſent, inclines me to embrace it with Joy; if abſent, it puts forth itſelf into Deſire; if eaſy to be attain'd, it comforts itſelf with Hope; if difficult, it arms itſelf with Courage; if impoſſible, it boils up into Anger; if obſtructed, it preſently falls down into Deſpair.

On the other hand, Doth my Underſtanding repreſent any Object to my Will, as evil, or painful, or deformed? How doth it immediately ſhrink and gather up itſelf into a Loathing and Hatred of it! And this Hatred, if the ungrateful Object be preſent, puts on the mournful Sables of Grief and Sorrow; if it be at any diſtance from it, it boils up into Deteſtation and Abhorrence; if ready to fall upon it, it ſhakes for Fear; if difficult to be prevented, it ſtrengthens itſelf with Courage and Magnanimity, either to conquer or undergo it. Theſe Affections, therefore, being thus the conſtant Attendants of my Thoughts, it behoves me as much to look to thoſe, as to the other; eſpecially, when I conſider, that not only my Thoughts, but even my Actions too, are generally determin'd to Good or Bad, accordingly as they are influenc'd by them. That my Affections, therefore, as well as my Thoughts, may be duly regulated,

Resolution I.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, always to make my Affections ſubſervient to the Dictates of my Underſtanding, that my Reaſon may not follow, but guide my Affections.

THE Affections being, of themſelves, blind and inordinate, unleſs they are directed by Reaſon and Judgment, they either move toward a wrong Object, or purſue the right in a wrong Way. And this Judgment muſt be mature and deliberate, berate, ſuch as ariſes from a clear Apprehenſion of the Nature of the Object that affects me, and a thorow Conſideration of the ſeveral Circumſtances that attend it. And great Care muſt be taken, that I do not impoſe upon myſelf by Fancy and Imagination, that I do not miſtake Fancy for Judgment, or the capricious Humours of my roving Imagination, for the ſolid Dictates of a well-guided Reaſon: For, my Fancy is as wild as my Affections; and if the Blind lead the Blind, they will both fall into the Ditch.

And alas! how oft am I deceiv'd in this Manner! If I do but fancy a thing good and lovely, how eager are my Affections in the Purſuit of it? If I do but fancy any thing evil and hurtful to me, how doth my Heart preſently riſe up againſt it, or grieve and ſorrow for it? And this, I believe, hath been the Occaſion of all the Enormities and Extravagancies I have been guilty of, through the whole Courſe of my paſt Life, diveſting me of my Reaſonable Faculties, as to the Acts and Exerciſes of them, and ſubjecting my Soul to the Powers of Senſe, that I cou'd not raiſe my Affections above them. Thus, for Inſtance, I have not lov'd Grace, becauſe my Fancy cou'd not ſee its Beauty; I have not loath'd Sin, becauſe my Fancy cou'd cou'd not comprehend its Miſery; and I have not truly deſir'd Heaven, becauſe my Fancy cou'd not reach its Glory: Whereas if the tranſient Beauty and Luſtre of this World's Vanities, was but preſented to my View, how has my Fancy mounted up to the higheſt Pitch of Pleaſure and Ambition, and inflam'd my Heart with the Deſire of them?

And thus, poor Wretch, have I been carry'd about with the powerful Charms of Senſe, without having any other Guide of my Affections, but what is common to the very Brutes that periſh; Fancy ſupplying that place in the Senſitive, which Reaſon does in the Rational Soul. And, alas! What is this, but, with Nebuchadnezzar, to leave Communion with Men, and herd myſelf with the Flocks of the Beaſts of the Field? And, what a Shame and Reproach is this to the Image of GOD, in which I was created?

Oh! Thou, that art the Author of my Nature, help me, I beſeech Thee, to act more conformably to it, for the time to come; that I may no longer be bewilder'd or miſled by the blind Conduct of my ſtraggling Fancy, this Ignis fatuus, that hurries me over Bogs and Precipices to the Pit of Deſtruction, but that I may bring all my Affections and Actions to the Standard of a clear a clear and ſound Judgment; and let that Judgment be guided by the unerring Light of Thy Divine Word; that ſo I may neither love, deſire, fear, nor deteſt any thing, but what my Judgment, thus form'd, tells me I ought to do!

I KNOW, it will be very hard thus to ſubject my Affections to the Dictates and Commands of my Judgment: But howſoever, it is my Reſolution, this Morning, in the Preſence of Almighty GOD, to endeavour it, and never to ſuffer my Heart to ſettle its Affections upon any Object, till my Judgment hath paſs'd its Sentence upon it. And as I will not ſuffer my Affections to run before my Judgment; ſo, whenever that is determin'd, I ſtedfaſtly reſolve to follow it; that ſo my Apprehenſions and Affections always going together, I may be ſure to walk in the direct Path of God's Commandments, and enter the Gate that leads to Everlaſting Life. And, the better to facilitate the Performance of this General Reſolution, it being neceſſary to deſcend to Particulars;

RESO-

Resolution II.

I am resolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to love GOD, as the best of Goods, and to hate Sin, as the worst of Evils.

AS GOD is the Center of our Concupiscible Affections, so Sin is the Object of those we call Irascible: And the Affections of Love and Hatred being the Ground of all the rest, I must have a great Care, that I do not mistake or miscarry in them: For if these be plac'd upon wrong Objects, 'tis impossible any of the rest shou'd be plac'd upon right ones. In order, therefore, to prevent such a Miscarriage, as GOD is the greatest Good, and Sin the greatest Evil, I resolve to love GOD above all things else in the World, and to hate Sin to the same degree; and so to love other things, only in relation to GOD; and to hate nothing, but in reference to Sin.

As for the first, The Loving GOD above all things, there is nothing seems more reasonable; inasmuch as there is nothing lovely in any Creature, but what it receives from GOD; and by how much the more 'tis like to GOD, by so much the

the more 'tis lovely unto us. Hence it is, that Beauty, or an exact Symmetry and Proportion of Parts and Colours, ſo attracts our Love, becauſe it ſo much reſembles GOD, who is Beauty and Perfection itſelf. And hence it is, likewiſe, that Grace is the moſt lovely thing in the World, next to GOD, as being the Image of GOD Himſelf ſtamp'd upon the Soul; nay, it is not only the Image and Repreſentation, but 'tis the Influence and Communication of Himſelf to us; ſo that the more we have of Grace, we may ſafely ſay, ſo much the more we have of GOD, within us. Why, therefore, ſhould I grudge my Love to Him, who only deſerves it; who is not only infinitely Lovely in Himſelf, but the Author and Perfection of all Lovelineſs in His Creatures? Why, the true Reaſon is, that my Affections have run a gadding without my Judgment, or elſe my Judgment hath been balk'd or anticipated by my Fancy; whereas, now that my Apprehenſions of GOD are a little clear'd up, and my Judgment leads the Way, tho' nobody ſees me, yet, methinks, I cannot but bluſh at myſelf, that I ſhould ever lie doting upon theſe Dreams and Shadows here below, and not fix my Affections upon the Infinite Beauty and All-ſufficiency of GOD above, who deſerves my Love and Admiration so infinitely beyond them. However, therefore, I have heretofore plac'd my Affections upon other things above GOD, I am now resolv'd to love GOD, not only above many, or most things, but above all things else in the World.

AND here, by loving GOD, I do not understand that sensitive Affection I place upon material Objects; for it is impossible, that that should be fix'd upon GOD, who is a pure spiritual Being; but that, as by the deliberate Choice of my Will, I take Him for my chiefest Good, so I ought to preferr Him as such, before my neareſt and deareſt Possessions, Interests, or Relations, and whatsoever else may at any time stand in Competition with Him.

AND thus, as I shall endeavour to love GOD, so likewise to hate Sin, above all things: And this is as necessary as the former; for all things else have something of Good in them, as they are made by GOD; but Sin being, in its own Nature, a Privation of Good, and directly opposite to the Nature and Will of GOD, (as I have before shew'd) it has nothing of Beauty or Amiableness to recommend it to my Affections. On the contrary, 'tis a Compound of Deformity and Defilement, that is always attended with Punishment and Misery, and must, therefore, be

be the Object of my Hatred and Abhorrence, whereſoever I find it. For, as GOD is the Center of all that is Good, ſo is Sin the Fountain of all the Evil in the World. All the Strife and Contention, Ignominy and Diſgrace, Misfortunes and Afflictions, that I obſerve in the World; all the Diſeaſes of my Body, and Infirmities of my Mind; all the Errors of my Underſtanding, and Irregularities of my Will and Affections; in a word, all the Evils whatſoever, that I am affected with, or ſubject to, in this World, are ſtill the Fruits and Effects of Sin: For, if Man had never offended the Chiefeſt Good, he had never been ſubject to this Train of Evils which attended his Tranſgreſſion. Whenſoever, therefore, I find myſelf begin to deteſt and abhorr any Evil, I ſhall, for the future, endeavour to turn my Eyes to the Spring-Head, and loath and deteſt the Fountain that ſends forth all thoſe bitter and unwholſome Streams, as well as the Channels of thoſe corrupt Hearts in which they flow. And, for this Reaſon, I reſolve to hate Sin whereſoever I find it, whether in myſelf or in others, in the beſt of Friends, as well as the worſt of Enemies. Love, I know, and Charity, covers a Multitude of Sins, and where we love the Man, we are all of us but too apt to overlook, or excuſe, cuſe, his Faults. For the Prevention of this, therefore, I firmly reſolve, in all my Expreſſions of Love to my Fellow Creatures, ſo to love the Perſon, as yet to hate his Sins; and ſo to hate his Sins, as yet to love his Perſon. The laſt of which, I hope, I ſhall not find hard to practiſe, my Nature, by the Bleſſing of GOD, being not eaſily inclin'd to hate any Man's Perſon whatſoever; and the former will not be much more difficult, when I conſider, that by how much more I love my Friend, by ſo much more ſhou'd I hate whatſoever will be offenſive or deſtructive to him.

HAVING thus fix'd my Reſolutions, with regard to thoſe two Commanding Paſſions of my Soul, Love and Hatred,

Resolution III.

I am reſolv'd, by the Aſſiſtance of Divine Grace, to make GOD the principal Object of my Joy, and Sin the principal Object of my Grief and Sorrow; ſo as to grieve for Sin more than Suffering, and for Suffering, only for Sin's ſake.

THE Affections of Joy and Grief are the immediate Iſſues of Love and Hatred, and, therefore, not at all to be ſeparated in their Object. Having, therefore, reſolv'd to love, I cannot but reſolve likewiſe to rejoice in GOD above all things; for the ſame Meaſure of Love I have towards any thing, the ſame Meaſure of Complacency and Delight I muſt neceſſarily have in the Enjoyment of it. As, therefore, I love GOD above all things, and other things only in Subſerviency to Him, ſo muſt I rejoice in GOD above all things, and in other things only as coming from Him. I know, I not only may, but muſt rejoice in the Mercies and Bleſſings that GOD conferrs upon me; but 'tis ſtill my Duty to rejoice more in what GOD is in Himſelf, than in what He is pleas'd to communicate to me: So that I am not only bound to rejoice in GOD, when I have nothing elſe, but when I have all things elſe to rejoice in. Let, therefore, my Riches, Honours, or my Friends, fail me; Let my Pleaſures, my Health, and Hope, and All, fail me; I am ſtill reſolv'd, by His Grace, to rejoice in the LORD, and to joy in the GOD of my Salvation. On the other hand, Let Honour or Riches be multiply'd upon me; Let Joy and Pleaſure, and all that a carnal Heart (like mine) can wiſh for or deſire, be thrown upon me; yet am I ſtill reſolv'd, that as it is my Buſineſs to ſerve GOD, ſo ſhall it be my Delight and Comfort to rejoice in Him.

AND as GOD ſhall thus be my chiefeſt Joy, ſo ſhall Sin be my greateſt Grief; for I account no Condition miſerable, but that which reſults from, or leads me unto Sin: So that when any thing befalls me, which may bear the Face of Suffering, and fill my Heart with Sorrow, I ſhall ſtill endeavour to keep off the Smart, till I know from whence it comes. If Sin has kindled the Fire of GOD's Wrath againſt me, and brought theſe Judgments upon me, Oh! what a heavy Load ſhall I then feel upon my Soul? And how ſhall I groan and complain complain under the Burden of it? But if there be nothing of the Poiſon of Sin dropp'd into this Cup of Sorrows, tho' it may perhaps prove bitter to my Senſes, yet it will, in the end, prove healthful to my Soul; as being not kindled at the Furnace of GOD's Wrath, but at the Flames of His Love and Affection for me. So that I am ſo far from having Cauſe to be ſorry for the Sufferings he brings upon me, that I have much greater Cauſe to rejoice in them, as being an Argument of the Love and Affection He bears to me; For, whom the Lord loveth He chaſteneth, and ſcourgeth every Son whom He receiveth, Heb. xii. 6.

And having thus reſolv'd to rejoice in nothing but GOD, and grieve for nothing but Sin, I muſt not be caſt down and dejected at every Providence which the Men here below count a Loſs or Affliction; for, certainly, all the Miſery I find in any thing extrinſical, is created by myſelf; nothing but what is in me being properly an Affliction to me; ſo that 'tis my Fancy that is the Ground of Miſery in all things without myſelf. If I did not fancy ſome Evil or Miſery in the Loſs of ſuch an Enjoyment, it would be no Miſery at all to me; becauſe I am ſtill the ſame as I was, and have as much as I had before. For 'tis GOD that is the Portion of my Soul;

and, therefore, ſhould I loſe every thing I have in the World beſides, yet having GOD, I cannot be ſaid to loſe any thing, becauſe I have Him that hath, and is, all things in Himſelf. Whenſoever, therefore, any thing befalls me, that uſes to be Matter of Sorrow and Dejection to me, I muſt not preſently be affected with, nor dejected at it, but ſtill behave myſelf like an Heir of Heaven, and living above the Smiles and Frowns of this World, account nothing Matter of Joy, but ſo far as I enjoy of GOD's Love; nor any thing Matter of Sorrow, but ſo much as I ſee of His Anger in it.

Resolution IV.

I am reſolved, by the Grace of GOD, to deſire ſpiritual Mercies more than temporal; and temporal Mercies only in reference to ſpiritual.

HAving rectify'd the Balance of my Judgment according to Scripture; when I wou'd begin to weigh temporal Things with ſpiritual, I find there is no Proportion, and ſo no Compariſon to be made betwixt them. And will any Wiſe Man,

Man, then, that pretends to Reaſon, be at a ſtand which of theſe to chooſe, which to eſteem the beſt, or deſire moſt? Alas! What is there in the World, that can fill the vaſt Deſires of my Soul, but only He, who is infinitely above Me and my Deſires too? Will Riches do it? No, I may as ſoon undertake to fill my Barns with Grace, as my Heart with Gold, and as eaſily ſtuff my Bags with Vertue, as ever ſatisfy my Deſires with Wealth. Do I hunt after Pleaſures? Theſe may, indeed, charm and delight my Brutiſh Senſes, but can never be agreeable, or proportionate to my Spiritual Faculties. Do I graſp at Honour and Popularity? Theſe, again, are as empty and unſatisfying as the former; they may make me look High and Great in the Eye of the World, turn my Head giddy with Applauſe, or puff up my Heart with Pride, but they can never fill up the Meaſure of its Deſires. And, thus, if I ſhou'd have the whole World at my Command, and cou'd, with Alexander, wield both Sword and Scepter over all the Nations and Languages of it, wou'd this content me? or rather, ſhou'd I not ſit down and weep, with him, that I had not another World to conquer and poſſeſs? Whereas, GOD being an infinite Good, 'tis impoſſible for me to deſire any thing, which

which I may not enjoy in Him and His Mercies: Let me, or any other Creature, extend our Deſires never ſo far, ſtill the Graces and Bleſſings of this Infinite GOD will be infinitely beyond them all: Inſomuch that tho' Ten Thouſand Worlds are not able to ſatisfy One Soul, yet One GOD is able to ſatisfy Ten Thouſand Souls; yea, and Ten Millions more to them, as well as if there was only One Soul in all the World to ſatisfy.

COME, therefore, my dear Lord and Saviour! whilſt Thy Servant is breathing after Thee; and poſſeſs my Heart with the Spiritual Bleſſings of Grace and Faith, Peace and Charity; and let none of theſe empty and tranſient Delights of this World ſtand in Competition with them! Thou art the Source and Center of all my Wiſhes and Deſires; even as the Hart panteth after the Water-brooks, ſo panteth my Soul after Thee, O GOD! Oh! When ſhall I appear in Thy Preſence? When, when ſhall that bleſſed Time come, that I ſhall ſee Thy Sacred Majeſty, Face to Face? This is a Mercy, I confeſs, which I cannot expect, whilſt impriſon'd in the Body; but, howſoever, tho' I muſt not yet appear before Thee, do Thou vouchſafe to appear in Me, and give me ſuch Glympſes of Thy Love and Graces here, as may be an Earneſt of the Bliſs and Glory I am to enjoy hereafter!

Resolution V.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to hope for nothing ſo much as the Promiſes, and to fear nothing ſo much as the Threatnings of GOD.

MY Soul being inflamed with Holy Deſires after GOD, my Heart cannot but be big with the Hopes and Expectations of Him: And, truly, as there is nothing that I can abſolutely deſire, ſo neither is there any thing that I can aſſuredly hope for and depend upon, but GOD Himſelf, and the Promiſes He has made to me in His Divine Word. For, as all things derive their Being and Subſiſtence from Him, ſo they are all at His Beck and Command, and are acted and influenc'd as His Wiſdom and Pleaſure ſees fit to order them. All the Secondary Cauſes are in His Hand, and He turns them which way ſoever He will; ſo that, however improbable and diſproportionate the Means He uſes may appear to be, He never fails to accompliſh the End, or whatever He wills and and decrees to be done. And, therefore, where-ever I meet with any Promiſes made over to the Faithful in His Sacred Word, (ſince they are the Promiſes of one who is infinitely juſt and true, who can neither diſſemble, nor deceive) I cannot in the leaſt doubt, but they will be punctually fulfill'd; and if I am of that happy Number, (as I truſt, thro' the Merits of CHRIST, and my own ſincere Endeavours, I ſhall approve myſelf to be) I have as much Aſſurance of being Partaker of them, as if I had them actually in Poſſeſſion, or as any of the Faithful Servants of GOD, who have already experienc'd the Accompliſhment of them.

BUT, ſuppoſe GOD ſhou'd not favour me with the bright Part of His Promiſes, but, inſtead of the Bleſſings of Health and Proſperity, ſhou'd viſit me with Croſſes and Afflictions; yet, I have ſtill the ſame Grounds for my Hope and Confidence in Him, and may ſay, with the Pſalmiſt, The Lord is my Helper, I will not fear what the Devil or Man can do unto me. For, tho' their Spight and Malice may ſometimes croſs, afflict, and perſecute me; yet, ſince I am aſſur'd, they are only as Inſtruments in the Hand of GOD, that cannot go beyond their Commiſſion, nor make me ſuffer more than I am able to bear, I may comfort comfort myſelf, under all theſe Afflictions, by the ſame Divine Promiſe that S. Paul had recourſe to, on the like Occaſion, to wit, That all ſhall work together for good to them that love GOD, who are the called, according to His purpoſe, Rom. viii. 28. The Devil cou'd not touch the Poſſeſſions of Job, till he had receiv'd a Commiſſion from GOD; nor cou'd he come near His Body, till that Commiſſion was renew'd; and ſo, neither can he, or any Creature whatſoever, throw any Evil upon me, without the Divine Permiſſion; and even That, tho' it ſeems to be Evil, ſhall really, in the End, turn to my Benefit and Advantage. Oh! what a Sovereign Antidote is this againſt all Deſpondency and Deſpair, even under the deepeſt and ſevereſt Tryals? Permit me, O my GOD! to apply this ſacred Promiſe to myſelf, and ſay, I am aſſur'd of it, by my own Experience! For I can hardly remember any one thing that ever happen'd to me, in the whole Courſe of my Life, even to the Croſſing of my moſt earneſt Deſires, and higheſt Expectations, but what I muſt confeſs, to the Praiſe of Thy Grace and Goodneſs, has really, in the End, turn'd to my Advantage another way. Oh! make me truly ſenſible of all Thy Promiſes to, and Dealings with, me, that whatever Storms and Surges may ariſe in the tempeſtuous peſtuous Ocean of this tranſient World, I may ſtill fix the Anchor of my Hope and Happineſs in Thee, who art the Source and Spring of all Bleſſings, and without whom no Evil or Calamity cou'd ever befall me!

And as the Promiſes of GOD, upon all theſe Accounts, are to be the Object of my Hope; ſo are His Threatnings to be of my Fear and Averſation: As the former are of excellent uſe to raiſe and revive the moſt drooping Hearts, ſo the latter are of Weight enough to ſink and depreſs the ſtouteſt and moſt undaunted Spirits, and make them lick up the Duſt of Horror and Deſpair. Not to mention any thing of the exquiſite and eternal Miſeries denounc'd againſt the Wicked in the next World, with which the Scriptures every-where abound, there is one Puniſhment threaten'd to be inflicted here, which is, of itſelf, ſufficient to do this; and that is, in Mal. ii. 2. If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to Heart, to give Glory to My Name, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts, I will even ſend a Curſe upon you, and I will curſe your Bleſſings. Moſt dreadful Sentence! which none, that conſider aright, can be able to read, without Trembling and Aſtoniſhment. Alas! if GOD ſhould curſe me, where ſhou'd I ſeek for Bleſſing, ſince He is the only Fountain from which it flows, and by which it is convey'd and communicated to me? And if He ſhou'd curſe my very Bleſſings, what cou'd I hope for, but Miſery and Deſpair? My Health, my Wealth, my Preferments, my Relations, nay, my very Life itſelf, wou'd all be accurs'd to me; and what is yet worſe, even my Spiritual Exerciſes and Performances, upon which I chiefly build my Hopes of Happineſs, my Preaching, Praying, and Communicating, wou'd all become a Snare and a Curſe to me: Yea, and CHRIST Himſelf, who came into the World to bleſs and redeem me, if I walk not in His Fear, believe not His Goſpel, or give not Glory to His Name, will Himſelf be a Curſe and Condemnation to me. So that I may ſay of every thing I have, or enjoy, or expect, all theſe GOD has made Curſes to me, becauſe I have not bleſs'd and glorify'd Him in them. Oh! who wou'd not tremble and be wrought upon by theſe Threatnings? Who wou'd not fear Thee, O King of Nations, who art thus terrible in Thy Judgments? Who wou'd not love and obey Thee, who art ſo gracious in Thy Promiſes? Teach me, I beſeech Thee, ſo to place my Fear upon the former, that I may ſtill fix my Hope upon the latter, that tho' I fear Thy dreadful Curſes, yet I may never deſpair of Thy tender Mercies!

Resolution VI.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to arm myſelf with that ſpiritual Courage and Magnanimity, as to preſs thro' all Duties and Difficulties whatſoever, for the Advancement of GOD's Glory, and my own Happineſs.

Christianity is well term'd a Warfare; for a Warfare it is, wherein no Danger can be prevented, no Enemy conquer'd, no Victory obtain'd, without much Courage and Reſolution. I have not only many Outward Enemies to grapple with, but I have Myſelf, my worſt Enemy, to encounter and ſubdue. As for thoſe Enemies which are not near me, by the Aſſiſtance of GOD's Spirit, I can make pretty good Shift to keep them at the Sword's Point: But this Enemy that is gotten within me, has ſo often foil'd and diſarm'd me, that I have Reaſon to ſay, as David did of his Enemies, It is too ſtrong for me: And, as he ſaid of the chief of his, I ſhall, one day, fall by the Hands of Saul; ſo have I too much Occaſion to ſay, I ſhall fall fall by Myſelf, as being Myſelf the greateſt Enemy to my own Spiritual Intereſt and Concerns. How neceſſary is it, then, that I ſhou'd raiſe and muſter up all my Force and Courage, put on my Spiritual Armour, and make myſelf ſtrong in the LORD, and in the Power of His Might? I know, I muſt ſtrive, before I can enter in at the ſtreight Gate; I muſt win the Crown, before I can wear it; and be a Member of the Church Militant, before I be admitted into the Church Triumphant. In a word, I muſt go thro' a ſolitary Wilderneſs, and conquer many Enemies, before I come to the Land of Canaan; or elſe I muſt never be poſſeſs'd of it. What then? Shall I loſe my Glory, to balk my Duty? Shall I let go my glorious and eternal Poſſeſſion, to ſave myſelf from a ſeeming Hardſhip, which the Devil would perſuade me to be a Trouble and an Affliction? Alas! if CHRIST had laid aſide the great Work of my Redemption, to avoid the Undergoing of GOD's Anger and Man's Malice, what a miſerable Condition had I been in? And, therefore, whatever Taunts and Reproaches I meet with, from the Preſumptuous and Prophane, the Infidel and Atheiſtical Reprobates of the Age; Let them laugh at my Profeſſion, or mock at what they are pleas'd to call Preciſeneſs; Let them defraud me of my juſt Rights, or traduce and bereave me of my Good Name and Reputation; Let them vent the utmoſt of their poiſonous Malice and Envy againſt me; I have this comfortable Reflexion ſtill to ſupport me, That if I ſuffer all this for CHRIST's ſake, 'tis in the Cauſe of one who ſuffer'd a thouſand times more for mine; and, therefore, it ought to be Matter of Joy and Triumph, rather than of Grief and Dejection to me: Eſpecially, conſidering, that theſe my light Afflictions, which are but for a Moment, will work out for me a far more exceeding and eternal Weight of Glory. Upon the Proſpect of which, I firmly reſolve, notwithſtanding the growing Strength of Sin, and the overbearing Prevalency of my own corrupt Affections, to undertake all Duties, and undergo all Miſeries, that GOD, in His infinite Wiſdom, thinks fit to lay upon me, or exerciſe my Patience in.

Resolution VII.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, ſo to be angry, as not to ſin, and, therefore, to be angry at nothing but Sin.

THE former Part of the Reſolution is founded in the expreſs Command of S. Paul, be ye angry, and ſin not, Eph. iv. 26. And the latter is an Explication of, as well as an Inference drawn from, it. For, if Anger be not only lawful, but a Duty, as is here ſuppos'd, when it does not involve us in Sin; the only Difficulty is, to know how that Paſſion ought to be qualify'd, to juſtify the Exerciſe of it, without being guilty of Sin: And the Circumſtances or Qualifications requir'd for this, are, Firſt, That it be plac'd upon a due Object; and, Secondly, That it do not exceed its proper Bounds.

NOW, as nothing can deſerve my Anger, but what is diſagreeable to my Nature, and offenſive to the Author of it, ſo nothing but Sin can properly be call'd its Object. The chief thing that I am to aim at in my Actions, is the Honouring, Serving, and Pleaſing of GOD; and how can I ſerve and pleaſe GOD, in being angry at any thing but what I know is diſpleaſing to Him? I may be ſcorn'd, reproach'd, and vilify'd among my Equals, or accus'd, condemn'd, and puniſh'd by my Superiors; and theſe are Treatments that are but too apt to raiſe and tranſport Men into Anger and Revenge: But then, before I ſuffer this Paſſion to boil up in me, I ought to conſider, whether I have not behav'd myſelf ſo, as to deſerve this ſort of Treatment; if I have, then there is no Injury or Injuſtice done me thereby, and, therefore, I ought not to be angry at it: If I have not, I muſt not be angry at the Perſons who act thus falſly and unjuſtly againſt me, but only at their Sin; for, to ſpeak properly, it is not the Perſon that offends me, but the Sin. And this, not becauſe it is injurious to Me, but becauſe it is offenſive and diſpleaſing to GOD Himſelf; for, to be angry at any thing but what diſpleaſes GOD, is to diſpleaſe GOD in being angry. Whenever, therefore, I receive any Affronts or Provocations of this Nature, I am reſolv'd, by GOD's Grace aſſiſting my Endeavours, never to be moved, or troubled at them, farther than they are in their own Nature ſinful, and at the ſame time abſtracting the Sin from the Perſons, to pray for the Pardon of thoſe that are guilty of it; and not only ſo, but, according to the Command and Example of my Saviour, even to love them too.

But, how ſhall I be ſure to be angry at nothing but Sin, and ſo not to ſin in my Anger, when every petty Trifle or croſs Accident is ſo apt to raiſe this Paſſion in me? Why, the beſt Method I can take, is, that which the Wiſe-man directs me to, not to be haſty in my Spirit, Eccleſ. vii. 9. but, to defer my Anger according to Diſcretion, Prov. xix. 11. So that, whenſoever any thing happens that may incenſe and inflame my Paſſion, I muſt immediately ſtop its Career, and ſuſpend the Acts of it, till I have duly conſider'd the Motives and Occaſions that rais'd it. And, as this will be a very good Means to regulate the Object of my Anger, ſo likewiſe the Meaſure of it: For, he that is ſlow to Wrath, takes Time to conſider, and, by Conſequence, puts his Paſſion under the Conduct of his Reaſon; and, whoever does ſo, it will never ſuffer it to be tranſported beyond its proper Bounds: Whereas he, whoſe Anger is like Tinder, that catches as ſoon as the Spark is upon it, and who uſes no Means to ſtop its Spreading, is preſently blown up into a furious Flame, which, before 'tis extinguiſh'd, may do more Miſchief than he is ever able to repair; for, no Man knows, whither his Anger may hurry him, when once it has got the Maſtery of him. In order, therefore, to prevent the fatal Conſequences of this Paſſion, I now reſolve never to ſpeak or do any thing, while I am under the Influence of it, but take Time to conſider with myſelf, and reflect upon the ſeveral Circumſtances of the Action or Object it ariſes from, as well as the Occaſion and Tendency of it; and, as oft as I find any thing in it diſpleaſing to GOD, to be regularly angry at that, to correct, rebuke, and reprove it, with a Zeal and Fervour of Spirit, ſuitable to the Occaſion; but, ſtill to keep within the Bounds of the truly Chriſtian Temper, which is always diſtinguiſh'd by Love and Charity, and exerciſes itſelf in Meekneſs and Moderation. And, Oh! what a ſedate and contented Spirit will this Reſolution breed in me? How eaſy and quiet ſhall I be under all Circumſtances? Whilſt others are peeviſh and fretful, and torment themſelves with every petty Trifle that does but croſs their Inclinations, or ſeem to be injurious to them; or fall into the other Extreme, of a Stoical Apathy or Inſenſibility; I ſhall, by this Reſolution, maintain a Medium betwixt both, and poſſeſs my Soul in Peace and Patience.

Concerning my Words.

HAVING thus far cleans'd the Fountain of my Heart, with regard to my Thoughts and Affections, which are the immediate Iſſues of my Active Soul, the next thing incumbent upon me, is, to regulate my outward Converſation, both with reſpect to my Words and Actions. As to the Firſt, the Holy Scripture aſſures me, that the Tongue is a World of Iniquity, Jam. iii. 6. And again, that it is an unruly Evil which no Man can tame, ver. 8. But is it, indeed, ſo unruly? Then there is the more Occaſion to have it govern'd and ſubdu'd; and, ſince that is not to be done by Man alone, it is ſtill more neceſſary, that I ſhou'd call in the Aſſiſtance of that Divine Spirit that gives this Character of it, firſt to fix my Reſolutions, and then to ſtrengthen me in the Performance of them. I ſtedfaſtly purpoſe to imitate the Royal Pſalmiſt, in this Particular, and to take heed to my Ways, that I offend not with my Tongue, Pſal. xxxix. 1. Yea, I am reſolv'd, with Holy Job, that all the while my Breath, and the Spirit of GOD, is in my Noſtrils, my Lips ſhall not ſpeak Wickedneſs, nor my Tongue utter Deceit, Job. xxvii. 3, 4. But, ſince it is ſuch an unruly Inſtrument, so very difficult to be bridled or restrain'd, Do Thou, O GOD, who first madest it, enable me to get the Mastery of it! Set a Watch, O Lord, before my Mouth, and keep the Door of my Lips, that, with S. Paul, I may speak forth the Words of Truth and Soberness, and make this unruly Evil a happy Instrument of much Good! Which that I may do,

Resolution I.

I am resolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, never to speak much, lest I often speak too much, and not speak at all, rather than to no purpose.

IT is the Voice of Fools that is known by the Multitude of Words, Eccl. v. 3. In which there are divers Vanities, ver. 6. and Sin too, Prov. x. 19. whereas, he that refraineth his Lips, is wise. This is that Piece of Christian Wisdom, which I am now resolving to look after; and, therefore, never to deliver my Words out to the World by Number, but by Weight, not by Quantity but Quality; not hiding my Meaning under ambiguous Terms and Expressions, but fitting Words exactly exactly to expreſs my Meaning: Not amuſing thoſe I converſe with, with Circles of Impertinence and Circumlocution, but coming directly to the Matter, by the ſtreight Line of apt Expreſſions; ſo as never to ſpeak more than the Matter requireth, nor to ſpeak at all, when no Matter requireth. For, why ſhould I ſpend my Breath for nothing? Alas! that is not all; if I ſpend it ill, it will be far worſe than ſpending it for nothing; for our Bleſſed Saviour has told me, that I muſt anſwer for every idle and unprofitable, as well as prophane Word, Mat. xii. 36. But now, if all the Vain Words I ever ſpoke, ſhou'd be written, as I have cauſe to believe they are, in the Book of GOD's Remembrance, how many vaſt Volumes muſt they make! and if an Index ſhou'd be made, where to find profitable, and where idle Words, how few References wou'd there be to the former? what Multitudes to the latter? and (what is yet more terrifying) if all theſe Words ſhou'd be brought in Judgment againſt me, at the Laſt Day, how wou'd thoſe very Words then make me ſpeechleſs? and what Shame and Confuſion of Face wou'd they then ſtrike me with? But I truſt, through the Blood of my Redeemer, and the Tears of my Repentance, they will all be waſh'd and blotted out, before I come to appear before Him.

Him. In order to this, as I heartily bewail and deteſt my former Follies in this reſpect; ſo I firmly purpoſe and reſolve to uſe my utmoſt Endeavours, for the time to come, not to give way to any more ſuch idle Words and Expreſſions, as are likely to be thus prejudicial to my Eternal Intereſt; but always to conſider well before-hand, what, and how, and why I ſpeak, and ſuffer no corrupt Communication to proceed out of my Mouth, but that which is good, to the uſe of Edifying, that it may miniſter Grace to the Hearers, Eph. iv. 29.

I KNOW, there are ſome Words, that are purely jocoſe, ſpoken with no other Intent, but only to promote Mirth, and divert Melancholy; and theſe Words, ſo long as they are harmleſs and innocent, ſo long as they do not reflect Diſhonour upon GOD, nor injure the Character and Reputation of my Neighbour, are very lawful and allowable; inaſmuch as they conduce to the Refreſhing and Reviving of my Spirits, and the Preſervation of my Health. But then, I muſt always take care, ſo to wind and turn my Diſcourſe, that what recreates me in ſpeaking, may profit others when ſpoke; that my Words may not only be ſuch as have no Malignity in them, but ſuch as may be uſeful and beneficial; not only ſuch as do no Hurt, but likewiſe ſuch as may do much

Good to others, as well as to myſelf. To this end, I firmly reſolve, by the Grace of GOD, never to ſpeak only for the ſake of ſpeaking, but to weigh each Word before I ſpeak it, and conſider the Conſequence and Tendency of it, whether it may really be the Occaſion of Good or Evil, or tend to the Edifying or Scandalizing of the Perſon I ſpeak it to.

Resolution II.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, not only to avoid the Wickedneſs of Swearing falſly, but likewiſe the very Appearance of Swearing at all.

PERJURY is a Sin condemn'd by the very Laws of Nature; inſomuch that I ſhould wrong my natural Faculties, ſhould I give way to, or be guilty of, it. For, the ſame Nature that tells me, the Perſon of GOD is to be adored, tells me likewiſe, His Name is to be reverenced; and what more horrid Impiety can poſſibly be imagined, than to proſtitute the moſt ſacred Name of the moſt High GOD, to confirm the Lyes of ſinful Men? I know, Swearing in a juſt Matter,

Matter, and right Manner, may be as lawful under the New, as under the Old Teſtament; for thus I find S. Paul ſaying, As GOD is true, 2 Cor. i. 18. and ver. 23. I call GOD for a Record upon my Soul; wherein is contain'd the very Nature of an Oath, which is, the Calling GOD for a Record and a Witneſs to the Truth of what we ſpeak: But when it is to maintain Falſhood, which is to an ill purpoſe, or lightly and vainly, which is to no purpoſe at all, it is a Sin of the higheſt Aggravation, that ought, with the greateſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence, to be ſhunn'd and avoided. GOD ſaith, by Moſes, Lev. xix 12. Thou ſhalt not ſwear by My Name falſly, neither ſhalt thou prophane the Name of thy GOD: I am the LORD. And, Exod. xx. 7. Deut. v. 11. Thou ſhalt not take the Name of the Lord thy GOD in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltleſs that taketh His Name in vain. But farther, GOD ſays, by CHRIST, Swear not at all, neither by Heaven, for it is GOD's Throne; nor by the Earth, for it is His Footſtool, &c. So that not only, By GOD, and By JESUS, are Oaths, but Swearing by any of GOD's Creatures, is, in a manner, to ſwear by GOD Himſelf. I ſwear by the Heavens; Can the Heavens hear, or witneſs what I ſay? No, it is the Glorious Majeſty that rules there, that I call call upon to witneſs the Truth of the Words I ſpeak, and the Sinfulneſs of my Heart for Swearing to them. Do I ſwear by my Faith? But how is that? Can Faith teſtify what I ſay? No, 'tis only He that wrought this Faith in my Heart, can witneſs the Truth of my Words. And, if I ſwear by the Gifts of GOD, I do, in effect, ſwear by GOD Himſelf; otherwiſe, I aſcribe that to the Creature, which is only compatible to the Glorious Creator, even the Knowledge of the Thoughts of my Heart, how ſecret ſoever they be.

BUT, again, There is more in the Third Commandment, than the Devil would perſuade the World there is; for, when GOD commands me not to take His Name in vain, 'tis more than if He had commanded me only not to ſwear by it: For, I cannot perſuade myſelf, but that every time I ſpeak of GOD, when I do not think of Him, I take His Name in vain; and, therefore, I ought to endeavour to avoid even the Mentioning of GOD, as well as Swearing by Him, unleſs upon urgent Occaſions, and with Reverence and Reſpect becoming His Majeſty; for, queſtionleſs, O Lord, and O GOD, may be ſpoken as vainly, as By Lord, and By God. And, therefore, I ought never to ſpeak ſuch Words, without thinking really in my Heart, what I

ſpeak openly with my Mouth, leſt my Name be written amongſt thoſe that take the Name of GOD in vain. But farther ſtill, I am reſolv'd not only to avoid downright Swearing, but likewiſe the very Appearance of it: So that what doth but look like an Oath, ſhall be as odious to me, as what looks like nothing elſe.

Resolution III.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, always to make my Tongue and Heart go together, ſo as never to ſpeak with the one, what I do not think in the other.

AS my Happineſs conſiſteth in Nearneſs and Vicinity, ſo doth my Holineſs in Likeneſs and Conformity to the chiefeſt Good. I am ſo much the Better, as I am liker the Beſt; and ſo much the Holier, as I am more conformable to the Holieſt, or rather, to Him who is Holineſs itſelf. Now, one great Title which the moſt High is pleaſed to give to Himſelf, and by which He is pleas'd to reveal Himſelf to us, is, the GOD of Truth: So that I ſhall be ſo much the liker to the GOD of Truth, by how much much I am more conſtant to the Truth of GOD. And the farther I deviate from this, the nearer I approach to the Nature of the Devil, who is the Father of Lyes, and Lyars too, John ii. 44. And hence it is, that of all the Sins the Men of Faſhion are guilty of, they can leaſt endure to be charg'd of Lying. To give a Man the Lye, or to ſay, You lye, is look'd upon as the greateſt Affront that can be put upon them. And why ſo? But only, becauſe this Sin of Lying makes them ſo like their Father the Devil, that a Man had almoſt as well call them Devils, as Lyars; and, therefore, to avoid the Scandal and Reproach, as well as the dangerous Malignity of this damnable Sin, I am reſolv'd, by the Bleſſing of GOD, always to tune my Tongue an Uniſon to my Heart, ſo as never to ſpeak any thing, but what I think really to be true. So that, if I ever ſpeak what is not true, it ſhall not be the Error of my Will, but of my Underſtanding.

I KNOW, Lyes are commonly diſtinguiſh'd into Officious, Pernicious, and Jocoſe; and ſome may fancy ſome of them more tolerable than others. But, for my own part, I think, they are all pernicious, and, therefore, not to be jeſted withal, nor indulg'd, upon any Pretence or Colour whatſoever. Not as if it was a Sin, not to ſpeak ſpeak exactly as a Thing is in itſelf, or as it ſeems to me in its literal Meaning, without ſome Liberty granted to Rhetorical Tropes and Figures; [for, ſo the Scripture itſelf would be chargeable with Lyes; many things being contain'd in it, which are not true in a literal Senſe.] But, I muſt ſo uſe Rhetorical, as not to abuſe my Chriſtian, Liberty; and, therefore, never make Uſe of Hyperboles, Ironies, or other Tropes and Figures, to deceive or impoſe upon my Auditors, but only for the better adorning, illuſtrating, or confirming the Matter.

But, there is another ſort of Lyes moſt Men are apt to fall into, and they are Promiſſory Lyes; to avoid which, I am reſolv'd, never to promiſe any thing with my Mouth, but what I intend to perform in my Heart; and never to intend to perform any thing, but what I am ſure I can perform. For, this is the Cauſe and Occaſion of moſt Promiſſory Lyes, that we promiſe that abſolutely, which we ſhould promiſe only conditionally: For, tho' I may intend to do as I ſay now, yet there are a thouſand weighty things may intervene, which may turn the Balance of my Intentions, or, otherwiſe hinder the Performance of my Promiſe. So that, unleſs I be abſolutely ſure I can do a thing, I muſt never abſolutely lutely promiſe to do it; and, therefore, in all ſuch Promiſes, ſhall ſtill put in, GOD willing, or, by the Help of GOD; at the ſame time lifting up my Heart to GOD, leſt I take His Name in vain.

RESOLUTION IV.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to ſpeak of other Mens Sins only before their Faces, and of their Vertues only behind their Backs.

TO commend Men, when they are preſent, I eſteem almoſt as great a Piece of Folly, as to reprove them, when they are abſent; tho' I do confeſs, in ſome Caſes, and to ſome Perſons, it may be commendable, eſpecially where the Perſon is not apt to be puff'd up, but ſpurr'd on by it. But, to rail at others, when they hear me not, is the higheſt Piece of Folly imaginable; for, as 'tis impoſſible They ſhould get any Good, ſo 'tis impoſſible but that I ſhould get much Hurt by it. For, ſuch ſort of Words, make the beſt we can of them, are but idle and unprofitable, and may not only prove injurious to the Per-ſon of whom, but even to whom they are ſpoken, by wounding the Credit of the former, and the Charity of the latter, and ſo, by Conſequence, my own Soul; nay, even tho' I ſpeak that which is true in itſelf, and known to be ſo to me: And, therefore, this way of Backbiting ought, by all means, to be avoided.

But, I muſt, much more, have a care of raiſing falſe Reports concerning any one, or of giving Credit to them that raiſe them, or of paſſing my Judgment, till I have weigh'd the Matter; leſt I tranſgreſs the Rules of Mercy and Charity, which command me not to cenſure any one upon others Rumours, or my own Surmiſes; nay, if the thing be in itſelf true, ſtill to interpret it in the beſt Senſe. But, if I muſt needs be raking in other Mens Sores, it muſt not be behind their Backs, but before their Faces; for, the one is a great Sin, and the other may be as great a Duty, even to reprove my Neighbour for doing any thing offenſive unto GOD, or deſtructive to his own Soul; ſtill endeavouring ſo to manage the Reproof, as to make his Sin loathſome to him, and prevail upon him, if poſſible, to forſake it: But, there is a great deal of Chriſtian Prudence and Diſcretion to be uſed in this, leſt others may juſtly reprove me for my Indiſcreet Reproof of others. I muſt ſtill fit my Reproof to the Time when, the Perſon to whom, and the Sin againſt which, 'tis deſign'd; ſtill contriving with myſelf, how to carry on this Duty ſo, as that by converting a Sinner from the Evil of his Ways, I may ſave my Soul from Death, and hide a Multitude of Sins, James v. 29. Not venting my Anger againſt the Perſon, but my Sorrow for the Sin that is reprov'd. Hot, Paſſionate, and Reviling Words, will not ſo much exaſperate a Man againſt his Sin that is reprov'd, as againſt the Perſon that doth reprove it. 'Tis not the Wrath of Man that worketh the Righteouſneſs of GOD, James i. 10. But this, of all Duties, muſt be perform'd with a Spirit of Love and Meekneſs; I muſt firſt inſinuate myſelf into His Affections, and then preſs his Sin upon his Conſcience, and that directly or indirectly, as the Perſon, Matter, or Occaſion ſhall require, that ſo he that is reproved by me now, may have Cauſe to bleſs GOD for me to all Eternity.

Resolution V.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, always to ſpeak reverently to my Superiors, humbly to my Inferiors, and civilly to All.

THE moſt High GOD, the Maſter of this great Family, the World, for the more orderly Government of it, hath, according to His Infinite Wiſdom, ſet ſome in higher, ſome in lower Places, hath made ſome as Stewards, others as Under-Servants; and, according to every Man's Work that He expects from him, He meaſures out his Talents to him. Bleſſed be His Name for it, He hath ſet me in a middle Form, giving me Agar's Wiſh, ſubject neither to Envy on one Hand, nor Pity on the other; ſo that I have both Superiors to reverence, and Inferiors to condeſcend to. And, accordingly, it is my Duty ſo to behave myſelf towards them, that the reverend Expreſſions of my Mouth may manifeſt the obedient Subjection of my Heart, to the Power and Authority GOD has given them over me. 'Tis the expreſs Command of the Goſpel, that we ſhou'd render to every Man his Due, Fear to whom Fear, Honour

Honour to whom Honour belongeth, Rom. xiii. 13. which Words plainly imply, both that 'tis ſome Mens Due to receive Honour, and other Mens Duty to give it. And, accordingly, we find, Paul, when he was brought before Feſtus, doth not ſay, Art thou He, whom they call Feſtus? or, Thou Feſtus, as the miſguided Enthuſiaſts, in our Days, would have ſaid; but, Moſt Noble Feſtus, Acts xxvi. 25. In like manner, S. John doth not call Her he writes to, in his Second Epiſtle, being a Perſon of Quality, Woman, but Elect Lady. And, this ſort of Reverence is farther confirm'd to us, not only by the conſtant Cuſtom of all Nations, in all Ages of the World, but 'tis likewiſe highly agreeable to the Rules of Right Reaſon, as well as the Order of Government. For, as there is both a Natural and Civil Superiority, a Superiority in Gifts and Age, and a Superiority likewiſe in Office and Station; ſo there is nothing can be more neceſſary, than that there ſhou'd be, in both theſe reſpects, a Reverence and Reſpect paid to the Perſons of Men, anſwerable to theſe Diſtinctions. And, therefore, I cannot but condemn that rude and unmannerly Behaviour of ſome of our Modern Schiſmaticks, towards their Superiors, as factious and unreaſonable, as well as repugnant to the Dictates of the Divine Spirit, which the Prophets and Apoſtles were inſpir'd and influenc'd by.

And, as there is a Reverence due from Inferiors to their Superiors, in Point of Converſation, ſo likewiſe are there ſome decent Regards and Civilities to be ſhew'd even by Superiors to their Inferiors, who are always to be treated with Candour and Condeſcenſion, in their ordinary Capacities; and even where they are conſider'd as Criminals, with Meekneſs and Moderation. Inſomuch that, methinks, it is one of the worſt Sights in the World, to ſee ſome Men, that are gotten upon a little higher Ground than their Neighbours are, to look proudly and ſcornfully down upon all that are below them, diſdaining to vouchſafe them the leaſt Favour or Reſpect whatſoever. Such churliſh, haughty, and foul-mouth'd Nabals as theſe, are not only very unjuſt, and unreaſonable in their Behaviour to others, but they are certainly the greateſt Enemies to themſelves, that they have in all the World beſides; not only by drawing upon them the Hatred and Enmity of all that are about them, but likewiſe by tormenting themſelves with ſuch frivolous things, as ſuch Spirits commonly do. Wherefore, that I may pleaſe GOD, my Neigh-

Neighbour, and Myſelf, in what I ſpeak, tho' I cou'd excell other Men (which is impoſſible for me to ſuppoſe) in every thing; I reſolve, by GOD's Grace, always to behave myſelf ſo, as if I excell'd them in nothing; and not only to ſpeak reverently to them that are above me, but humbly and civilly to thoſe that are beneath me too. I will always endeavour to uſe ſuch humble winning Words, as to manifeſt more of my Love to them, than my Power over them; I will always ſeaſon my Tongue with ſavoury, not bitter Expreſſions, not making my Mouth a Vent for my Fury and Paſſion to fume out at, but rather an Inſtrument to draw others Love and Affection in by; ſtill ſpeaking as civilly unto others, as I would have them ſpeak civilly to me.

Concerning my Actions.

THE other Way of my Soul's putting forth, and ſhewing herſelf to the World, is, by her Actions, which it concerns me as much to look to and regulate, as my Words; foraſmuch as there is not the leaſt ill Circumſtance in any Action, but what, unleſs it be repented of, muſt be brought into Queſtion, and anſwer'd for, at the Laſt Day: For, tho' an Action cannot be denominated good, unleſs it be good in all Circumſtances and Reſpects; yet 'tis always denominated bad, if it is bad only in one. As it is in Muſick, if but one String jar, or be out of Tune, the whole Harmony is ſpoil'd; ſo here, if but one Circumſtance in an Action be wanting or defective, the whole Action is thereby render'd immoral.

How much, therefore, doth it behove me to keep a ſtrict Watch over myſelf, and ſo to perform every Action, and place every Circumſtance in it, that it may have its Approbation in the Court of Heaven? Well; I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to try what I can do. I know, it is impoſſible for me to reſolve upon particular Actions: But, howſoever, I ſhall reſolve upon ſuch general Rules, the Application of which to particular Acts may make them pleaſing and acceptable to the Sight of GOD; always premiſing this which I have reſolv'd upon before, as the beſt Foundation, viz. to ſquare all my Actions by the Scripture Rule, and to do nothing, but what I have, ſome Way or other, a Warrant for in the Word of GOD. Upon this fix'd and ſteady Principle,

Resolution I.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to do every thing in Obedience to the Will of GOD.

IT is not ſufficient, that what I do is the Will of GOD, but I muſt therefore do it, becauſe it is the Will of GOD. For, what ſaith my Father? My Son, give me thine Heart, and let thine Eyes obſerve my Ways, Prov. xxiii. 26. So that my Father will not only have my Hand, but my Heart too: And my Feet muſt not walk in the Ways of GOD, till my Eyes have obſerv'd and diſcern'd them to be ſo. I may do an Action that in itſelf is good, and yet, at the ſame time, not do a good Action, if I do not therefore do it, becauſe it is ſo; Ex. gr. I may give an Alms to the Poor, feed the Hungry, or cloathe the Naked; But let me examine and conſider well, upon what Principle theſe Actions are founded, whether I therefore do them, becauſe GOD hath commanded them; if not, my Feeding of the Poor will be no more a good Action, than the Ravens Feeding the Prophet was, 1 Kings xvii. 6. Their Feeding of the Prophet was commanded by GOD, as well as my Feeding ing of the Poor; but I cannot ſay, they did a good Action, becauſe tho' they did do this which was commanded by GOD, yet being irrational Creatures, they could not reflect upon that Command, and ſo cou'd not do this in Obedience to it.

THERE are ſome Perſons, to the very Frame and Diſpoſition of whoſe Spirits ſome Sins are, in their Nature, odious and abominable. Thus I have known ſome, whoſe very Conſtitutions have carry'd them into an Antipathy to Luſt and Luxury; and others again, who cou'd never endure to drink beyond their Thirſt, much leſs to unman and be-beaſt themſelves by drinking to Exceſs. And the like may be obſerv'd of Covetouſneſs, which Luther was ſuch an Enemy to, that it is ſaid to be againſt his very Nature. Now, I ſay, tho' the Abſtaining from theſe Sins be highly commendable in all Sorts of Perſons, yet, unleſs, together with the Streams of their natural Diſpoſition, there run likewiſe a ſpiritual Deſire to pleaſe GOD, and obey His Commands, their Abſtaining from theſe Vices is no more than the Brute Beaſts themſelves do, who always act according to the Temper of their Bodies, and are never guilty of any Exceſſes that are prejudicial to them. Hence, Servants are commanded to be obedient to their Maſters, Maſters, with Good-Will doing Service as to the Lord, and not to Men, Eph. vi. 5, 6, 7. which clearly ſhews, that tho' a Servant doth obey his Maſter, yet if he doth not do it in Obedience unto GOD, he will not find Acceptance with Him. So that, whenſoever I ſet my Hand to any Action that is good, I muſt ſtill fix my Eye upon GOD's commanding of it, and do it only in Reſpect to that; as knowing, that if I give but a Farthing to the Poor, in all my Life, and do it in Obedience to GOD's Commands, it ſhall be accepted ſooner than theirs, who feed hundreds at their Table every day, and have not Reſpect to the ſame Command.

Do I ſee a poor Wretch ready to fall down to the Earth, for Want of a little Support, and my Bowels begin to yern towards him? let me ſearch into my Heart, and ſee what it is that raiſes this Compaſſion in me. If it flows only from a natural Tenderneſs to a Brother in Miſery, without Regard to the Love of GOD, who has commanded and enjoin'd it, the poor Man may be ſuccour'd and reliev'd, but GOD will not be pleas'd or delighted with it. Again, Do my Friends ſtir me up to pray or hear, or do any other Spiritual or Civil Action, and I therefore only do it, becauſe of their Importunity? I may ſatisfy my Friends Deſire, but cannot properly be ſaid ſaid to obey the Commands of GOD, in ſuch a Performance; ſo that the great and only Foundation that I muſt reſolve to build all the Actions of my Life upon, is an uniform Obedience to that GOD, by whom alone I am enabled to perform them.

Resolution II.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to do every thing with Prudence and Diſcretion, as well as with Zeal and Affection.

WHilst I am penn'd up in this earthly Tabernacle, I live almoſt as in a darkſome Dungeon, having no Light to work by, but a little that ſprings in at the narrow Crevices of my Underſtanding. So that I had need to make uſe of all that little Light and Knowledge I have, to regulate the Heat and Zeal that ſometimes ſits upon my Spirit. For, good Paſſions may ſometimes carry me into bad Actions; my Zeal, when hot in the Purſuits of GOD's Glory, may ſometimes hurry me beyond His Laws; eſpecially, where Chriſtian Prudence hath not firſt chalk'd out the Way, and ſet the Bounds for it: As, in Diſcourſe, Diſcourſe, my Zeal may put me upon throwing Pearls before Swine, or uſing Words, when Silence may be more commendable; So, in my Actions too, unleſs Wiſdom and Diſcretion govern and command my Affections, I ſhall frequently run into ſuch as wou'd be altogether needleſs and impertinent, and, therefore, ought to be omitted, and daily neglect ſeveral Duties, which ought to be perform'd.

But, my Underſtanding and Diſcretion is chiefly requiſite for the Ordering of Time and Place, and other particular Circumſtances, the irregular Management of which may eaſily ſpoil the beſt of Actions. For inſtance, That may be a good Work at one Time and Place, which is not at another; and may be very innocent and becoming in one Perſon, tho' quite contrary in another. It is, therefore, the proper Office of my Underſtanding, to point out the fitteſt Time, and Place, and Perſon, for the Performance of each Action I engage in. As for Example, In diſtributing to the Poor, my Hand of Charity muſt be either guided by the Eye of Underſtanding, where, when, how much, and to whom, to give; or elſe I may, at the ſame time, not only offend GOD, but wrong my Neighbour, and Myſelf too. And ſo for all other Actions whatſoever; which I ought, therefore, never ver to ſet myſelf about, tho' it be of the loweſt Rank, without conſulting the Rules of Wiſdom, model'd by the Law of GOD.

RESOLUTION III.

I am reſolved, by the Grace of GOD, never to ſet my Hand, my Head, or my Heart, about any thing, but what I verily believe is good in itſelf, and will be eſteem'd ſo by GOD.

WITHOUT Faith, the Apoſtle tells me, it is impoſſible to pleaſe GOD, Heb. xi. 5. For whatſoever is not of Faith, is Sin, Rom. xiv. 23. Where, by Faith, we are not to underſtand that ſaving Faith, whereby I believe my Perſon is juſtified through CHRIST; but that, whereby I believe my Works ſhall be accepted by GOD: For, Faith, here, is oppoſed to Doubting; and that, not about CHRIST's Dying for Me, or my Living in Him, but about the particular Actions of my Life. He that doubteth, ſaith the Apoſtle, is damned, if he eat; that is, He that eateth that, which he doubteth whether he may lawfully eat or no, is damn'd; becauſe he ſins in doing it, and, therefore, may be damn'd for for it. But, why ſo? Becauſe he eateth not of Faith: becauſe he doth that, which he knows not whether he may do or no, not believing it to be really good in itſelf, or acceptable unto GOD. And, tho' the Apoſtle here inſtances only in that particular Action of Eating, yet what he ſays with relation to that, is properly applicable to all the other Actions of Life: For, he afterwards ſubjoins, Whatſoever is not of Faith, is Sin; Whatſoever it is, good or bad, if not done by Faith, 'tis Sin.

And truly, this Particular will be of great Uſe through my whole Life, for the Avoiding of many Sins, and for the Doing of much Good: For, many things, which are good in themſelves, may, for want of Faith, become quite otherwiſe to me; my Heart not believing what I do is good, my Hand can never make it ſo. Or, if I think what I do is bad, tho' it be not ſo in itſelf, yet my very Thinking it ſo, will make it ſo to me.

And this is that which we call Doing any thing with a good Conſcience, or Keeping, as S. Paul did, our Conſcience void of Offence. And, to go contrary to the Dictates of my Conſcience in this Particular, is to tranſgreſs the Command of GOD. For in this, Conſcience is as GOD's Vicegerent in my Soul; what Conſcience commands, mands, GOD commands; what Conſcience forbids, GOD forbids; that is, I am as really under the Power of Conſcience, as the Commands of GOD, in ſuch a caſe. So that, if I do not obey the former, 'tis impoſſible for me to obey the latter. But how much, then, doth it behove me, to ſee, that my Conſcience be rightly inform'd in every thing? For, as, if a Judge be miſinform'd, 'tis impoſſible he ſhou'd paſs righteous Judgment; ſo, if Conſcience be miſinform'd, 'tis impoſſible I ſhould do a righteous Act. And, what a miſerable Caſe ſhall I then be in? If I do what in itſelf is ſinful, tho' my Conſcience tells me 'tis good, yet I ſin, becauſe the Act in itſelf is ſinful; and if I do what in itſelf is good, and my Conſcience tells me 'tis bad, I ſin, becauſe my Conſcience tells me 'tis ſo: So that as my Conſcience is, ſo will my Actions be.

FOR this Reaſon, I reſolve, in the Preſence of my great Creator, never to do any thing, till I have firſt inform'd my Conſcience, from the Word of GOD, whether it be lawful for me to do it, or no; or, in caſe it be not determin'd there, to make a ſtrict Search and Enquiry into each Circumſtance of it, conſidering with myſelf what Good or Evil may iſſue from it, and ſo, what Good or Evil there is in it; and, according as my Conſcience, upon the

the hearing of the Arguments on both ſides, ſhall decide the Matter, I ſhall do, or not do, it; never undertaking any thing upon meer Surmiſes, becauſe it may be good, but upon a real and thorow Perſuaſion, that it is ſo.

RESOLUTION IV.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to do all things for the Glory of GOD.

AS I was not made by, ſo neither for myſelf; for GOD, ſays the Wiſe-man, made all things for Himſelf, Prov. xvi. 4. And being thus made for GOD, it follows on courſe, that I ought to act for GOD; otherwiſe, I ſhall fruſtrate the End of my Creation. Inſomuch that whatſoever I make my chief Aim in what I do, I make that my GOD. Do I aim at the Glory of the All-glorious Jehovah? 'tis Him I make my GOD: Do I aim at Riches? then 'tis Mammon I make my God: And therefore is it, that Covetouſneſs is call'd Idolatry, Col. iii. 5. Do I aim at Pleaſures? 'tis my Senſes I make my God, Phil. iii. 19. Do I aim at Popular Applauſe, or Worldly Advancements? or, Do I aim at my own Health or Life? Theſe are my Gods. For what is Worſhipping, but making all the Powers of my Soul, and Actions of my Body, to bow and ſtoop to them? Hence it is, that the moſt High GOD, who hath ſaid, He will not give His Glory to another, hath been ſo expreſs in commanding me to do all things to His Glory; Whether ye eat or drink, ſays the Apoſtle, or whatſoever ye do, do all things to the Glory of GOD, 1 Cor. x. 31.

But how can I, poor Worm, be ſaid to do any thing to the Glory of the Eternal GOD? Why, in the ſame Manner as He is ſaid to do what He doth, for His own Glory. And how is that? By manifeſting His Glory unto others. Thus, if I can but ſo live and act, as thereby to evidence, that the GOD I ſerve is a Glorious GOD, Glorious in Holineſs, Glorious in Goodneſs, Glorious in Wiſdom, Glorious in Power, and the like; this is Doing all things to the Glory of GOD. For Example, By praying to GOD, I avouch Him to be a GOD infinite in Knowledge, that He is preſent with me, and hears me pray, whereſoever I am; and I own Him to be infinite in Mercy, in that He will ſuffer ſuch a ſinful Creature as I am, to addreſs myſelf to Him, &c. And ſo there is not the leaſt Action I undertake, but I am ſo to manage it, as to mani-manifeſt the Glory of GOD by it, making it my End and Deſign ſo to do; otherwiſe, let me do what I will, I am ſure to ſin; for tho', I confeſs, a good End can never make a bad Action good, yet a bad End will always make a good Action bad: So that, as ever I would do any thing that is good, I muſt be ſure to do it to the Glory of GOD.

RESOLUTION V.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to mingle ſuch Recreations with my Buſineſs, as to further my Buſineſs by my Recreations.

HAVING wholly devoted myſelf to GOD, All I have, or am, is ſtill to be improv'd for Him; inſomuch that was it not for the Neceſſities of Nature, every Moment of my Life ſhould, and ought to be ſpent in the immediate Worſhip and Service of Him. But tho' Nature requires ſome Time from my ſolemn Serving of Him, for the Recreating of myſelf; yet Grace requireth, that this Recreating of myſelf ſhould ſtill be for the Promoting His Service: So that my Recreations do not only fit me for farther Service, but they, in themſelves, ſhould be, ſome way or other, ſerviceable to Him; which that they may be, I muſt have as great a Care in the Choice, as in the Uſe, of my Recreations.

THERE are ſome Recreations that are ſo far from conducing to His Service, that they may make more for the Incenſing of His Wrath: As, Drinking and Gaming, which, tho' in themſelves lawful, yet, as they often prove an Occaſion of Swearing, Lying, Cheating, and Contention amongſt Men, and, by Conſequence, of Wrath in GOD; ſo they ought, by all means, to be ſhunn'd and avoided. Indeed, it may be queſtion'd, whether Gaming be ever a lawful Recreation? For, either it is a Lottery, or not. If it be a Lottery, it is not lawful, becauſe 'tis a great Preſumption and Sin, to ſet GOD at work to recreate ourſelves; for poor Nothings to employ the Chiefeſt Good, immediately to determine ſuch frivolous and trifling Impertinencies. If it be not a Lottery, then it is not a pure Recreation; for, if it depends upon Man's Wit and Study, it exerciſes his Brain and Spirits as much as if he was about other things: So that being, on one ſide, not lawful; on the other ſide, no Recreation; it can, on no ſide, be a lawful Recreation.

FOR,

FOR, what is the End of Recreation, but to revive my languiſhing Spirits, to let them reſt and be quiet a little, when they are tir'd with too much Exerciſe, that they may be freſher, livelier, and fitter for Work afterwards? Hence is it, that GOD indeed hath provided a Recreation for all ſenſible Creatures; Sleep, which is the Reſt of the Spirits in the Nerves. When the little Animal Spirits have been, all the Day, running up and down upon the Soul's Errands, then, to lie down ſtill and quiet, is a great Refreſhment and Revivement to them, provided, ſtill, that it be moderately uſed. Whereas, the Indulging ourſelves too much in it, is rather a Clogging and Stupifying of them; as we ſee in our Bodies, which, when not accuſtom'd to, are moſt averſe from, and unfit for Exerciſe.

SO that the chief and only Time for Recreation, is, when my Spirits are either weary with Labour and Study, or elſe call'd in to ſome neceſſary Employment in ſome other Place; as at and after Meals, eſpecially ſuch as are of a hard Digeſtion; for then the Spirits have enough to do, to turn the Food we eat into good Nouriſhment. And, therefore, the Intenſeneſs of Study, Running, Wreſtling, and ſuch-like violent Exerciſes, are not proper at ſuch a time; becauſe, as in Studying, we draw the Spirits from the Stomach to the Head; ſo, in the other Exerciſes, ſuch as moderate Walking, Conference, and free Diſcourſe, about common but neceſſary Points, we ſend them from the Stomach into other Parts of the Body, where they are to be ſet on-work.

But, that which I have found the beſt Recreation, both to my Body and Mind, whenſoever either of them ſtands in need of it, is Muſick, which exerciſes, at once, both my Body and my Soul; eſpecially, when I play myſelf. For then, methinks, the ſame Motion that my Hand makes upon the Inſtrument, the Inſtrument makes upon my Heart; it calls in my Spirits, compoſes my Thoughts, delights my Ear, recreates my Mind, and ſo, not only fits me for After-Buſineſs, but fills my Heart, at the preſent, with pure and uſeful Thoughts; ſo that when the Muſick ſounds the ſweetlieſt in my Ears, Truth commonly flows the cleareſt into my Mind. And hence it is, that I find my Soul is become more harmonious, by being accuſtom'd ſo much to Harmony, and ſo averſe to all manner of Diſcord, that the leaſt Jarring Sounds, either in Notes or Words, ſeem very harſh and unpleaſant to me.

That there is ſomething more than ordinary in Muſick, appears from David's making making Uſe of it, for driving away the Evil Spirit from Saul and Eliſha, and for the bringing of the Good Spirit upon Himſelf. From which I am induc'd to believe, that there is really a ſort of ſecret and charming Power in it, that naturally diſpells from the Mind, all or moſt of thoſe black Humours, which the Evil Spirit uſes to brood upon, and, by compoſing it into a more regular, ſweet, and docible Diſpoſition, renders it the fitter for the Holy Spirit to work upon, the more ſuſceptive of Divine Grace, and more faithful Meſſenger, whereby to convey Truth to the Underſtanding. But however that be, I muſt neceſſarily acknowledge, that of all Recreations, this is by far the more ſuitable to my Temper and Diſpoſition, in that it is not only an Exerciſe to my Body, but to my Mind too; my Spirits being thereby made the more nimble and active, and, by Conſequence, the fitter to wait upon my Soul, and be employ'd, by her, in whatſoever Buſineſs ſhe is engaged.

But in this, and all other Recreations, I muſt always take care, not to exceed my Meaſure, either in Point of Time, or Intention; I muſt not follow them too cloſe, nor ſpend too many Hours in them, but ſtill reſolve to uſe them, as that they may not become a Snare to me, but anſwer

the Ends for which they were design'd, that when GOD shall call me to it, I may give him as good an Account of my Recreations, as of my necessary Duties.

Concerning my Relations.

BUT be not deceiv'd, O my Soul; thou art not yet advanc'd far enough: 'Tis not sufficient, to pretend to Holiness in my Thoughts and Affections, and in my Words and Actions; unless I express it likewise in all the Relations and Conditions of Life. The Commandments of GOD are said to be exceeding Broad; they extend themselves to every Capacity I can possibly be in, not only enjoining me to live soberly in respect to Myself, but righteously to my Neighbour, obediently to my Sovereign, lovingly to my Wife, and faithfully to my People; otherwise, I cannot live holily unto GOD. And, therefore, if I wou'd be thorowly Religious, I must farther endeavour to fix my Resolutions with regard to the several Duties the most High expects from me, in all these particular Relations I bear to Him, during my Sojourning here on Earth.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to honour and obey the King, or Prince, whom GOD is pleaſed to ſet over Me, as well as to expect He ſhould ſafeguard and protect Me, whom GOD is pleas'd to ſet under Him.

THE King of Kings, and Lord of Lords, the great and glorious Monarch of all the World, having enacted many gracious Laws, is pleas'd to ſet over every Kingdom and Nation, ſuch Perſons as may put them in Execution. So that I cannot but look upon a lawful King, as truly a Repreſentative of the moſt High GOD, as a Parliament is of the People; and am, therefore, perſuaded, that whoſoever rebells againſt Him, rebells againſt GOD Himſelf; not only in that he rebells againſt the Ordinance of GOD, and ſo, againſt the GOD of that Ordinance; but becauſe he rebells againſt him, whom GOD hath ſet up as His Vicegerent, to repreſent His Perſon, and execute His Laws in ſuch a Part of His Dominions.

HENCE it is, that theſe two Precepts, Fear GOD, and honour the King, are ſo ſo often join'd together in Holy Writ; for he that fears GOD's Power, cannot but honour His Authority; and he that honours not the King, that repreſents GOD, cannot be ſaid to fear GOD, who is repreſented by him. And hence, likewiſe, it is, that GOD hath been as ſtrict and expreſs in enjoining us Obedience to our Governors, as to Himſelf: For, thus ſaith the Lord of Hoſts, Rom. xiii. 1. Let every Soul be ſubject to the Higher Powers. Why? becauſe there is no Power but of GOD; the Powers that be, are ordained of GOD.

AND He has denounc'd as great a Judgment againſt ſuch as rebell againſt the Magiſtrate He hath ordain'd, as againſt thoſe that rebell againſt Himſelf: For, whoſoever reſiſteth the Power, reſiſteth the Ordinance of GOD; and they that reſiſt, ſhall receive to themſelves Damnation, ver. 2. So that the Wrath of GOD ſhall as certainly fall upon thoſe that riſe up againſt the King, as upon thoſe that fight againſt GOD. And no wonder, that the Puniſhment ſhould be the ſame, when the Fault is the ſame: For he that fights againſt his King, fights againſt GOD Himſelf, who hath inveſted him with that Power and Authority to govern his People, repreſenting His own Glorious Majeſty before them.

UPON

UPON this Ground it is, that I believe, the Wickedneſs of a Prince cannot be a ſufficient Plea for the Diſobedience of his Subjects; for it is not the Holineſs, but the Authority of GOD that he repreſents, which the moſt wicked, as well as the moſt holy, Perſon may be endow'd with: And, therefore, when the Goſpel firſt began to ſpread itſelf over the Earth, tho' there was no Chriſtian King, or Supreme Magiſtrate, of what Title ſoever, to cheriſh and protect it; nay, tho' the Civil Powers were then the greateſt Enemies to it; yet, even then were the Diſciples of CHRIST enjoin'd to ſubmit themſelves to every Ordinance of Man, for the Lord's ſake.

INSOMUCH that did I live amongſt the Turks, I ſhould look upon it as my Duty to obey the Grand Seignior, in all his lawful Edicts, as well as the moſt Chriſtian and Pious King in the World. For, ſuppoſe a Prince be never ſo wicked and never ſo negligent in his Duty of protecting Me; it doth not follow, that I muſt neglect mine of obeying Him. In ſuch a caſe, I have another Duty added to this; and that is, to pray for him, and to intercede with GOD for his Converſion: For, thus hath the King of Kings commanded, that Prayers, Supplications, Interceſſions, and Giving of Thanks, be made as for all Men, Men, ſo, more eſpecially, for Kings, and thoſe that are in Authority, that we may live a quiet and peaceable Life, in all Godlineſs and Honeſty, 1 Tim. ii. 1, 2. So that, whenſoever I addreſs to the Court of Heaven, I muſt be ſure to remember my Sovereign on Earth, that GOD would be pleas'd to enable His Servant to reign on Earth, as Himſelf doth in Heaven, in Righteouſneſs and Mercy. But eſpecially, in caſe of any ſeeming or real Default, or Defect, tho' I do not think it a Subject's Duty to judge or cenſure his Sovereign's Actions, I am to be the more earneſt in my Prayers and Interceſſions for him; but, upon no Account, to fight or rebell againſt him.

And, if I am thus ſtrictly obliged to honour, obey, and pray for, a bad Prince, how much more ſhou'd I pay thoſe Duties to one, who repreſents GOD, not only in His Authority, but in His Holineſs too? In this caſe, ſure, as there is a double Engagement to Reverence and Obedience, ſo I am doubly puniſhable, if I neglect to ſhew it, either to the Prince himſelf, or thoſe that are ſet under him; for the ſame Obligations that lie upon me, for my Obedience to the King, bind me likewiſe to obey his inferiour Officers and Magiſtrates, that act under him; and that for this Reaſon, becauſe, as he repreſents GOD, ſo they repreſent repreſent him; and, therefore, whatever they command, in his Name, I look upon it as much my Duty to obey, as if it was commanded by his own Mouth, and, accordingly, do, from this Moment, by the Grace of GOD, reſolve to put this Duty in Practice.

RESOLUTION II.

I am reſolv'd, by the ſame Divine Grace, to be as conſtant in loving of my Wife, as cautious in chooſing her.

THOUGH it be not neceſſary for me to reſolve upon Marrying, yet it may not be improper, to reſolve, in caſe I ſhou'd, to follow theſe Rules of Duty; firſt, in the Choice of a Wife; and, ſecondly, in the Affection that I ought to bear towards her.

AS for the firſt, I ſhall always endeavour to make Choice of ſuch a Woman for my Spouſe, who hath firſt made Choice of CHRIST as a Spouſe for herſelf; that none may be made one Fleſh with me, who is not made one Spirit with CHRIST my Saviour. For, I look upon the Image of CHRIST, as the beſt Mark of Beauty ty I can behold in her; and the Grace of GOD, as the beſt Portion I can receive with her. Theſe are Excellencies, which, tho' not viſible to our Carnal Eyes, are nevertheleſs agreeable to a Spiritual Heart; and ſuch as all Wiſe and Good Men cannot chooſe but be enamour'd with. For my own part, they ſeem to me ſuch neceſſary Qualifications, that my Heart trembles at the Thoughts of ever having a Wife without them. What? Shall I marry one that is wedded already to her Sins? or have Poſſeſſion of her Body only, when the Devil has Poſſeſſion of her Soul? Shall ſuch a one be united to me here, who ſhall be ſeparated from me for ever hereafter, and condemn'd to ſcorch in everlaſting Burnings? No; if ever it be my Lot to enter into that State, I beg of GOD, that He wou'd direct me in the Choice of ſuch a Wife only, to lie in my Boſom here, as may afterwards be admitted to reſt in Abraham's Boſom to all Eternity; ſuch a one, as will ſo live, and pray, and converſe with me upon Earth, that we may both be entitled to ſing, to rejoice, and be bleſſed together, for ever, in Heaven.

THAT this, therefore, may be my Portion and Felicity, I firmly reſolve, never to ſet upon ſuch a Deſign, before I have firſt firſt ſolicited the Throne of Grace, and begg'd of my Heavenly Father, to honour me with the Partnerſhip of one of His beloved Children; and ſhall afterwards be as careful and cautious as I can, never to fix my Affections upon any Woman for a Wife, till I am throughly perſuaded of the Grounds I have to love her, as a true Chriſtian.

If I cou'd be thus happy, as to meet with a Wife of theſe Qualities and Endowments, it wou'd be impoſſible for me not to be hearty and ſincere in my Affection toward her, even tho' I had the greateſt Temptations to place them upon another: For, how cou'd I chooſe but love her, who has GOD for her Father, the Church for her Mother, and Heaven for her Portion; who loves GOD, and is belov'd of Him? Eſpecially, when I conſider, that thus to love her, will not only be my Duty, but my Happineſs too.

As to the Duty, it is frequently inculcated in Scripture, that Husbands ſhou'd love their Wives, and that not with a common Love, but as Christ loved His Church, Eph. v. 25. yea, as their own Body, ver. 28. or, as themſelves, ver. 33. and they are ſo to love them, as not to be bitter againſt them, Col. iii. 19. not to be paſſionate or angry with them, upon every light Matter, ter, nor ſuffer their Reſentments to riſe to that Height, upon any Occaſion whatſoever, as to abate the leaſt Spark of Conjugal Affection towards them, but to nouriſh and cheriſh them, even as the Lord the Church. In a word, To do all the kind Offices they can for them, in their Civil Capacities, and to help and forward them, by all means poſſible, in the Way that leads to Heaven; that as they are united in the Fleſh, ſo they may likewiſe be united in the Spirit, and rais'd and rewarded together, at the General Reſurrection.

And, as Love is the Great Duty, ſo is it likewiſe the Chief Happineſs of a marry'd State. I do not mean that Love whereby ſhe loves me, but that wherewith I love her; for, if I myſelf have not a Cordial Eſteem and Affection for her, what Happineſs will it be to me, to be belov'd by her? or rather, what a Miſery wou'd it be, to be forced to live with one I know I cannot love? As ever, therefore, I deſire to be happy, I muſt perform my Duty in this Particular, and never aim at any other End in the Choice of a Wife, or expect any other Happineſs in the Enjoyment of her, but what is founded in the Principle of pure and inviolable Love. If I ſhou'd court and marry a Woman for Riches, then, whenever They fail, or take their Flight, my Love and my Happineſs muſt drop and vaniſh together with them. If I chooſe her for Beauty only, I ſhall love her no longer than while That continues, which is only till Age or Sickneſs blaſts it, and then farewell, at once, both Duty and Delight.

Riches,

But if I love her for her Vertues, and for the ſake of GOD, who has enjoin'd it as a Duty, that our Affections ſhou'd not be alienated, or ſeparated, by any thing but Death; then, tho' all the other ſandy Foundations fail, yet will my Happineſs remain entire; even tho' I ſhou'd not perceive thoſe mutual Returns of Love, which are due to me from her upon the ſame Bottom. But Oh! the Happineſs of that Couple, whoſe Inclinations to each other are as mutual as their Duties; whoſe Affections, as well as Perſons, are link'd together with the ſame Tye! This is the chief Condition requir'd to make the State of Matrimony happy or deſirable, and ſhall be the chief Motive, with me, to induce me to enter into it. For, tho' it be no Happineſs to be belov'd by one I do not love; yet it is, certainly, a very great one to be belov'd by one I do. If this, then, be my Lot, to have mutual Expreſſions of Love from the Perſon I fix my Affections upon, What Joy and Comfort will it raiſe in my Heart? With what Peace and Amity ſhall we live together here? and, What Glory and Felicity may we not promiſe ourſelves hereafter?

WHAT is here ſaid of the Duty in chooſing and loving of a Wife, may be likewiſe apply'd to the Woman's Duty in chooſing and loving her Husband. But being not ſo immediately concern'd in this, I paſs on to my next Reſolution.

RESOLUTION III.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to do my Endeavour to give to GOD whatſoever Children He ſhall be pleas'd to give to me, that as they are mine by Nature, they may be His by Grace.

I HAVE ſometimes wonder'd at the Providence of GOD, in bringing ſo many Millions of People out of the Loins of one Man; and cannot but make this Uſe of it, even to ſtir up myſelf to a double Diligence, in bringing up my Children in the Nurture and Admonition of the Lord. For, who knows, but the Salvation of of Ten Thouſand Souls may depend upon the Education of one ſingle Child?

If I train up my Son in the Ways of Religion, and teach him what it is to keep a Conſcience void of Offence, towards GOD, and towards Man; he will then not only have an inward Senſe of his own Duty, but take all poſſible Care to inſtill it into others, whether Children or Servants, that are committed to his Charge: And theſe, again, will do the ſame to theirs, by teaching them to walk in the ſame Path; till, by Degrees, the Piety and Holineſs of one Man has diffus'd itſelf to all ſucceeding Generations. But now, on the other hand, if I neglect the Care of my Son's Education, and ſuffer the Leproſy of Sin and Wickedneſs to taint and corrupt him, 'tis great Odds, without an extraordinary Interpoſition of Divine Grace, but the Infection may ſpread itſelf over all my Poſterity; and ſo draw down upon me the Curſes and Accuſations of Ten Thouſand Souls in Hell, which might otherwiſe have been praiſing and bleſſing GOD, for me, to all Eternity, in Heaven.

Hence it is, that I am reſolv'd to endeavour to be a Spiritual, as well as Natural Father to my Children; yea, to take more Care to get a Portion for their Souls in Heaven, than to make Proviſion for their Bodies upon Earth. For, if he be accounted worſe than an Infidel, that provides not, for his Family, the Suſtenance of their Bodies, What is he that ſuffers his Family to neglect the Salvation of their Souls?

THAT nothing of this, therefore, may be laid to my Charge, if ever Providence ſees fit to bleſs me with Children of my own, I'll take effectual Care, ſo ſoon as conveniently I can, to devote them unto GOD by Baptiſm, that what Guilt they have contracted, by coming through my Loins, may be waſh'd away by the Laver of Regeneration; and then to be conſtantly ſoliciting the Throne of Grace, that He who hath given them to me, would be pleaſed to give Himſelf to them.

THE next thing to be done, as ſoon as they come to be capable of Inſtruction, is, To take all Occaſions, and make uſe of all Means, to work the Knowledge of GOD into their Heads, and the Grace of CHRIST into their Hearts; by teaching them to remember their Creator in the Days of their Youth; by acquainting them with the Duties that He that made them expects from them; with the Rewards they ſhall have, if dutiful; and the Puniſhments they ſhall feel, if diſobedient Children; ſtill accommodating my Expreſſions to the ſhallow Capacity of their tender Years.

Years. And, according to their doing, or not doing, of what they have been told, I ſhall reward them with what is moſt pleaſing, or puniſh them with what is moſt diſpleaſing to their Years. To ſpeak to them of Heaven, and Eternal Glory, will not encourage them ſo much, as to give them their Childiſh Pleaſures and Deſires: And the denouncing of a future Hell will not affright them ſo much, as the inflicting a preſent Smart. Hence it is, that Solomon ſo oft inculcates this upon Parents, as their Duty to their Children, that they ſhould not ſpare the Rod, leſt they ſpoil the Child.

BUT I muſt ſtill take care, to let them underſtand, that what I do is from a Principle of Love and Affection to them, not of Fury and Indignation againſt them. For, by this means, GOD may correct me for correcting them; I may ſet before my Children ſuch an Example of indiſcreet and ſinful Paſſion, as they'll be apt enough to learn, without my teaching them. On the other hand, it behoves me, if poſſible, ſo to order my Family, that my Children may not ſee or hear, and ſo not learn, any thing but Goodneſs in it; for commonly, according to what we learn when we are Young, we practiſe when we are Old. And, therefore, as I ſhall take great Care, that my Children learn nothing that is Evil or Sinful at Home, ſo likewiſe, that they do not come into ſuch Company Abroad, where their Innocence may be aſſaulted with Swearing, Curſing, or any kind of Prophane or Obſcene Diſcourſe, which the Generality of our Youth are ſo obnoxious to.

OR, at leaſt, if this is not wholly to be avoided, to prevent theſe poiſonous Weeds from taking Root in the Heart, it behoves me to take all Opportunities of diſcourſing to them of GOD and CHRIST, of the Immortality of their Souls, and the future State they are to be doom'd to in another World, when they have liv'd a little while in this; that, according as they grow in Years, they may grow in Grace, and in the Knowledge of our Lord and Saviour CHRIST. And when they come to Years of Diſcretion, capable of doing farther Honour and Service to GOD and their Country, by ſome Calling or Profeſſion, I muſt be ſure to place them in ſuch a one, as may be no Hindrance to that High and Heavenly Calling, which they have in CHRIST JESUS, but rather contribute to further and promote it; that being, like tender Plants, engrafted into the true Vine, they may bring forth much Fruit to GOD's Glory, to my Comfort, and their own Salvation.

Resolution IV.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to do my Duty to my Servants, as well as expect they ſhould do theirs to me.

IT was Joſhua's, and, by GOD's Grace, it ſhall be my Reſolution, that I and my Houſe will ſerve the Lord. I, in the firſt place, and then my Houſe; for if I myſelf do not, I cannot expect that they ſhould. So that, for the ordering of my Family in general, I muſt not only preſs their Duty upon them, but likewiſe practiſe my own Duty, in Suppreſſing all vicious and lewd Converſation, and Compoſing all Strife and Contention amongſt them; in Praying every Day, at the leaſt, twice with them; in Catechizing and Expounding the Principles of Religion to them, and in Calling for an Account of every Sermon and Godly Diſcourſe they hear, either in Private or in Publick; in Seeing that they conſtantly frequent the Divine Ordinances, and that they behave themſelves ſo conſcientiouſly therein, that they may be, ſome way or other, the better by them. And to theſe Ends, I think it my Duty, to allow my Servants ſome Time, every Day, wherein to ſerve GOD, as well as to ſee they ſpend their other Hours in ſerving me; and to make them ſenſible, that they do not ſerve me only for myſelf, but ultimately and principally in reference unto GOD; their ſerving me making way for my better ſerving GOD.

AND, for this Reaſon, I cannot believe, but 'tis as great a Sin, to cumber my Servants, as Myſelf, with too much worldly Buſineſs. For, how can they ſpend any Time in the Service of GOD, when I require all their Time in my own? And, how juſtly ſhou'd I be condemn'd, if, by this means, I ſhou'd bring them into a ſort of Neceſſity of ſinning, either in not obeying GOD, or not obeying Me. Not that I think it a Servant's Duty, to neglect His Creator to ſerve his Maſter; on the contrary, he is obliged, in all Caſes, where their Commands interfere, to obey GOD rather than Man. But where they do not, there is a ſtrict Injunction upon all Servants, that they ſhou'd be obedient to their Maſters according to the Fleſh, with Fear and Trembling, in Singleneſs of Heart, as unto CHRIST, Epheſ. vi. 5. But, how with Fear and Trembling? Why, fearing leſt they ſhould offend GOD, in offending them, and trembling at the Thoughts Thoughts of being diſobedient to the Divine Command, which enjoins them to be obedient to their Maſters in all things, not anſwering again, Tit. ii. 9. that is, not repining at their Maſters lawful Commands, nor muttering and maundring againſt them as ſome are apt to do. For 'tis as great a Sin in Servants, to ſpeak irreverently to their Maſters, as in Maſters to ſpeak paſſionately to their Servants.

BUT how are Servants to give Obedience to their Maſters, with Singleneſs of Heart, as unto CHRIST? Why, by obeying them only in Obedience unto CHRIST; that is, they are therefore to do their Maſters Will, becauſe 'tis the LORD's Will they ſhould do it; ſerving them, not with Eye-ſervice, as Men-pleaſers, but as the Servants of CHRIST, doing the Will of GOD from the Heart, with Good-Will doing Service, as to the Lord, and not to Men, Eph. vi. 6, 7. Col. iii. 22. This is the Duty, therefore, that I ſhall be oft inculcating upon my Servants, and ſhall as oft be reflecting upon myſelf, that what I require for my own Service may be always in Subordination to GOD's, who is our common Lord and Maſter, whoſe Laws are equally obliging to all Ranks and Conditions of Men, and in whoſe Sight there is no Reſpect of Perſons.

RESO-

Resolution V.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to feed the Flock, that GOD ſhall ſet me over, with wholſome Food, neither ſtarving them by Idleneſs, poiſoning them with Error, nor puffing them up with Impertinencies.

AND here I cannot but declare, that ever ſince I knew what it was to ſtudy, I have found, by Experience, that Spiritual and Intellectual Pleaſures do as far ſurpaſs thoſe that are Temporal and Senſual, as the Soul exceeds the Body. And, for this Reaſon, as I always thought the Study and Profeſſion of Divinity to be the nobleſt and moſt agreeable of all others, as carrying with it its own Encouragement and Reward; ſo I have often wonder'd with myſelf, that the greateſt Perſons in the World ſhou'd not be deſirous and ambitious of exerciſing their Parts in the Study of this neceſſary, as well as ſublime, Science, and even devoting themſelves to the Profeſſion of it. For, Do they aſpire after Honour? What greater greater Honour can there be, than to be the Mouth of GOD to the People, and of the People unto GOD; to have the Moſt High Himſelf, not only to ſpeak by them, but in them too? What greater Honour, than to have a Commiſſion from the King of Kings, to repreſent Himſelf before His People, and call upon them, in His Name, to turn from the Error of their Ways, and walk in the Paths of GOD to everlaſting Glory? What greater Honour, than to be an Inſtrument, in His Hand, to bring poor Souls from the Gates of Hell, to ſet them among Princes in the Court of Heaven? Do they thirſt after Pleaſures? What greater Pleaſure can they have, than to make it their Buſineſs to feed themſelves and others, with the Bread and Water of Life?

But ſtay, my Soul, let not thy Thoughts run only upon the Dignity of thy Function, and the Spiritual Pleaſures that attend the faithful Diſcharge of it; but think, likewiſe, upon the ſtrict Account thou muſt give of it in another Life: The ſerious Conſideration of which, as it cannot but be a great Comfort to the true and faithful Paſtor, who has diligently fed his Flock with the ſincere Milk of GOD's Word; ſo muſt it be a great Terror and Confuſion to the ſlothful and negligent, the falſe falſe and deceitful Diſpenſers of the Divine Myſteries, who have either careleſly loſt, or treacherouſly deluded, the Souls of thoſe committed to their Charge, which they muſt, one day, anſwer for, as well as for their own. And, therefore, that nothing of this kind may ever be laid to my Charge, I ſolemnly promiſe and reſolve, before GOD, ſo to demean myſelf in the Exerciſe of my Miniſterial Function, as to make the Care of Souls, eſpecially of thoſe committed to my Charge, the chief Study and Buſineſs of my Life.

And that without Partiality or Exception; I muſt not ſingle out ſome of the beſt of my Flock, ſuch as I have the higheſt Reſpect for, or have receiv'd the greateſt Obligations from; but miniſter to every one, according to their ſeveral Neceſſities. If I meet with Men of Knowledge and Vertue, my Buſineſs muſt be to confirm and eſtabliſh them therein; if with thoſe that are ignorant and immoral, to teach and inſtruct them in the Ways of Religion, and, by all means poſſible, to reclaim and reduce them to the Exerciſe of their Duty; always remembring, that as the Bleſſed Jesus, the great Shepherd and Biſhop of our Souls, was not ſent, ſave unto the loſt Sheep of the Houſe of Iſrael; and came not to call the Righteous, but Sinners

to Repentance; ſo it is the indiſpenſable Duty of His Apoſtles and Miniſters, (and, by the Grace of GOD, I ſhall make it mine) to follow His Example in this Particular; to ſpare no Time nor Pains in the Reformation of Sinners, tho' it be never ſo irkſome and difficult to accompliſh; even tho' I ſhou'd meet with ſuch as the Prophet David ſpeaks of, who hate to be reformed, and caſt my Words behind them. And, therefore, as I know 'tis my Duty, ſo I ſhall always endeavour to take Pleaſure in the ſeveral Offices I perform of this kind, to ſtrengthen the Weak, heal the Wounded, and bind up the Broken Heart; to call in thoſe that err and go aſtray, and to ſeek and ſave thoſe that are loſt.

To theſe Ends, tho' Preaching is, without doubt, a moſt excellent and uſeful, as well as neceſſary Duty, (eſpecially, if it be perform'd, as it ought, with Zeal and Reverence, and the Doctrine apply'd and preſs'd home, with Sincerity of Affection) yet, I ſhall not think it ſufficient to inſtruct my People only from the Pulpit, but take all Opportunities to inſtill good Thoughts and Principles into their Minds, in my private Converſation. I know, it is impoſſible for all Miniſters frequently to viſit every particular Perſon or Family in their Pariſh, there being, in

ſome Pariſhes, eſpecially in and about London, ſo many Thouſands of Souls: But, howſoever, if it ſhould pleaſe the Lord, to call me to ſuch a Flock, tho' I cannot viſit all, I ſhall viſit as many as I can; eſpecially, thoſe that are Sick and Infirm, and be ſure to feed them with the ſincere Milk of the Word, ſuch as may turn to their Spiritual Nouriſhment, and make them grow in Grace, and in the Knowledge of our Lord and Saviour JESUS CHRIST. I will not fill their Heads with Speculative Notions and Niceties in Divinity; (which, among the leſs Judicious, are very often the Occaſion of Hereſy and Error, and ſometimes alſo, of Deluſion and Diſtraction) But my chief Care ſhall be to inſtruct them in thoſe neceſſary Truths, which their Chriſtian Faith indiſpenſably obliges them to know and believe, and preſs them to the Performance of thoſe Duties, without which they cannot be ſav'd; meekly and impartially reproving the particular Vices they are moſt inclin'd and addicted to, and chearfully encouraging and improving whatever vertuous Actions they are, any of them, exemplary in, and whatever good Habits or Inclinations the Divine Grace has put into their Hearts.

AND

And ſince Love and Charity is the great Characteriſtick of our Profeſſion, the Bond and Cement of all other Chriſtian Duties, in order to make my Miniſtry the more ſucceſsful, I reſolve, in the laſt place, not only to avoid all Differences and Diſputes with them myſelf, but amicably to compoſe all ſuch as may ariſe among the Neighbours. In a word, I ſhall make it my Endeavour, in all things, ſo to approve myſelf as a faithful Miniſter, both in Life and Doctrine, before them, that, at the Laſt Day, when the great GOD ſhall call for my Pariſh, and myſelf to appear before Him, I may be fitly prepared to give an Account of Both; at leaſt, to anſwer for as many of them as He requires; and may, with Joy and Comfort, pronounce this Sentence of my Saviour, if it may, without Offence, be apply'd to His Miniſters, Behold, I and the Children which Thou haſt given me.

Resolution VI.

I am resolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to be as faithful and constant to my Friend, as I would have my Friend to be faithful and constant to Me.

Having before resolv'd to be zealous in loving GOD, I here resolve to be as constant in loving my Friend. But why do I resolve upon this? Is it possible to live, and not to love? this to me seems as plain a Contradiction, as to live, and not to live. For Love, in my Opinion, is as much the Life of the Soul, as the Soul is the Life of the Body. So that, for my own part, I shall expect to cease to live, at the very Moment that I cease to love; nay, I do not look upon Love only as my Life, but as the Joy and Comfort of it too. And, for this Reason, I shall never envy any Man his Riches, Pleasures, or Preferments, provided that I can but enjoy the Persons my Soul delights in, viz. Christ in the first place, and my Friend and Neighbour in the second.

But then I must have a great Care, where, and how, I place this Affection; for, if I place it wrong, my very Loving will be Sin-

Sinning. And, therefore, I ſhall always endeavour to make ſuch only my Friends, as are Friends to GOD. Not that I look upon it as neceſſary to love my Friends always under that Notion only, as they are Friends of GOD; for then, no Love but that which is Spiritual would be lawful; whereas, there is, doubtleſs, a Natural Love, that is no leſs a Duty, and, by Conſequence, no leſs lawful, than the other; as, the Love of Parents towards their Children; and Children towards their Parents; and the mutual Complacency that ariſes betwixt Friends, as well as Relations, from the Harmony and Agreement of Humours and Tempers. Thus our Saviour is ſaid to have lov'd S. John more than any of His other Diſciples, which cannot be underſtood of a Spiritual Love; for this, undoubtedly, was equal to all; but being a Man ſubject to the like Paſſions (tho' not Imperfections) as we are, He placed more Natural Affection upon, and might have more Natural Complacency in, John, than in His other Diſciples.

And, therefore, when I ſay, I am to make ſuch my Friends only, as are Friends to GOD, my Meaning is, That I will make none my Friends, but ſuch as I know to be good Men, and good Chriſtians, ſuch as deſerve my Love in a Spiritual, as well as a Natural, Senſe: And ſince I may lawfully love my Friend in both theſe Senſes, the one is ſo far from being excluſive, that it is really perfective, of the other. And for this Reaſon, as the Spiritual Good of my Friend is always to be preferr'd before that which is Temporal, I am reſolv'd to found the one upon the other. I will always be ready, as oft as he ſtands in need, either for my Advice, Encouragement, or Aſſiſtance, to do him all the kind Offices I can in his worldly Affairs, to promote his Intereſt, vindicate his Character from ſecret Aſperſions, and defend his Perſon from open Aſſaults; to be faithful and punctual in the Performance of my Promiſes to him, as well as in keeping the Secrets he has entruſted me with. But all theſe things are to be done with a tender Regard to the Honour of GOD, and the Duties of Religion; ſo that the Services I do him in his Temporal Concerns, muſt ſtill be conſiſtent with, and ſubſervient to, the Spiritual Intereſt and Welfare of his Immortal Soul, in which I am principally oblig'd to manifeſt my Friendſhip towards him. If I ſee him wander out of the right Way, I muſt immediately take care to advertiſe him of it, and uſe the beſt Means I can to bring him back to it: Or if I know him him to be guilty of any reigning Vices, I muſt endeavour to convince him of the Danger and Malignity of them, and importune and perſuade him to amend and forſake them. And laſtly, I muſt be as conſtant in keeping my Friend, as cautious in chooſing him; ſtill continuing the Heat of my Affections towards him, in the Day of his Affliction, as well as in the Height of his Proſperity.

THESE are the Rules whereby I reſolve to expreſs My Friendſhip unto Others, and whereby I would have Others to expreſs Their Friendſhip unto Me.

Concerning my Talents.

HAVING ſo ſolemnly devoted myſelf to GOD, according to the Covenant He hath made with me, and the Duty I owe to Him; not only what I am, and what I do, but likewiſe what I have, is ſtill to be improv'd for Him. And this I am bound to, not only upon a federal, but even a natural, Account; for whatſoever I have, I receiv'd from Him, and, therefore, all the Reaſon in the World, whatſoever I have, ſhou'd be improv'd for Him. For I look upon myſelf as having no other Propriety in what I enjoy, than a Servant hath in what he is entruſted with, to improve for his Maſter's Uſe: Thus, tho' I ſhould have Ten Thouſand Pounds a Year, I ſhould have no more of my own, than if I had but Two Pence in all the World. For it is only committed to my Care for a Seaſon, to be employ'd and improv'd to the beſt Advantage, and will be call'd for again at the grand Audit, when I muſt anſwer for the Uſe or Abuſe of it; ſo that whatſoever, in a Civil Senſe, I can call my own, that, in a Spiritual Senſe, I muſt eſteem as GOD's. And, therefore, it nearly concerns me, to manage all the Talents I am entruſted with, as Things I muſt give a ſtrict Account for, at the Day of Judgment. As GOD beſtows His Mercies upon me, through the Greatneſs of His Love and Affection, ſo I am to reſtore His Mercies back again to Him, by the Holineſs of my Life and Converſation. In a word, whatever I receive from His Bounty, I muſt, ſome way or other, lay out for His Glory, accounting nothing mine own, any farther than as I improve it for GOD's ſake, and the ſpiritual Comfort of my own Soul.

In order to this, I ſhall make it my Endeavour, by the Bleſſing of GOD, to put in Practice the following Reſolutions.

Resolution I.

I am reſolv'd, if poſſible, to redeem my Time paſt, by uſing a double Diligence for the future, to employ and improve all the Gifts, and Endowments, both of Body, and Mind, to the Glory and Service of my great Creator.

Time, Health, and Parts, are three precious Talents, generally beſtow'd upon Men, but ſeldom improv'd for GOD. To go no farther than myſelf; How much Time and Health have I enjoy'd, by GOD's Grace? and, how little of it have I laid out for His Honour? On the contrary, How oft have I offended, affronted, and provok'd Him, even when He has been courting me with His Favours, and daily pouring forth His Benefits upon me? This, alas! is a ſad Truth, which whenſoever I ſeriouſly reflect upon, I cannot but acknowledge the Continuance of my Life as the greateſt Inſtance of GOD's Mercy and Goodneſs, as well as the greateſt Motive to my Gratitude and Obedience. In a due Senſe, therefore, of the Vanities and Follies of my younger Years, I deſire to take Shame to myſelf for what is paſt, and do, this Morning, humbly proſtrate myſelf before the Throne of Grace, to implore GOD's Pardon, and to make ſolemn Promiſes and Reſolutions, for the future, to caſt off the Works of Darkneſs, and to put on the Armour of Light; And not only ſo, but to redeem the precious Minutes I have ſquander'd away, by huſbanding thoſe that remain, to the beſt Advantage. I will not trifle and ſin away my Time in the Pleaſures of Senſe, or the Impertinencies of Buſineſs, but ſhall always employ it in Things that are neceſſary and uſeful, and proportion it to the Weight and Importance of the Work or Buſineſs I engage myſelf in; allotting ſuch a Part of it for This Buſineſs, and ſuch a Part for That, ſo as to leave no Intervals for unlawful, or neceſſary Actions, to thruſt themſelves in, and pollute my Life and Converſation.

FOR, ſince it has pleas'd GOD to favour me with the Bleſſing of Health, and I am not certain how ſoon I may be depriv'd of it, and thrown upon a Bed of Sickneſs, which may deprive me of the Uſe of my Reaſon, or make me uncapable of any thing elſe, but grappling with my Diſtemper; it highly concerns me to make a due Uſe of this Bleſſing, while I have it;

it; to improve theſe Parts and Gifts that GOD has endow'd me with, to the Manifeſtation of His Glory, the Salvation of my Soul, and the publick Good of the Community whereof I am a Member.

To theſe Ends, it will be requiſite for me frequently to conſider with myſelf, which way my weak Parts may be the moſt uſefully employ'd, and to bend them to thoſe Studies or Actions, which they are naturally the moſt inclin'd to, and delighted in, with the utmoſt Vigour and Application; more particularly, in Spiritual Matters, to make uſe of all Opportunities for the convincing others of GOD's Love to them, and their Sins againſt GOD, of their Miſery by Nature, and Happineſs by CHRIST; and when the Truth of GOD happens to be any ways traduc'd or oppos'd, to be as valiant in the Defence of it, as its Enemies are violent in their Aſſaults againſt it. And as I thus reſolve to employ my inward Gifts and Faculties for the Glory and Service of GOD; ſo,

Resolution II.

I am reſolv'd, by the Divine Grace, to employ my Riches, the outward Bleſſings of Providence, to the ſame end; and to obſerve ſuch a due Medium in the Diſpenſing of them, as to avoid Prodigality on the one hand, and Covetouſneſs on the other.

THis, without doubt, is a neceſſary Reſolution, but is likewiſe very difficult to put in Practice, without a careful Obſervance of the following Rules.

First, Never to laviſh out my Subſtance, like the Prodigal, in the Revels of Sin and Vanity, but, after a due Proviſion for the Neceſſities and Conveniencies of Life, to lay up the Overplus for the Acts of Love and Charity toward my indigent Brethren. I muſt conſider the Uſes and Ends for which GOD has entruſted me with ſuch and ſuch Poſſeſſions; that they were not given me for the Pampering my Body, the Feeding my Luſts, or Puffing me up with Pride and Ambition; but for Advancing His Glory and my own, and the Publick Good. But why do I ſay given? when, as I before obſerv'd, I have no no Propriety in the Riches I poſſeſs: They are only lent me for a few Years, to be diſpens'd and diſtributed, as my Great Lord and Maſter ſees fit to appoint, viz. for the Benefit of the Poor and Neceſſitous, which He has made His Deputies, to call for and receive His Money at my Hands. And this, indeed, is the beſt Uſe I can put it to, for my own Advantage, as well as theirs: For the Money I beſtow upon the Poor, I give to GOD to lay up for me, and I have His infallible Word and Promiſe for it, that it ſhall be paid me again with unlimited Intereſt, out of His Heavenly Treaſure, which is Infinite, Eternal, and Inexhauſtible. Hence it is, that whenſoever I ſee any fit Object of Charity, methinks I hear the Moſt High ſay unto me, Give this poor Brother ſo much of My Stock, which thou haſt in thy Hand, and I will place it to thy Account, as given to Myſelf; and, Look what thou layeſt out, and it ſhall be paid thee again.

THE ſecond Rule is, Never to ſpend a Penny, where it can be better ſpar'd; nor to ſpare it, where it can be better ſpent. And this will oblige me, whenſoever any Occaſion offers, of laying out Money, conſiderately to weigh the Circumſtances of it, and, according as the Matter, upon mature Deliberation, requires, I muſt not grudge grudge to ſpend it: Or, if, at any time, I find more Reaſon to ſpare, I muſt not dare to ſpend it; ſtill remembring, that as I am ſtrictly to account for the Money GOD has given me, ſo I ought neither to be covetous in ſaving, or hoarding it up, nor profuſe in throwing it away, without a juſt Occaſion. The main thing to be regarded is, the End I propoſe to myſelf in my Expences, whether it be really the Glory of GOD, or my own carnal Humour and Appetite. For Inſtance, If I lay out my Money in cloathing my Body, the Queſtion muſt be, whether I do this only for Warmth and Decency, or to gratify my Pride and Vanity? If the former, my Money is better ſpent; if the latter, 'tis better ſpar'd than ſpent. Again, Do I lay it out in Eating and Drinking? If this be only to ſatisfy the Neceſſities of Nature, and make my Life the more eaſy and comfortable, it is, without doubt, very well ſpent; but if it be to feed my Luxury and Intemperance, 'tis much better ſpar'd; better for my Soul in keeping it from Sin, and better for my Body in preſerving it from Sickneſs. And this Rule is the more ſtrictly to be obſerv'd, becauſe 'tis as great a Fault in a Servant not to lay out his Maſter's Money when he ſhould, as to lay it out when he ſhould not.

In order, therefore, to avoid both theſe Extremes, there is a third Rule to be obſerv'd, under this Reſolution; and that is, to keep a particular Account of all my Receipts and Diſburſements, to ſet down, in a Book, every Penny I receive at the Hands of the Almighty, and every Penny I lay out for His Honour and Service. By this Means, I ſhall be, in a manner, forc'd both to get my Money lawfully, and to lay it out carefully; for how can I put that amongſt the Money I have receiv'd from GOD, which I have got by unlawful Means? certainly, ſuch Money I may rather account as receiv'd from the Devil, for his Uſe, than from GOD, for His. And ſo muſt I either lay every Penny out for GOD, or otherwiſe I ſhall not know where to ſet it down; for I muſt ſet down nothing but what I lay out for His Uſe; and if it be not for His Uſe, with what Face can I ſay it was? And, by this means, alſo, when GOD ſhall be pleas'd to call me to an Account for what I receiv'd from Him, I may with Comfort appear before Him; and having improv'd the Talents He had committed to my Charge, I may be receiv'd into His Heavenly Kingdom, with a well done, good and faithful Servant, enter thou into thy Maſter's Joy.

Resolution III.

I am resolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to improve the Authority GOD gives me over others, to the Suppression of Vice, and the Encouragement of Vertue; and so, for the Exaltation of GOD's Name on Earth, and their Souls in Heaven.

THat all Power and Authority hath its Original from GOD, and that one Creature is not over another, but by the Providence and Will of Him, who is over all; and, by Consequence, That all the Authority we have over Men is to be improv'd for GOD, is clear, not only from that Question, Who made thee to differ from another? and, What hast thou which thou didst not receive? 1 Cor. iv. 7. but likewise, and that more clearly, from that positive Assertion, The Powers that be, are ordain'd of GOD, Rom. xiii. 1. That, therefore, I may follow my Commission, I must stick close to my present Resolution, even in all the Power GOD gives me, to behave myself as one invested with that Power from above, to restrain Vice and encourage Vertue, Vertue, as oft as I have an Opportunity ſo to do, always looking upon myſelf, as one commiſſion'd by Him, and acting under Him. For this Reaſon, I muſt ſtill endeavour to exerciſe my Authority, as if the moſt High GOD was in my Place in Perſon, as well as Power. I muſt not follow the Dictates of my own carnal Reaſon, much leſs the Humours of my own biaſs'd Paſſion, but ſtill keep to the Acts which GOD Himſelf hath made, either in the general Statute-Book for all the World, the Holy Scriptures, or in the particular Laws and Statutes of the Nation wherein I live.

And, queſtionleſs, if I diſcharge this Duty as I ought, whatever Sphere of Authority I move in, I am capable of doing a great deal of Good, not only by my Power, but by my Influence and Example. For, common Experience teaches us, That even the Inclinations and Deſires of thoſe that are eminent for their Quality or Station, are more powerful than the very Commands of GOD Himſelf; eſpecially, among Perſons of an inferiour Rank, and more ſervile Diſpoſition, who are apt to be more wrought upon by the Fear of preſent Puniſhment, or the Loſs of ſome temporal Advantage, than any thing that is future or ſpiritual. Hence it is, that all thoſe whom GOD entruſteth with this pre-precious Talent, have a great Advantage and Opportunity in their Hands, for the ſuppreſſing Sin, and exalting Holineſs in the World: A Word from their Mouths againſt Whoredom, Drunkenneſs, Prophanation of the Sabbath, or the like; yea, their very Example and ſilent Geſtures, being able to do more than the Threatnings of Almighty GOD, either pronounc'd by Himſelf in His Word, or by His Miniſters in His Holy Ordinances.

THIS, therefore, is my Reſolution, that whatſoever Authority the Moſt High GOD ſhall be pleas'd to put upon me, I will look upon it as my Duty, and always make it my Endeavour, to demoliſh the Kingdom of Sin and Satan, and eſtabliſh that of CHRIST and Holineſs in the Hearts of all thoſe to whom my Commiſſion extends; looking more at the Duty GOD expects from me, than at the Dignity He conferrs upon me. In a word, I will ſo exerciſe the Power and Authority GOD puts into my Hands here, that when the particular Circuit of my Life is ended, and I ſhall be brought to the General Aſſize to give an Account of this amongſt my other Talents, I may give it up with Joy; and ſo exchange my Temporal Authority upon Earth, for an Eternal Crown of Glory in Heaven.

Resolution IV.

I am reſolv'd, by the Divine Grace, to improve the Affections GOD ſtirs up in others towards me, to the ſtirring up of their Affections towards GOD.

IF the Authority I have over others, then, queſtionleſs, the Affection others have to me, is to be improv'd for GOD; and that, becauſe the Affection they bear to me in a natural Senſe, hath a kind of Authority in me over them in a ſpiritual one. And this I gather from my own Experience; for I find none to have a greater Command over me, than they that manifeſt the greateſt Affections for me. Indeed, 'tis a Truth generally agreed on, that a real and ſincere Eſteem for any Perſon, is always attended with a Fear of diſpleaſing that Perſon; and where there is Fear in the Subject, there will, doubtleſs, be Authority in the Object; becauſe Fear is the Ground of Authority, as Love is, or ought to be, the Ground of that Fear. The greateſt Potentate, if not fear'd, will not be obey'd; if His Subjects ſtand in no Awe of Him, he can never ſtrike any Awe upon them. Nor will that Awe have have its proper Effects in curbing and reſtraining them from Sin and Diſobedience, unleſs it proceeds from, and is join'd with, Love.

I know, the Scripture tells me, There is no Fear in Love, but that perfect Love caſteth out Fear, John iv. 18. But that is to be underſtood of our Love to GOD, not to Men, and that a perfect Love too, ſuch as can only be exercis'd in Heaven. There, I know, our Love will be conſummate, without Mixture, as well as without Defect; there will be a perfect Expreſſion of Love on both ſides, and ſo no Fear of Diſpleaſure on either. But this is a Happineſs, which is not to be expected here on Earth; ſo long as we are cloath'd with Fleſh and Blood, we ſhall, in one Degree or other, be ſtill under the Influence of our Paſſions and Affections. And, therefore, as there is no Perſon we can love upon Earth, but who may ſometimes ſee Occaſion to be diſpleas'd with us, ſo he will always, upon this Account, be fear'd by us. This I look upon as the chief Occaſion of one Man's having ſo much Power and Influence over another.

But how comes this under the Notion of a Talent receiv'd from GOD, and ſo to be improv'd for Him? Why, becauſe 'tis He, and He alone, that kindles and blows blows up the Sparks of pure Love and Affection in us, and that by the Breathings of His own Spirit. It was the Lord that gave Joſeph Favour in the Sight of the Keeper of the Priſon, Gen. xxxix. 21. and that brought Daniel into Favour and tender Love with the Prince of the Eunuchs, Dan. i. 9. And ſo of all others in the World: For we are told elſewhere, that as GOD faſhioneth the Hearts of Men, ſo He turneth them which way ſoever He will. Inſomuch that I can never ſee any expreſs their Love to me, but I muſt expreſs my Thankfulneſs to GOD for it: Nor can I feel in myſelf any Warmth of Affection towards others, without conſidering it as a Talent hid in my Breaſt, which I am oblig'd in Duty to improve for Him, by ſtirring up their Affections unto Him, whoſe Affections Himſelf hath ſtirr'd up toward me. And this will be the more eaſy to effect, if I take care, in the firſt place, to expreſs the Zeal and Sincerity of my own Love to GOD, by making Him the chief Object of my Eſteem and Adoration, and manifeſt my Averſion to the Sins they are guilty of, by repreſenting them as moſt loathſome and abominable, as well as moſt dangerous and damnable. For, where-ever there is a true and cordial Affection to any Perſon, it is apt to byaſs thoſe that are under the Influence of it, to chooſe the ſame Objects for their Love or Averſion, that ſuch a Perſon does, i.e. to love what He loves, and hate what He hates. This, therefore, is the firſt thing to be done, to ſtir up the Affections of others, to love and ſerve GOD.

ANOTHER way of my improving the Affections of others to this End, is by ſetting them a good Example; for commonly what a Friend doth, be it good or bad, is pleaſing to us, becauſe we look not at the Goodneſs of the Thing which is done, but at the Lovelineſs of the Perſon that doth it. And if the Vices of a Friend ſeem amiable, how much more will his Vertues ſhine? For this Reaſon, therefore, whenſoever I perceive any Perſon to ſhew a Reſpect for, or Affection to, me, I ſhall always look upon it, as an Opportunity put into my Hands, to ſerve and glorify my great Creator, and ſhall look upon it as a Call from Heaven, as much as if I heard the Almighty ſay to me, I deſire to have this Perſon love Me, and therefore have I made him to love Thee; do thou but ſet before him an Example of Goodneſs and Vertue, and his Love to thy Perſon ſhall induce and engage him to direct his Actions according to it. This, therefore, is the Rule, that I fully reſolve to guide myſelf by, with relation to thoſe who who are pleas'd to allow me a Share in their Eſteem and Affection, which I hope to improve to their Advantage in the End: That as they love me, and I love them now, ſo we may all love GOD, and GOD love us to all Eternity.

RESOLUTION V.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to improve every good Thought to the producing of good Affections in myſelf, and as good Actions with reſpect to GOD.

WHATSOEVER comes from GOD, being a Talent to be improv'd to Him, I cannot but think good Thoughts to be as precious Talents, as 'tis poſſible a Creature can be bleſſed with. But let me eſteem them as I will, I am ſure, my Maſter will reckon them amongſt the Talents he entruſted me with, and will call me to an Account for; and, therefore, I ought not to neglect them. The Scripture tells me, I am not ſufficient of myſelf to think any thing, as of myſelf, but that my Sufficiency is of GOD, 2 Cor. iii. 5.

And if I be not ſufficient to think any thing, much leſs am I able, of myſelf, to think of that which is good; foraſmuch as to good Thoughts there muſt always be ſuppos'd a ſpecial Concurrence of GOD's Spirit; whereas to other Thoughts there is only the general Concurrence of His Preſence. Seeing, therefore, they come from GOD, how muſt I lay them out for Him? Why, by ſublimating good Thoughts into good Affections. Does GOD vouchſafe to ſend down into my Heart a Thought of Himſelf? I am to ſend up this Thought to Him again, in the fiery Chariot of Love, Deſire, and Joy. Doth He dart into my Soul a Thought of Holineſs and Purity? I am to dwell and meditate upon it, till it break out into a Flame of Love and Affection for Him. Doth He raiſe up in my Spirit a Thought of Sin, and ſhew me the Uglineſs and Deformity of it? I muſt let it work its deſir'd Effect, by making it as loathſome and deteſtable, as that Thought repreſents it to be.

But good Thoughts muſt not only be improv'd to produce good Affections in my Heart, but likewiſe good Actions in my Life. So that the Thoughts of GOD ſhould not only make me more taken with His Beauty, but more Active for His Glory; and the Thoughts of Sin ſhould not only damp my Affection to it, but likewiſe deter and reſtrain me from the Commiſſion of it.

And thus, every good Thought that GOD puts into my Heart, inſtead of ſlipping out, as it does with ſome others, without Regard, will be cheriſh'd and improv'd, to the producing of good Actions: Theſe Actions will entitle me to the Bleſſings of GOD, and That to the Kingdom of Glory.

Resolution VI.

I am reſolv'd, by the Grace of GOD, to improve every Affliction GOD lays upon me, as an Earneſt or Token of His Affection towards me.

EVery Thing that flows from GOD to His Servants, coming under the Notion of Talents, to be improv'd for Himſelf, I am ſure, Afflictions, as well as other Mercies, muſt needs be reckon'd amongſt thoſe Talents GOD is pleas'd to vouchſafe. Indeed, it is a Talent, without which I ſhould be apt to forget the Improvement of all the reſt; and which, if well improv'd, itſelf will work out for me a far more exceeding and eternal Weight of Glory.

Glory, 2 Cor. iv. 7. 'Tis the Non-Improvement of an Affliction that makes it a Curſe; whereas, if improv'd, 'tis as great a Bleſſing as any GOD is pleas'd to ſcatter amongſt the Children of Men. And therefore it is, that GOD moſt frequently entruſteth this precious Talent with His own peculiar People; You only have I known of all the Families of the Earth; therefore will I puniſh you for your Iniquities, Amos iii. 2. Thoſe that GOD knows the beſt, with them will He entruſt the moſt, if not of other Talents, yet, be ſure, of this; which is ſo uſeful and neceſſary to bring us to the Knowledge of ourſelves and our Creator, that without it we ſhou'd be apt to forget both.

'Tis this, that ſhews us the Folly and Pride of Preſumption, as well as the Vanity and Emptineſs of all worldly Enjoyments; and deters us from incenſing and provoking Him, from whom all our Happineſs, as well as our Afflictions, flow. Let, therefore, what Croſſes or Calamities ſoever befall me, I am ſtill reſolv'd to bear them all, not only with a patient Reſignation to the Divine Will, but even to comfort and rejoice myſelf in them, as the greateſt Bleſſings. For Inſtance, Am I ſeiz'd with Pain and Sickneſs? I ſhall look upon it as a Meſſage from GOD, ſent on purpoſe poſe to put me in mind of Death, and to convince me of the Neceſſity of being always prepar'd for it, by a good Life, which a State of uninterrupted Health is apt to make us unmindful of. Do I ſuſtain any Loſſes or Croſſes? The true Uſe of theſe is, to make me ſenſible of the Fickleneſs and Inconſtancy of this World's Bleſſings, which we can no ſooner caſt our Eye upon, but they immediately take to themſelves Wings, and fly away from us. And ſo, all other Afflictions GOD ſees fit to lay upon me, may, in like manner, be, ſome way or other, improv'd for my Happineſs.

But, beſides the particular Improvements of particular Chaſtiſements, the general Improvement of all is the Increaſing of my Love and Affection to that GOD, who brings theſe Afflictions upon me. For, how runs the Mittimus, whereby he is pleas'd to ſend me to the Dungeon of Afflictions? Deliver ſuch a one to Satan to be buffeted in the Fleſh, that the Spirit may be ſaved in the day of the Lord Jesus, 1 Cor. v. 5. By this it appears, that the Furnace of Afflictions, which GOD is pleas'd, at any time, to throw me into, is not heated at the Fire of His Wrath, but at the Flames of His Affection to me. The Conſideration whereof, as it ſhould more inflame my Love to Him, ſo ſhall it likewiſe wiſe engage me to expreſs a greater Degree of Gratitude towards Him, when He ſingles me out, not only to ſuffer from Him, but for Him too. For this is an Honour, indeed, peculiar to the Saints of GOD, which if He ſhall be pleas'd ever to preferr Me to, I ſhall look upon it as upon other Afflictions, to be improv'd for His Glory, the Good of others, and the Everlaſting Comfort of my own Soul.

THUS have I reckon'd up the Talents GOD hath, or may, put into my Hands, to be improv'd for His Glory. May the ſame Divine Being that entruſted me with them, and inſpir'd me with theſe good Reſolutions concerning them, enable me, by His Grace, to make a due Uſe of them, and carefully to put in Practice what I have thus religiouſly reſolv'd upon!

THERE are ſome other Mercies, which might be ſet down in the Catalogue of Talents; as, the Graces and Motions of GOD's Holy Spirit, and the Uſe of His Holy Ordinances, under the Miniſtry of the Goſpel; but theſe being included and inſiſted on, under ſeveral of the foregoing Heads, will not require a diſtinct Conſideration.
